WRITERS' BUILDINGS, CALCUTTA,
The 28th February 1957.

N. C. RAY,
Joint Director of Agricultural Marketing, West Bengal.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA

NOTICE.

Calcutta, the 8th August 1957.

The Standing Finance Committee of the Corporation by its Resolution, dated the 27th July 1957, adopted finally the following rules framed under section 173 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1951:—

1. For the purpose of valuing the land contained within a bustee and the huts standing on it separately, as provided in section 173 of the Act, the following principles shall apply—

(a) the annual value of the land contained within a bustee shall be deemed to be the gross annual rent at which such land might at the time of assessment be expected to let from year to year:

Provided that vacant land within a bustee shall be valued at half the rate of rent taken for such land if actually let out;

(b) the annual value of a hut standing in a bustee shall be deemed to be the gross annual rent at which the hut might at the time of assessment be reasonably expected to let from year to year after deducting therefrom the gross annual rent of the land appertaining thereto and an allowance of ten per cent., for the cost of repairs and for all expenses necessary to maintain such hut in a state to command such gross rent.

2. The total value of a hut including the land appertaining thereto shall be deemed to be the sum obtained by adding the annual value of the land appertaining thereto to the annual value of the hut as determined under rule 1(b).

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Public Health

NOTIFICATION

No. P.H.3857/2R/58/57.—20th August 1957.—Whereas the Governor is satisfied that the district of 24-Parganas is threatened with an outbreak of cholera;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897 (III of 1897), the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the prevention and control of cholera, and for the medical inspection, isolation, observation and surveillance of persons suffering from, or suspected of being infected with, cholera in the said districts for a period of six months:—

TEMPORARY REGULATIONS FOR THE PREVENTION AND CONTROL OF CHOLERA.

1. In these regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "District Health Officer" means the Health Officer of the district appointed by the district board under sub-section (3) of section 91 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885);

(b) "Sanitary Inspector" means a Sanitary Inspector appointed by the district board under sub-section (3) of section 91 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885;

(c) "Board" means a district board constituted under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885;

(d) "Union Board" means a union board constituted under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (Bengal Act V of 1919);

(e) "Suspected cholera" means any disease accompanied by vomiting and diarrhoea;

(f) "Patient" means a person suffering from or suspected to be suffering from cholera;

(g) "Medical practitioner" means any person practising the medical profession.

2. Whenever any land is held jointly by two or more persons, whether as owners or occupiers of that land, such persons shall be held jointly and severally liable for carrying out any measure ordered in a notice under these regulations, and the names of any one or more of such joint-holders may be entered upon such notice at the discretion of the District Health Officer and the District Health Officer shall not be bound to enter the names of all the joint-holders in the notice.

Notices.

3. If in any case the District Health Officer considers that the issue of a notice under these regulations is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of cholera he may forthwith take such step as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reason why such work has been carried out.

4. If any measure which the District Health Officer has, by a notice issued under these regulations, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice, the District Health Officer shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Costs and compensation.

5. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of any order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the board except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his possession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by that person:

Provided that where the conditions, which led the District Health Officer to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the persons in possession of the property, the board may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The board may recover all expenses incurred by the District Health Officer in carrying out the measure under regulation 4 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

6. The Board shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

Provided that no person shall receive any compensation for anything done, or suffered under these regulations, if he has failed to carry out an order issued under these regulations within the time specified in the order and to the satisfaction of the District Health Officer.

Location of disease.

7. When a case of cholera or suspected cholera occurs in a house, the nearest male relative in attendance upon the patient, or in the absence of any such relative the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the patient, some male inmate of the house shall, within twenty-four hours of the onset of the disease, give information regarding the occurrence of such case either personally or in writing or by means of chaukidar or other village watchman to the nearest Sanitary Inspector.

8. (1) If information has not already been given under regulation 7, the medical practioner called in to attend upon any case of cholera shall forthwith give notice of the case by special messenger to the nearest Sanitary Inspector or rural medical officer and by post to the District Health Officer and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the board.

(2) The Doctor-in-charge of a hospital or a dispensary within the district shall forthwith give notice of any case of cholera brought to such hospital or dispensary for treatment to the nearest Sanitary Inspector by a special messenger and to the District Health Officer by post and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the board.

9. Presidents of union boards in union board areas and thana officers in non-union board areas shall supply to the District Health Officer such periodical returns of cases of cholera as he may from time to time call upon them to furnish.

10. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine any person who is, or suspected to be, suffering from cholera or who, in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread cholera.

Isolation of patients and evacuation of houses, etc.

11. When the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector considers that the isolation of any patient is a precaution necessary for the protection of the neighbouring population, he shall order the patient to observe isolation and may order the nearest relative in attendance on the patient, or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying to arrange for the isolation of the patient in such a manner and for such a time as may be approved by the District Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector.

He shall not direct the patient to be removed from the house unless it is in his opinion impossible to make proper arrangements for his isolation therein.

12. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may order any person to take such drugs in such quantities as may be specified by the said Officer or to submit himself to anti-cholera inoculation within a time to be specified in the order.

13. No person shall enter any place wherein a patient is isolated under regulation 11 without the permission of the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

14. The board shall provide free of charge suitable places, with necessary attendants, medicine, diet and other necessaries for persons isolated under regulation 11: provided that a private individual may provide places certified by the District Health Officer as being fit for the purpose of such isolation.

15. If it is not possible for the board to provide suitable places with necessary attendants, diet and other necessaries for isolation of the patient or if satisfactory arrangement for such isolation is not also possible in the house where the patient is staying, the patient shall be sent, under proper sanitary precautions, to the nearest hospital where there is suitable arrangement for isolation.

16. No person, who is or has been suffering from cholera, shall leave the place where he has been staying until he has received from the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector written permission to do so.

17. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require any person to allow to be carried out by such agency, and within such time as may be specified in the order, such measures for the disinfection or evacuation of any premises in the occupation of such person or for the disinfection or destruction of any of his personal effects, as the said officer or inspector may consider necessary.

18. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may direct the owner or occupier of any premises to cause to be inoculated with anti-cholera vaccine within a time specified in the order any person residing on such premises and under the control of such owner or occupier if the District Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector is of opinion that such person has been exposed to infection from cholera.

19. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may forbid any person who has been a patient or who has, to his knowledge, been in contact with a patient to act as vendor of any article for such period as may be specified in the order.

20. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance a patient except in the case where a patient is carried with proper precautions to a hospital.

21. No person shall sell any article which has been in contact with a patient until it has been disinfected to the satisfaction of the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

22. No person shall expose in any street, shop, bazar, or any public place any clothing, bedding or other article which has been in contact with a patient or shall cause or suffer such articles to be carried in any public conveyance but nothing in this regulation shall apply to a person who transmits with proper precautions against spreading the disease any such article for the purpose of having the same disinfected.

23. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance the dead body of any person who has died of cholera without the previous written permission of the District Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector and without taking proper precautions against spreading the said disease.

Water-supply.

24. (1) When the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector is of opinion that the water in any well, tank, pool or other possible source of water-supply is contaminated or is likely to be contaminated, he may at once take such steps as he deems necessary to close such well, tank, pool or other source of water-supply, or may require the owner or occupier of land upon which such well, tank, pool or other source of water-supply is situated, to take steps to close the same to the satisfaction of the District Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, as the case may be, within such time as may be specified in the order.

(2) The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require such owner or occupier to keep closed during such a period as shall be specified in the order any well, tank, pool or other sources of water-supply closed under paragraph (1) of this regulation.

Explanation.—In this regulation, "to close" includes the placing of chaukidars to prevent access to the well, tank, pool or other source of water-supply.

25. When the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector is of opinion that the water in well, tank, pool or source of water-supply is contaminated he may disinfect it or order its owner or occupier to disinfect it with such disinfectants as he may specify in such quantities and at such times as he may think fit.

26. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may prohibit persons from entering into or using for drinking, bathing, or any other purpose, during such period as may be specified in the order, the water in any well, tank, pool or other possible source of water-supply, which, in his opinion, is contaminated or likely to be contaminated.

27. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may, by an order published at such places as he may think fit, set apart any well, tank, part of a river, stream or channel not being private property, or being private property with the consent of the owner, for the supply of water for drinking or culinary purposes and may prohibit therein or within a distance therefrom to be stated in the order all bathing, washing of clothes or animals, or other acts calculated to pollute the water; and may similarly set apart any well, tank, part of a river, stream or channel for the purpose of bathing or for the purpose of washing animals or clothes or for any other purpose connected with the health and cleanliness of the people using such water-supply.

28. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may prohibit persons from easing themselves, or throwing, depositing or discharging any rubbish, sewage, or offensive matter, into any well, tank, pool or other source of water-supply, which is used by the public, or within such a distance from such well, tank, pool or source of water-supply as he may fix.

Conservancy and sewage disposal.

29. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may (1) prohibit the committal or continuance of any nuisance, or (2) require the person causing any nuisance or the person occupying the premises on which any nuisance exists to remove such nuisance.

Explanation.—In this regulation "nuisance" means anything which in the opinion of the District Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector is likely to spread or to cause the outbreak of cholera.

30. Whenever the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector is satisfied that the condition of any privy, urinal, drain, sewer or cesspool is such as to cause risk of spreading cholera to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood he may order the occupier of the land in which such privy, urinal, drain, sewer or cesspool is situated to disinfect, or to allow an officer of the Board to disinfect, the same with such disinfectants in such quantities and at such time as the said officer or inspector shall think fit.

31. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may for the prevention of the outbreak or spread of cholera, order the owner or occupier of any land to repair or make efficient to the satisfaction of that officer or inspector any drain, sewer, privy, urinal or cesspool which is situated upon such land or to remove any such drain, sewer, privy, or urinal or close any such cesspool within such time as may be fixed by the said officer or inspector.

Miscellaneous.

32. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may during the prevalence of any outbreak of cholera order that any market, shop or other public place shall remain closed for such time as may appear to him to be necessary and may forbid the holding of any fair, mela, or other gathering to which people from several villages commonly or periodically resort.

33. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require the owner or occupier of any land to clear and remove within the period specified in the order, any vegetation upon such land the existence of which in the opinion of the said officer or inspector conduces to the committing of nuisances upon such land.

34. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may issue general orders that by a specified date certain sanitary precautions of a simple nature such as, lime-washing of houses, clearing of latrines or the removal of filth or rubbish shall be carried out to his satisfaction.

35. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may prohibit persons from retaining or selling clothes taken from the bodies of persons who have died of cholera and may cause any such clothes to be destroyed.

36. No person shall, without the written permission of the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector, dispose of any corpse except by burning or burial.

37. The District Health Officer may approve burning or burial grounds, and may by order direct either generally or specially in respect to any specified area, that corpses shall not be burned or buried at places other than those so approved by him.

38. Any person burning or causing to be burnt any corpse shall cause the same to be completely reduced to ashes, and shall likewise cause the clothes or other articles brought with such corpse to be reduced to ashes.

39. The District Health Officer may direct that no person shall bury or cause to be buried any corpse which, in the opinion of the District Health Officer, is likely to spread cholera in a grave not constructed of masonry and less than six feet deep.

40. The District Health Officer may order that no dome or other servant of the board employed for the disposal of corpse shall withdraw from his duties without the permission of the District Health Officer unless such dome or other servant of the board has given notice in writing not less than one month previously of his intention so to withdraw.

41. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may through any person authorised by such officer or inspector in that behalf seize and dispose of any corpse, which, in the opinion of the said officer or inspector, is infected with or is likely to spread cholera, unless the relatives or friends of the deceased person satisfy him that they are prepared and able to dispose of the corpse in a manner which will prevent the spread of cholera.

42. (1) The District Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector may require any person who appears to be acquainted with facts in connection with any case of cholera or suspected cholera to attend before him at a time to be stated in the order and at any place not more than one mile from the place where such person resides or is staying when the order is issued, and such person shall appear as so required.

(2) When the person summoned to appear under paragraph (1) is a female, who, by the custom of the country, does not appear in public suitable precaution shall be taken to respect the said custom.

43. (1) The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine orally any person who appears to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of a case of cholera or suspected cholera.

(2) When the person to be examined under paragraph (1) is a female who, by the custom of the country, does not appear in public, the officer shall take her statement under such conditions as shall admit of due respect to the said custom.

(3) Such person shall be bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him or her by such officer, other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him or her to any criminal charge.

44. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may, with such assistants (if any), as he thinks fit, enter upon any land, or after two hours' notice in writing, into any premises or buildings used for human habitation at any time between sunrise and sunset for the purpose of carrying out any measure of making any enquiries authorised by these regulations.

45. The crew of any inland steam vessel or boat which plies in any canal or river or other persons residing on such vessel or boat shall be subject to these regulations.

46. All inoculations under these regulations shall be performed gratuitously.

47. (i) Orders issued by the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector under these regulations shall be in writing.

(ii) The officer issuing such orders shall cause copies of them to be served upon any persons named in them.

(iii) The nearest relative of a patient or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying shall, if a copy of the order under regulation II has been served upon him, give to the nearest Sanitary Inspector or to his office, immediate notice of any disobedience of the order by the patient.

PART I—Orders and Notifications by the Governor of West Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL

Public Health

NOTIFICATION.

No. P.H./3858/2R-58/57.—20th August 1957.—Whereas the Governor is satisfied that the district of 24-Parganas is threatened with an outbreak of small-pox;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897 (III of 1897), the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the prevention and control of small-pox, and for the medical inspection, isolation, observation and surveillance of persons suffering from, or suspected of being infected with, small-pox in the said district for a period of six months:—

TEMPORARY REGULATIONS FOR THE PREVENTION AND CONTROL OF SMALL-POX.

1. In these regulations unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "District Health Officer" means the Health Officer of the district appointed by the district board under sub-section (3) of section 91 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885);

(b) "Sanitary Inspector" means a Sanitary Inspector appointed by the district board under sub-section (3) of section 91 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885;

(c) "Board" means a district board constituted under the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885;

(d) "Small-pox" means any disease accompanied by an eruption of vesicles or pustules;

(e) "Patient" means a person suffering from or suspected to be suffering from small-pox;

(f) "Medical practitioner" means any person practising the medical profession.

Notices

2. If in any case the District Health Officer considers that the issue of a notice under these regulations is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of small-pox he may forthwith take such steps as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reasons why such work has been carried out.

3. If any measure which the District Health Officer has by a notice issued under these regulations, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice the District Health Officer shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Costs and compensation

4. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of an order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the board except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his possession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by such person:

Provided that where the conditions which led the District Health Officer to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the person in possession of the property, the board may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The board may recover all expenses incurred by the District Health Officer in carrying out the measure under regulation 3 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

5. The board shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

Provided that no person shall receive any compensation for anything done or suffered under these regulations if he has failed to carry out an order issued under these regulations. He shall not direct the patient to be removed from the house unless it is, in his opinion, impossible to make proper arrangements for his isolation therein within the time specified in the order and to the satisfaction of the District Health Officer.

Location of disease

6. When a case of small-pox occurs in a house, the nearest male relative in attendance upon the patient, or in the absence of any such relative the occupier of the house, or if the occupier be the patient, the senior male inmate of the house other than patient of the house shall, within twenty-four hours of the onset of the disease, give information regarding the occurrence of such case either personally or in writing or by means of the chaukidar or other village watchman or headman to the nearest officer-in-charge of police thana.

7. (1) Every medical practitioner called in to attend upon any case of small-pox shall forthwith give notice of the case by a special messenger to the nearest member of the outdoor staff of the board and to the District Health Officer by post and the cost of such messenger in each case shall be defrayed by the Board.

(2) The doctor-in-charge of a hospital or a dispensary within the district shall forthwith give notice of any case of small-pox brought to such hospital or dispensary for treatment to the nearest Sanitary Inspector by a special messenger and to the District Health Officer by post, and the cost in each case shall be defrayed by the board.

8. Thana officers shall supply to the District Health Officer such periodical returns of cases of small-pox as he may from time to time call upon them to furnish.

9. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine any person who is, or suspected to be, suffering from small-pox or who in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread small-pox.

Isolation of patients

10. When the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector considers that the isolation of any patient is a precaution necessary for the protection of the neighbouring population, he shall order the patient to observe isolation and may order the nearest relative in attendance on the patient, or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying, to arrange for the isolation of the patient in such a manner and for such a time as may be approved by the District Health Officer.

11. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may order that any person, who has been in contact with a person found to be suffering from small-pox, shall be segregated for a period not exceeding a fortnight in a manner and in a place to be approved by the District Health Officer.

12. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may order that any person who has been in contact with a person found to be suffering from small-pox shall be vaccinated or re-vaccinated within a time to be specified in the order.

13. No person shall enter any place wherein a patient is isolated under regulation 10, without the permission of the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

14. When a patient has been removed from a house for isolation under regulation 10, the board shall provide for him free of charge a suitable place, with necessary attendants, diet, etc.

15. No person, who is or has been suffering from small-pox, shall leave the place where he has been staying until he has received from the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector written permission to do so.

16. No person while suffering from evident symptoms of small-pox or in the convalescent state of the disease with scabs of pocks on his body shall expose himself in any street, road, public place, shop, bazar or any place used in common by persons other than members of the family or household to which such infected person belongs or shall move from place to place unless he is proceeding to a hospital for admission and treatment.

17. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector authorised by the District Health Officer in writing in that behalf may, during the prevalence of any outbreak of small-pox, order that any bazar, shop or other public place shall remain closed for such time as may appear to him to be necessary and may forbid the holding of any fair, mela, or other gathering to which people from several villages commonly or periodically resort.

Miscellaneous

18. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require any person to allow to be carried out by such agency and within such time as may be specified in the order, such measures for the disinfection of any premises in the occupation of such person or for the disinfection or destruction of any of his personal effects, as the said officer or inspector may consider necessary.

19. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may direct the owner or occupier of any premises to take steps to have vaccinated or re-vaccinated within a time to be specified in the order any person residing on such premises and under the control of such owner or occupier if the District Health Officer is of opinion that such person has been in contact with any one suffering from small-pox.

20. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may forbid any person who has been a patient or who has to his knowledge been in contact with a patient to act as vendor of any article for such period as may be specified in the order.

21. No person shall sell any article which has been in contact with a patient until it has been disinfected to the satisfaction of the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector.

22. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may issue general orders that by a specified date certain sanitary precautions of a simple nature, such as lime-washing of houses, clearing of latrines or the removal of filth or rubbish shall be carried out to his satisfaction.

23. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may prohibit persons from retaining or selling clothes taken from the bodies of persons who have died of small-pox and may cause any such clothes to be destroyed.

24. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance a patient except in the case where a patient is carried to a hospital with the following precautions against spreading the disease, namely:—

(i) that he is so well covered that the discharge and scabs from the lesions do not come directly into touch with the body of the conveyance;

(ii) that he is taken to the hospital direct and the conveyance does not halt at any other place for transacting any business; and

(iii) that excepting one or two attendants for the patient no other person is carried in the conveyance at the same time.

25. No person shall expose in any street, shop, bazar or any public place any clothing, bedding or other article which has been in contact with a patient or shall cause or suffer such articles to be carried in any public conveyance, but nothing in this regulation shall apply to a person who transmits any such article for the purpose of having the same disinfected with the following precautions against spreading the disease:—

(i) the article is so well covered with a cloth soaked in strong solution of formalin (1 in 400), lysol (1 in 500), izol (1 in 500), or of sapponified cresol (1 in 160), that it does not come directly into touch with the body of the conveyance;

(ii) the article is taken to the disinfecting station direct and the conveyance does not halt at any other place for transacting any business; and

(iii) excepting one attendant for the purpose of taking the infected articles to the disinfecting station no other person is carried in the conveyance.

26. Every conveyance in which a patient or a dead body of a person who has died of small-pox or any article that has been in contact with a patient is carried shall be disinfected before it is used again. The disinfection will be effected—

(i) in the case of a conveyance carrying a patient to hospital, by the authorities of the hospital before such conveyance leaves the hospital;

(ii) in the case of a conveyance carrying any clothing, bedding or other article of a patient to the disinfecting station, by the authorities of such station; and

(iii) in the case of a conveyance carrying a dead body to the burial or cremation ground, by the owner of the conveyance himself and such owner shall effect the disinfection with a strong solution of formalin (1 in 400), lysol (1 in 500), izol (1 in 500) or of saponified cresol (1 in 160).

27. No person shall carry or permit to be carried in a public conveyance the dead body of any person who has died of small-pox without the previous written permission of the District Health Officer, or a Sanitary Inspector and without taking the following precautions against spreading the said disease:—

(i) the dead body is so well covered with a cloth soaked in a strong solution of formalin (1 in 400), lysol (1 in 500), izol (1 in 500), or of saponified cresol (1 in 160) that the discharge and scabs from the lesions do not come directly into touch with the body of the conveyance;

(ii) the dead body is taken to the burial or cremation ground direct and the conveyance does not halt at any other place for transacting any business; and

(iii) excepting attendants for the dead body no other person is carried in the conveyance at the same time.

28. No person shall, without the written permission of the District Health Officer, dispose of any corpse except by burning or burial.

29. The District Health Officer may approve burning or burial grounds and may by order direct either generally or specially in respect to any specified area, that corpses shall not be burned or burried at places other than those so approved by him.

30. Any person burning or causing to be burnt any corpse shall cause the same to be completely reduced to ashes and shall likewise cause the clothes or other articles brought with such corpse to be reduced to ashes.

31. The District Health Officer may direct that no person shall bury or cause to be buried any corpse, which, in the opinion of the District Health Officer, is likely to spread small-pox, in a grave, not constructed of masonry and less than 6 feet deep.

32. The District Health Officer may order that no dome or other servant of the board employed for the disposal of corpses shall withdraw from his duties without the permission of the District Health Officer unless such dome or other servant of the board has given notice in writing not less than one month previously of his intention so to withdraw.

33. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may through any person authorised by such officer or inspector in that behalf seize and dispose of any corpse which in the opinion of the said officer or inspector is infected with or is likely to spread small-pox, unless the relatives or friends of the deceased person satisfy him that they are prepared and able to dispose of the corpse in a manner which will prevent the spread of small-pox.

34. (1) The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may require any person who appears to be acquainted with facts in connection with any case or suspected case of small-pox to attend before him at a time to be stated in the order and at any place not more than one mile from the place where such person resides or is staying when the order is issued, and such person shall appear as so required.

(2) When the person summoned to appear under paragraph (1) is a female who, by the custom of the country does not appear in public, suitable precaution shall be taken to respect the said custom.

35. (1) The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may examine orally any person who appears to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of a case or suspected case of small-pox.

(2) When the person to be examined under paragraph (1) is a female who, by the custom of the country, does not appear in public, the officer shall take her statement under such conditions as shall admit of due respect of the said custom.

(3) Such person shall be bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him or her by such officer, other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him or her to any criminal charge.

36. The District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector may, with such assistants (if any) as he thinks fit, enter upon any land, or after two hours' notice in writing, into any premises or building used for human habitation at any time between sunrise and sunset for the purpose of carrying out any measure or making any enquiries authorised by these regulations.

37. The crew of any inland steam vessel or boat which plies in any canal or river and other persons residing on such vessel or boat shall be subject to these regulations.

38. (1) All vaccinations under these regulations shall be performed gratuitously provided they be done (a) at such public vaccination stations as may be opened by the District Board or (b) by house-to-house visits in the case of such females as are by the custom of the country unable to attend at public vaccination stations and are too poor to pay fees.

(2) Persons desirous of being vaccinated in their own houses other than those specially exempted under sub-regulation (1) shall pay a fee of two annas for each vaccination for which they shall get a printed receipt: provided that the total amount of fees payable for any number of operations performed in one family at the same house and at the same time shall not exceed annas eight.

39. (i) Orders issued by the District Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector under these regulations shall be in writing.

(ii) The officer issuing such orders shall cause copies of them to be served upon any persons named in them.

(iii) The nearest relative of a patient or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying shall, if a copy of the order under regulation 10 has been served upon him, give to the nearest Sanitary Inspector or to his office immediate notice of any disobedience of the order by the patient.

RESOLUTION

No. 2564G.A.—17th August 1957.—Government have received with deep regret the news of the untimely death of Shri Kshetradas Banarji, Additional District and Sessions Judge, Burdwan, on the night of the 11th July 1957.

2. Shri Banarji joined the Bengal Civil Service (Judicial) in August, 1936. He served in various districts in Bengal and Assam and after Partition, he continued to serve in West Bengal. At first, he served as a Munsif and, later, as a Subordinate and Assistant Sessions Judge. He was promoted to officiate in the West Bengal Higher Judicial Service in May, 1957, and was appointed as the Additional District and Sessions Judge, Burdwan.

3. Throughout his service, Shri Banarji upheld the highest traditions of integrity and devotion to duty of the Judicial Service. His sense of fairness earned him the esteem and affection of all those who came in contact with him.

4. The Government of West Bengal desire to record their profound regret at the untimely loss of an experienced officer and wish to convey to his family the sincere expression of their sympathy.

ELECTION TRIBUNAL, BURDWAN

NOTIFICATION

Re: Election Petition No. 408 of 1957 (Galsi Constituency of the Legislative Assembly, district Burdwan, West Bengal)

Shri Mahitosh Saha, Petitioner,

Shri Pramatha Nath Dhibar and four others, Respondents.

Whereas a petition for leave to withdraw the election petition (being No. 408 of 1957) has been presented by the petitioner abovenamed before this Tribunal;

Now, therefore, the Election Tribunal, Burdwan, in exercise of powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 109 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, hereby causes a Notice, along with a copy of the said petition for leave to withdraw the election petition, to be published in the Official Gazette, viz., the Calcutta Gazette, fixing the 29th day of August 1957 for hearing of the said petition before this Tribunal at 10-30 a.m. on the date fixed or as soon as thereafter as the business of the Tribunal will permit.

BEFORE THE ELECTION TRIBUNAL AT BURDWAN

ELECTION CASE No. 408 OF 1957

(1) Shri Pramatha Nath Dhibar (Scheduled Caste), Chowdhury Bazar, police-station Burdwan, (5) Shri Abdul Mannan (General), Bahir Sarvamangala, police-station Burdwan, Respondents—Opposite parties.

The humble petition of the abovenamed petitioner most respectfully sheweth:

(1) That your Honour's petitioner has filed an Election Petition which has been registered as Election Case No. 408 of 1957 of the Election Tribunal at Burdwan.

(2) That since filing the above Election Petition, your Honour's petitioner is suffering from various ailments and is in such a bad state of health that it would not be possible for him to bear the stress and strain of prosecuting the Election Petition. Your Honour's petitioner, therefore, begs to withdraw the aforesaid Election Petition.

(3) That in the circumstances stated above your petitioner humbly prays for leave to withdraw the aforesaid Election Petition being Case No. 408 of 1957 of the Election Tribunal at Burdwan.

In the circumstances stated above your Honour's petitioner most humbly prays that your Honour may be graciously pleased to grant leave to your petitioner to withdraw the Election Petition Case No. 408 of 1957 of the Election Tribunal at Burdwan and to pass such other order or orders as would be deemed fit and proper.

And your Honour's petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

DIRECTORATE OF TRANSPORTATION

NOTIFICATION

The 17th August 1957.

Whereas the Directorate of Transportation, Government of West Bengal, being the State Transport Undertaking in West Bengal, is of opinion that for the purpose of providing an efficient, adequate, economical and properly co-ordinated road transport service, it is necessary in the public interest that passenger road transport services in the Calcutta area in the routes specified in column 3 of the schedule below should be run and operated by the said Directorate of Transportation, Government of West Bengal, to the complete exclusion of other persons.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 68C of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (IV of 1939), the Directorate of Transportation, Government of West Bengal, have prepared the scheme specified in the schedule below, and the same is hereby published for the information of the persons likely to be affected thereby.

Any person affected by the scheme may, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 68D of the said Act, file objections thereto within thirty days from the date of its publication before the Government of West Bengal in the Home (Transport) Department.

Mines and Power

ORDERS.

No. 1817M.P.—17th July 1957.—Whereas Shri K. K. Koyal, Shri B. N. Das and Sm. Madhuri Chowdhury have entered into an agreement with the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation, Limited, licensees of the Calcutta and District Consolidated Electric License, 1946 (hereinafter referred to as the said licensees), for taking from the said licensees the supply of energy at their respective premises on Ramrajatolla Station Road, Santragachi, Howrah, situated outside the area of supply of the said licensees;

And whereas the said premises are not situated within the area of supply of any other licensee;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910), the Governor is pleased to authorise the said licensees to supply energy to the said Shri K. K. Koyal, Shri B. N. Das and Sm. Madhuri Chowdhury at their respective premises on Ramrajatolla Station Road, Santragachi, Howrah, for domestic purposes and to lay down and place electric supply lines for that purpose subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely:—

The authority hereby conferred shall—

(a) remain in force until—

(i) the area of supply of the said licensees is extended so as to include within its limits the said premises of Shri K. K. Koyal, Shri B. N. Das and Sm. Madhuri Chowdhury on Ramrajatolla Station Road, Santragachi, Howrah; or

(ii) a licence is granted to any other person whose area of supply includes the said premises within its boundaries and such person is in a position to supply energy to the said premises, or

(iii) any transmission or distribution system for supplying energy outside the area of supply of the said licensees is established by or on behalf of the State Electricity Board, enabling energy to be supplied at the said premises without such authority;

(b) be subject to the restrictions referred to in the third proviso to section 27 hereinbefore mentioned.

No. 1818M.P.—17th July 1957.—Whereas Shri Subal Chandra Lahiri has entered into an agreement with the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation, Limited, licensees of the Calcutta and District Consolidated Electric License, 1946 (hereinafter referred to as the said licensees), for taking from the said licensees the supply of energy at his premises on Ambica Kundu Bye Lane, Santragachi, Howrah, situated outside the area of the said licensees;

And whereas the said premises are not situated within the area of supply of any other licensee;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910), the Governor is pleased to authorise the said licensees to supply energy to Shri Subal Chandra Lahiri at his premises on Ambica Kundu Bye Lane, Santragachi, Howrah, for domestic purposes and to lay down and place electric supply lines for that purpose subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely:—

The authority hereby conferred shall—

(a) remain in force until—

(i) the area of supply of the said licensees is extended so as to include within its limits the said premises of Shri Subal Chandra Lahiri on Ambica Kundu Bye Lane, Santragachi, Howrah; or

(ii) a licence is granted to any other person whose area of supply includes the said premises within its boundaries and such person is in a position to supply energy to the said premises, or

(iii) any transmission or distribution system for supplying energy outside the area of supply of the said licensees is established by or on behalf of the State Electricity Board, enabling energy to be supplied at the said premises without such authority;

(b) be subject to the restrictions referred to in the third proviso to section 27 hereinbefore mentioned.

No. 1819M.P.—17th July 1957.—Whereas Shri Tara Prosad Chowdhury has entered into an agreement with the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation, Limited, licensees of the Calcutta and District Consolidated Electric License, 1946 (hereinafter referred to as the said licensees), for taking from the said licensees the supply of energy at his premises on Arabinda Road, Santragachi, Howrah, situated outside the area of supply of the said licensees;

And whereas the said premises are not situated within the area of supply of any other licensee;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 27 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (IX of 1910), the Governor is pleased to authorise the said licensees to supply energy to the said Shri Tara Prosad Chowdhury at his premises on Arabinda Road, Santragachi, Howrah, for domestic purposes and to lay down and place electric supply lines for that purpose subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely:—

The authority hereby conferred shall—

(a) remain in force until—

(i) the area of supply of the said licensees is extended so as to include within its limits the said premises of Shri Tara Prosad Chowdhury of Arabinda Road, Santragachi, Howrah; or

(ii) a licence is granted to any other person whose area of supply includes the said premises within its boundaries and such person is in a position to supply energy to the said premises, or

(iii) any transmission or distribution system for supplying energy outside the area of supply of the said licensees is established by or on behalf of the State Electricity Board, enabling energy to be supplied at the said premises without such authority;

(b) be subject to the restrictions referred to in the third proviso to section 27 hereinbefore mentioned.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDER

No. 2947-I.R./IR/11L-264/57.—6th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 85-I.R./IR/11L-402/56, dated the 7th January 1957, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Harnam Singh Co., 115/B Hazra Road, Calcuta, and their workman, Shri Baijnath, represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Harnam Singh Co., 115/B Hazra Road, Calcutta, and their workmen Shri Baijnath, represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta. [Case No. VIII-126(52) of 1957.]

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri P. K. Nandy, Counsel.

For the Company: Shri K. K. Moitra, Advocate.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Harnam Singh and Co. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), 115/B Hazra Road, Calcutta, and their workman Shri Baijnath, represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding Issue No. 1, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 85-I.R./D/11L-402/56, dated the 7th January 1957.

The reference was received in the office on 13th May 1957. Both parties filed written statements in the case, adduced evidence, oral and documentory, and advanced arguments.

Issues

(1) Is the dismissal of Baijnath justified; if not, what relief he is entitled to?

(2) Is the dispute an industrial dispute; if not, has the Tribunal jurisdiction to entertain it?

Issue No. 2: The Company's contention is that since a dispute over the dismissal of a single workman cannot be an industrial dispute, this one is not an industrial dispute. It is an individual dispute and cannot become an industrial dispute, unless the dismissed workman's cause is taken up by his colleagues or by a Union of which he is a member. The Company further contends that even the representation by Md. Ismail, Secretary, Bus

Workers' Union, is improper and not in accordance with the provisions of section 36 of the Industrial Disputes Act. The order of reference is to the following effect: "Whereas an industrial dispute exists between Messrs. Harnam Singh Co., 115/B Hazra Road, Calcutta, and their workman Shri Baijnath, represented by Bus Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, etc." The admitted evidence of Ext. A and Ext. I is that the Company received a letter from the Secretary, Bus Workers' Union, dated 10th May 1956, in which the Union complained of arbitrary dismissal from service of its member, Shri Baijnath and held out threats that further action should be taken unless Shri Baijnath was reinstated in service and paid his arrears of wages. The details of the letter mentioned in Ext. A are not before us. Elaborate arguments were advanced on the assumption that Shri Baijnath's case was not taken up by the Union but the Union only "represented" it before the Conciliation Officer and the Government, as it had done before the Tribunal. In fact, the Union took up his case "Threating action", long before the matter was referred to a Conciliation Officer and before the case was referred to this Tribunal. It is idle to speculate in the face of this evidence and absence of details either side that the Union merely "represented" the case according to the dictionary meaning of the word, and did not take up the cause of this workman. A Trade Union means a body of workers who combine themselves with a view to further their common interests. There is no scope for making any assumption in this case in the face of the order of reference and the evidence on record that the Bus Workers' Union merely "represented" Shri Baijnath's case in the sense of putting it before the Company or the Conciliation Officer and did not take it up in right earnest, as a corporate body of workmen to safeguard the interests of one of its members. The law is now clear on this point. The Supreme Court decision in the Newspaper Limited and Industrial Tribunal, U.P. and others, 1957-II, L.L.J. I, settles once for all controversies on this point. A single dispute per se is not an industrial dispute, but it becomes one when such dispute is taken up by a body of workers, the colleagues of the aggrieved workman or by a Union of which he is a member. I am satisfied from the materials on record that the Union did take up the case of the aggrieved workman and the present dispute is an industrial dispute. As such, the Government has rightly referred it to this Tribunal and this Tribunal has jurisdiction to adjudicate it. The representation in this particular case, before this Tribunal, was made by Md. Ismail, the Secretary of the Bus Workers' Union, who is competent to do so under section 36 of the Industrial Disputes Act. I answer this issue against the Company.

Issue No. 1: The Union's case is that Shri Baijnath who was in the service of this Company since March 1947 was summarily dismissed on the 1st March 1956 without notice. He was a cleaner on a pay of Rs. 80 per month and was not paid his arrears of wages since December 1956. Hence, he prayed for his reinstatement with arrears of wages, and wages for the period of unemployment. The Company's case is that Shri Baijnath did not work since 1947 but worked only for two months in January and February 1956 as a substitute in place of the permanent workman who went home on leave.

Shri Baijnath examined himself in this case and spoke in support of his claims. He said he was getting monthly wages of Rs. 20 for cleaning a taxi and Rs. 60 for cleaning a bus belonging to Harnam Singh, who has other buses as well. The bus was not plying since December as Dissel engine was being fitted in it. He received wages for cleaning the taxi, but his wages for cleaning the Bus remained in arrears. The Company refused when he demanded the payment of the arrears. At this the owner, Harnam Singh, asked him to go home and dismissed him. The relevant facts, including the amount of monthly wages, were not mentioned in the Union's written statement. As stated already, Shri Baijnath has no other evidence to corroborate him in this case, particularly when Shri Harnam Singh and the permanent cleaner, Shri Damodar, contradicted his evidence. Shri Harnam Singh and Shri Damodar said in their evidence that Shri Baijnath was appointed temporarily as a cleaner when Shri Damodar went home on leave for two months on the clear understanding that Shri Baijnath would vacate his job when Shri Damodar would return from leave. Shri Baijnath was paid for two months at the rate of Rs. 40 per month and left without raising any objection on the 1st March when Shri Damodar came back from home on the expiry of leave. In this state of evidence, it is not possible to place any reliance on the uncorroborated testimony of Shri Baijnath particularly, when it is against probabilities. Shri Baijnath was not dismissed. In fact, the termination of his services, which were purely temporary, was made in terms of an agreement. That being so, the question of his reinstatement or payment of arrears of wages does not arise. I decide the issue against the workman.

This is my award.

ORDER

No. 2935-I.R./D/11L-211/56.—5th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4047Dis./D/11L-211/56, dated the 10th September 1956, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Niyazi Gazipuri Hotel, 185 Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta, and their seven workers represented by Calcutta Hotel, Bar & Restaurant Employees' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Second Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Niyazi Gazipuri Hotel, 185 Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta, and their seven workers, represented by Calcutta Hotel, Bar & Restaurant Employees' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. P. MUKHERJEE, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the employees—None.

For the Company—None.

The present reference made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 4047Dis./11L-211/56, dated 10th September 1956, relates to the dismissal of seven workers of Messrs. Niyazi Gazipuri Hotel, 185 Dharamtalla Street, Calcutta.

The issue as mentioned in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:—

Whether the Management was justified in dismissing the seven workers (1) Md. Sattar, (2) Md. Ansar, (3) Md. Syed Ali, (4) Md. Khalil, (5) Md. Matin, (6) Md. Junayat and (7) Md. Atik? What relief are they entitled to?

AWARD

The case was fixed for hearing this day. Before this, the case was once more fixed for hearing on 15th July 1957. On that date, the Company did not enter appearance, and the workers concerned were also not present before the Tribunal. Yet, the Tribunal on representation made by the Vice-President of the Union, adjourned the case to this day for hearing. The Company was also informed of this. But this day, neither party entered appearance, though the Tribunal waited till 12 noon. Nor did any of the parties care to take any steps even. It seems that both parties are not in a mood to prosecute the present reference. In the circumstances, it may be safely presumed that neither party is interested in this reference. In view of what has been stated above, the Tribunal can proceed on the footing that the workers have no longer any grievance to press for redress. So, the Tribunal is of the view that the dispute referred to for adjudication has ceased to exist. The reference is thus disposed of.

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1131-I.R./IR/11L-88/57, dated 11th April 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XLV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. M. A. M. Kashani & Sons, 17 Mangoe Lane, Calcutta, and their workman, Md. Hanif, represented by the Calcutta Lorry Transport Workers' Union, 59B Chowringhee Road, Calcutta, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act to this Court for adjudication:

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Md. Hanif was justified; to what relief including reinstatement is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case by a driver for abrupt termination of his services. The case of the Union is that this driver was in the service of the Company for about one year and 9 months. He had no fixed hours of duty. Sometimes he was kept on duty for hours together even up to late hours of the night. On 8th April 1956 at about 8 p.m. the driver was sent for by the proprietor of the Company through a servant. The driver was then engaged in preparing his meals. So the driver asked the servant to inform the proprietor that he was not in a position to come immediately. To this the proprietor did not pay any heed. But the proprietor adhered to his orders demanding the immediate presence of the driver. The driver obviously could not carry out the orders and hence the termination of the service.

The Company put in a written statement denying generally the allegations in the written statement of the Union, and affirms that the driver was of late behaving improperly and on that particular night he did not carry out the orders of the proprietor. He was rightly dismissed.

The point for determination is whether the dismissal of the driver is justified. What relief is he entitled to?

The evidence in this case is one-sided. The proprietor did not appear to contest the case. On behalf of the Company Shri Haripada Ghosh, an accountant of the Company, stated before this Court that his proprietor had asked him to tell the Court that he had nothing further to add to his written statement. The Company did not adduce any evidence. So the statement of the driver stands uncontradicted. The Court has no alternative but to believe the statement of the driver. The Court therefore finds that the services of the driver were terminated without any reason or justification. No reasonable man can expect that a driver who had put in his day's strenuous work would be again summoned at about 8 p.m. to drive the car for the proprietor's family to have a ride in the Maidan and that while he was preparing his meals. What was recreation for the proprietor's family was nothing short of oppression to a hungry driver. The fire of hunger was burning ablaze in his stomach, so it could not be expected that he would gladly carry out the orders without taking his meals at that hour. What the proprietor should have done is that he should have granted the driver some reasonable time to finish his meal and then to call him for further duty. It was really nothing short of cruelty on the part of the proprietor to drive the driver to drive the car at that hour after his day's hard work.

I must, therefore, find that the action of the proprietor in summarily dismissing the driver is utterly unjustified and unreasonable.

Next comes the question of relief. In the interest of both the driver and the proprietor I feel reluctant to drive the driver back to his old master, who thus behaved cruelly with him. If I do so I shall be really throwing the driver from frying pan into fire. In this view of the matter the prayer of reinstatement is refused. The driver must, of course, get his due compensation. The compensation in this case should be one month's pay for his 21 months' of services, and one month's pay in lieu of notice. So in all the driver is found to be entitled to two months' pay, i.e., Rs. 200 from the proprietor, besides arrears of wages, if any. The Company must pay up the aforesaid dues of the driver within a month of the publication of this award.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd., Belgharia, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by Texmaco Workers' Union, 49 Nimta Road, P.O. Belgharia, 24-Parganas. (Case No. VIII-56 of 1957.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal

For the Union: Shri Ram Sen.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), Belgharia, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by Texmaco Workers' Union, 49 Nimta Road, P.O. Belgharia, 24-Parganas, over payment of bonus for 1956, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 594-I.R./D/10L-92/56, dated the 23rd February 1957.

Both parties filed written statements and 12th July 1957 was fixed for hearing the case.

Issue

AWARD

The Union claimed five months' wages as bonus out of profits for 1956, "over and above customary bonus".

The Company did not concede this demand. It resisted the claim on merits as also on law. Among others, the contention of the Company is that the employees are estopped from raising the dispute over payment of bonus for 1956 by an agreement in writing arrived at between the Company and their workmen, and that the reference of this dispute is ultra vires, and this Tribunal is not competent to adjudicate it in the present proceedings.

In an application filed on 4th July 1957, with a copy of it to the Union, the Company prayed for an order that the present order of reference is ultra vires the Industrial Disputes Act, and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain, proceed or continue the present adjudication proceedings. In the alternative, it asked for stay of the present proceedings till the disposal of the appeal now pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court against the award of Second Industrial Tribunal, dated 9th November 1956, allowing the workmen bonus for 1955. The Union opposed this application. At the suggestion of both parties, the hearing of this application along with the issue of jurisdiction was taken up on a day fixed for hearing and evidence of both sides was recorded and arguments were heard.

Points for decision

(i) Whether this Tribunal has jurisdiction to adjudicate the present dispute over payment of bonus for 1956 referred to it by order of the State Government?

(ii) Whether the hearing of the dispute be stayed till the disposal of the abovementioned appeal to the Hon'ble Supreme Court?

FINDINGS

The dispute over payment of bonus for 1955 was heard by Shri G. P. Mukherjee, Second Industrial Tribunal, who allowed it in part, by his award, dated 9th November 1956. It appears from the evidence of Shri R. S. Sarma, the Finance Officer of this Company, that the Company had preferred an appeal to the Supreme Court against the said award and the appeal was admitted. The appeal is now pending for hearing. The present dispute, as stated above, relates to a demand for payment of bonus for 1956. This has to be paid out of the profits of that year. It has not been shown before this Tribunal what common questions of law and fact will arise in the appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the proceedings before this Tribunal. On the contrary, it appears that the claim in the present dispute relates to a different period, and has no connection whatsoever with that in appeal before the Hon'ble Court. No endeavour was made by the Company to obtain an order of the Court for staying all further proceedings in the present dispute before this Tribunal. I see no good reason why the hearing of the present adjudication proceedings should be stayed till the disposal of the appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. That question is decided against the Company.

The questions now before this Tribunal are (i) whether the references made by the State Government is ultra vires the Industrial Dispute Act; (ii) whether it is beyond the jurisdiction of this Tribunal to entertain, proceed or continue with the hearing of this reference, and (iii) whether the present dispute is premature, and raised in breach of agreement to the contrary made between the Company and the workmen.

The agreement, dated the 6th October 1956, between the Management of the Company and their workers' representative of the Works Committee over payment of bonus for 1956 is admitted by both parties. The agreement Ext. A is appended to the Company's written statement and to its application filed on 4th July 1957. It is in evidence of P.W. 1, Shri R. S. Sarma, the Finance Officer of the Company, that this agreement for payment of bonus for 1956 was made at a time when a case for bonus of the previous year (1955) was pending for disposal before Shri G. P. Mukherjee, Second Industrial Tribunal, as previously stated, the Company has preferred an appeal against the award of the said Tribunal, dated 9th November 1956. The second paragraph of this agreement Ext. A is relevant and runs thus:

> "As the question of payment of bonus for the year 1955 is under adjudication and the accounts for the year 1956 are not yet ready and finalised, parties herein agree that the issue for the payment of bonus for the year 1956 should be raised and discussed only after the hearing for the 1955 bonus case is concluded and the account for the year 1956 are finalised and published."

The parties agreed that the issue for the payment of bonus for the year 1956 should be raised and discussed only after the hearing of the case of bonus for 1955 is concluded and the accounts for the year 1956 are finalised and published. The Company's contention is that both these conditions have not been fulfilled in this case, i.e., hearing of the said case is not concluded, for an appeal is pending for disposal in the Hon'ble Supreme Court, and that the accounts for the year 1956 were audited long after this reference, and not yet adopted by the shareholders of this Company and not yet published according to the provisions of the Company's Act. On the other hand, the Company has carried out the terms of this agreement by making an advance payment to their workmen which the workmen received in due time. The Union's contention, on the other hand, is that the hearing of the case was concluded by an award of the Second Industrial Tribunal on 9th November 1956. The agreement had nothing to do with the appeal now pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Further, the accounts of the year 1956 were closed on the 31st December of that year and must be taken to be finalised and published on that day. Besides, this agreement was not fully implemented by the Company for about 800 workmen out of a total of 3,750, as deposed to by Shri Sunil Kumar Das, Treasurer of the Workers' Union, were not paid any advance in terms of the agreement. In my opinion, the agreement Ext. A never contemplated a case of an appeal against the award of Second Industrial Tribunal for the case for payment of bonus of 1955 was pending at the time of agreement before the Second Industrial Tribunal. The parties could never have intended that the hearing of the case would mean any possible appeal that may be filed against an award of the Tribunal disposing of the case. The words of the agreement do not warrant any such interpretation. It is, no doubt, true that the accounts of this Company for 1956 were closed on the 31st December of that year. Their financial year is the same as a calendar year. But then, the parties did not intend that the disputes could be raised as soon as the accounts were closed on the 31st December 1956. Any intention to the contrary is excluded by the use of such words as "Finalised and published". If closing of accounts was really intended by the parties then there could not have been any objection to say that in so many words in the text of the agreement.

Now the question is when the accounts were finalised and published. Shri Sarma's evidence is that the balance sheet for the year 1956 was now completed and would be placed before a meeting of the shareholders on 27th July 1957. Until the shareholders passed the accounts of that year in a general meeting, the accounts could not be said to be final. He further said that the advance to the workers was paid in terms of the agreement. It appears from the Ext. B, copy of the balance sheet, that the balance sheet was audited on the 14th June 1957 and the present reference of the dispute was made by the Government on 23rd February 1957, i.e., long before the same were audited according to the provisions of the Company's Act. Every Company maintains its proper books of accounts under section 130 of the Company's Act. According to section 131 of the said Act, the Company should prepare a balance sheet and profit and loss accounts and get them audited by the auditor of the Company before placing them to the shareholders at a general meeting. Under section 197 of the Act, no document purporting to be a report of the general meeting shall be circulated or advertised unless some other requirements were complied with. In any view of the matter, it must be held that the accounts for 1956 were not finalised and published before the dispute was referred to this Tribunal. It should also be held that the said accounts had not yet been finalised and published according to law. The agreement Ext. A prohibits the parties from raising this dispute over payment of bonus for 1956 before the accounts for that year were finalised, and it seemed for good reasons. The dispute was settled by this agreement and admittedly advance was paid in terms of it to the workmen. It has been said on behalf of the Union that 800 temporary workmen out of the total of 3,750 were not paid this advance. There is no evidence on the Company's side to deny this allegations but that is not the whole point. It has been argued on behalf of the Company that the temporary workmen were not entitled to it in terms of the agreement. In the absence of details, I am not making any endeavour to decide this point here and now, for I consider it irrelevant for our present purpose. The Union's contention was that the agreement should be held to be non-existent for it was not fully implemented. That view is on the fact of it totally unsound. Non-fulfilment, either in part or whole, of a contract does not extinguish it and the parties are at liberty to enforce its performance in law. Another contention of the Union is that this agreement was made, not in course of conciliation proceedings, under the Industrial Disputes Act but privately, and, accordingly, it is not binding on the parties. The learned representative for the Union invites a reference to the provisions of section 18 of the Industrial Disputes Act before and after its last amendment. His case is that since there was no such provision in law before the amendment of section 18 at a time when the present reference was made the old section applies to the case and the amended section has no application. The amended section 18 came into force on 10th March 1957 and the relevant date of the order of reference is 23rd February 1957. So it may be said that on the day of reference the provision of the amended section 18(1) was not there. But it is settled law that an act creating a new obligation has no retrospective effect, unless expressly or by necessary implication so made, and the same rule would apply when the burden of the obligation is only increased by such an Act. Here, the amended act does not do anything of that sort. It only the position of law regarding agreements entered into privately outside the conciliation proceedings. I, therefore, do not see any sound reason why section 18(1) will not any here. Question now is whether a settlement of a dispute arrived at by agreement between the employer and the workmen otherwise than in the course of conciliation proceedings as in this case, shall be binding on the parties. In my view, such an agreement which settles the dispute is for more reasons than one to be taken as binding on the parties till it is avoided in due course of law. The Industrial Disputes Act has nowhere laid down that settlement of dispute by agreement should be disregarded irrespective of its consequences. In fact, except in the matter of payment of lay-off and retrenchment compensation as provided in Chapter VA of the Industrial Disputes Act, the said Act has not expressly conferred any power on the Tribunal to disregard any such agreement, whether made, in the conciliation proceedings or otherwise. In my opinion, both are equally binding. Sections 18 and 19 have to a certain extent, extended their application. Whether in the matter of fixation of wages, etc., a Tribunal set up under the Industrial Disputes Act, would in the larger interest of society and social justice mitigate some of the rigours of an existing contract is another matter. As a matter of fact, the amendment of section 18 makes it abundently clear now that an agreement settling a dispute, otherwise than in the conciliation proceedings, would be binding on the parties thereto. This view seems to have received strong support from a decision of Mr. Justice Desai of Allahabad High Court in a case between Radha Raman Bajpai and others and Labour Appellate Tribunal and others reported in 1957 L.L.J. II, page 15. Therefore, in my opinion the aforesaid agreement Ext. A was as much binding on the workmen as it was on the Company both at the time of reference of this dispute to this Tribunal and at this day. The result is that the workmen are precluded by this agreement from raising and discussing this dispute not only before the reference but even now. That being so, the pretended dispute could not be supposed to be in existence in the eye of law, at the time of its reference, and the State Government had no jurisdiction under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act to refer it to a Tribunal for its adjudication. To hold otherwise would be to encourage reopening of issues lawfully settled privately between the parties and thereby disturb the industrial peace. In my opinion the agreement stands. It has not been avoided in due course of law or otherwise terminated in accordance of the provisions of this Act. The reference being without jurisdiction this Tribunal, which derives its jurisdiction from a valid reference under section 10 of the Act is not competent to entertain, proceed with or continue the adjudication of this dispute. This dispute appears to be premature and illadvised. I, therefore, uphold the contention of the Company and decide the issue against the workmen. The reference stands rejected.

This is my award.

ORDER

No. 2960-I.R./D/11L-117/56.—6th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2254Dis./D/11L-117/56, dated the 28th May 1956, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Calcutta Iron & Steel and Non-ferrous Metal Works, 22 Canning Street, Room No. 11, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Calcutta Iron & Steel and Non-ferrous Metal Works Mazdoor Union, 574 Diamond Harbour Road, Calcutta-34, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Sixth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Calcutta Iron & Steel and Non-ferrous Metal Works, 22 Canning Street, Room No. 11, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Calcutta Iron & Steel and Non-ferrous Metal Works Mazdoor Union, 574 Diamond Harbour Road, Calcutta-34. (Case No. VIII-150 of 1956.)

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI SAILESH SENGUPTA, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Fo the Company: Shri P. R. Mookherjee, M.A., LL.B., assisted by Shri B. Chakraborty, Pleader.

For the Union: Shri Suprabhat Mookherjee, Pleader, assisted by Shri S. R. Bhattacharjee, President of the Union.

This reference made by Government order No. 2254Dis./D/11L-117/56, dated Calcutta, the 28th May 1956, arises out of disputes between Messrs. Calcutta Iron & Steel and Non-ferrous Metal Works and their workmen.

The points for adjudication as per order of reference are in the following terms:—

(1) Whether the termination of employment of the thirty-eight workmen as per the attached list is justified? What relief are they entitled to?

(2) Revision of pay and dearness allowance.

List of workmen whose employment has been terminated

(1) Malick Moinuddin, (2) Ram Jatan Singh, (3) Sk. Bhoda, (4) Ambika Singh, (5) Sk. Usofe, (6) Vidya Singh, (7) Gobardhan Routh, (8) Seonandan Koormi, (9) Subraj Jesoarah, (10) Biswambar Jesoarah, (11) Suddhu Jesoarah, (12) Chittaranjan Bhattacherjee, (13) Amritalal Sarkar, (14) Rasanrabi Das, (15) Khederu Jesoarah, (16) Samru Routh, (17) Aditya Paul, (18) Gopal Bhattacherji, (19) Ramdula Routh, (20) Inwar Mahato, (21) Md. Abdul Majid, (22) Mohan Mahato, (23) B. K. Roy, (24) Dhiren Bhattacherji, (25) Santi Dutta, (26) Ranjit Sarkar, (27) Santosh Kr. Dutta, (28) Nalin Mondal, (29) Keshab Prosad, (30) Sundar Mondal, (31) Mikhail Sardar, (32) Mr. Pauls, (33) Dharam Nath Routh, (34) Kartick Sardar, (35) Chhoottoo Miya, (36) Sk. Hakim, (37) Abdul Majid and (38) Tarapada Manna.

The case presented on behalf of the workmen is that the management paid no heed to demands made by the Union for amelioration of the conditions of service applicable to the employees. On the other hand organisation of the Union antagonized the proprietor. A deliberate policy was adopted to smash the Union. In fulfilment of the cherished desire to crush the Union, the management began to discharge the workers, specially, those who were the back-bone of the organisation. The 38 workmen whose case has been laid before the Tribunal fell under the guillotine because of their standing in the Union. The dismissal was against all principles of natural justice and fair play. Their reinstatement with full compensation has been claimed. The other item of claim is revision of pay and dearness allowance.

The Company in its written statement denied the allegations made imputing dishonest motive to the management. Sixteen of the men concerned in this reference were employed by the contractor to whom specific jobs were allotted. They were contractor's men for whom the Company had no responsibility. The De-tinning Section where the contractor's men used to work was closed due to trade reasons. Notice was accordingly given to the contractor that his men were not required any more on account of the closure of that section. The other workers were dismissed or discharged on account of major misconduct in regard to which charge-sheets had been drawn up. There are some who had left service voluntarily and received their full dues. There was no victimisation or unfair labour practice resorted to.

Regarding pay and dearness allowance the Company pleaded that its financial position was precarious. No additional strain could be borne without disastrous consequences.

DECISION

Issue No. 1: In the written statement filed on behalf of the employer a list is given of 16 men who are said to be employees of contractors. They were entirely under the control of the contractors and the management had nothing to do with their employment or discharge. The 16 men are Ram Jatan Singh, Sk. Bhoda, Sk. Usofe, Dhiren Bhattacherjee, Santi Dutta, Ranjit Sarcar, Santosh Dutta, Nalini Chandra Mondal, Keshab Prosad Sribastava, Sunder Mondal, Mikhail Sardar, Mr. Pauls, Dharam Nath Routh, Kartick Sardar, Chattoo Miya and Sk. Hakim. Exhibit B is a notice, dated 22nd October 1955, by which the Proprietor informed Deomoni Tendal, described as labour contractor of De-tinning Section. The section being closed on account of non-availability of raw materials men employed by him were not required any longer. The services of the men were therefore to be terminated with effect from 1st of November 1955. Ostensibly the notice reads as if the Proprietor himself was dispensing with the services of the men. The true import of the notice is that the labour contractor was required to terminate their services. Turning, in this context, to the oral evidence we find the admission of P.W. 1. Keshab Prosad Sribastava that previously he and some others used to work under a contractor. The certificate Ext. 1 granted to him at the time of his discharge shows that from 1st January 1953 to 31st January 1954 he worked under a contractor. Thereafter from 1st February 1954 he was directly employed by the Company up to 26th May 1954. Then apparently there was a break. The witness further admitted that a complaint was lodged that one anna used to be deducted from their daily wages by the Sarder. This complaint was made some time in 1955. Up to the date of this complaint the witness admitted that he and some others were employees of the contractor. In the penultimate sentence of the recorded deposition the witness stated that he received wages from the contractor up to June 1952. The De-tinning Section was closed in June 1955. So it appears that up to the date of the closure of the De-tinning Section there were men who were employees of the contractor and not employees of the Company. P.W. 1 was one of them. On behalf of the workers stress was laid upon the statement in Ext. B that the wages of the men would be kept ready for disbursement on the 7th of February 1955. I am afraid the construction sought to be placed that the Company was liable for their wages is untenable. From the evidence of P.W. 1 we find that on the complaint being made about illegal exaction by the Sarder, the Company arranged for payment through its office. That was an arrangement to check the evil the workers were smarting under. It is not the case that the Company paid the wages out of its own funds. Having regard to the admissions made by P.W. 1 I find that the men described by the Company as the contractor's men were really so. The question of termination of service of the 16 men cannot therefore be adjudicated upon as there was no relationship of master and servant between the Company and these people.

We are now to consider the case of the remaining 22 workers.

Malick Moinuddin was driver of lorry W.B.K. 889. Exhibit 5 is notice of discharge served upon him on the 2nd April 1955. It is stated in the notice that as the licence of the lorry was to be cancelled with effect from 4th May, his services would not be required with effect from 4th of May. Moinuddin gave evidence that the licence was not in fact cancelled but was renewed. The day after his services came to an end, another driver by the name of Bubna was appointed. The Proprietor O.P.W. 1 stated in his evidence that he had to discharge Moinuddin on account of notice received from Government that the licence of 42 model lorries would not be renewed. This circular was later cancelled. In the meantime the lorry remained idle for 3 or 4 months. When it was finally intimated that the project of cancellation of licence of 42 model lorries was given up attempts were made to contract Moinuddin but he had given a wrong address and hence he could not be reached. Moinuddin's evidence that another driver was appointed the day following his discharge was not rebutted. The garage book was not produced to prove that the lorry had remained idle after his discharge.

No reliable evidence was forthcoming to show that Moinuddin was searched for. On the other hand, it appears from the Manager's letter Ext. A addressed to the Labour Commissioner that on 1st August 1955 serious disturbances took place in the factory when all the workmen excepting the durwans marched together to the office and demanded of the Proprietor immediate reinstatement of driver Moinuddin, whose case was then pending before the Conciliation Officer. So it appears that Moinuddin's discharge has caused a ferment amongst the workers and agitation was going on from before. The matter was pending before the Conciliation Officer. It is therefore idle to say that Moinuddin's address was not known and he could not be found when occasion arose for running the lorry again. Taking a comprehensive view of all the various aspects of the matter I am satisfied that the discharge of Moinuddin was not justified. At any rate he should have been given back the job when it was known that the licence of the lorry would be renewed. He is therefore entitled to reinstatement and compensation.

Bidya Singh: In the original written statement it was alleged that he had voluntarily left the service of the Company on receiving his full dues in settlement of his claim. This part of the written statement was amended later. The case with regard to this employee (Bidya Singh) was presented in a different form, viz., that he was dismissed after the management was satisfied that he allowed unauthorised persons to go inside the factory as a result of which there had been some thefts. Exhibit D is the order dispensing with his services. Exhibit E is a receipt granted by Bidya Singh on 1st April 1955 stating that he had received his full wages and had no further claim against the Company. He has not appeared before the Tribunal to claim reinstatement. I accept therefore the Company's version that he has gone away for good and has no subsisting claim.

Ambika Singh: Regarding Ambika Singh the Company's case is that he was not dismissed but had quitted the services in the first week of July without notice and did not turn up. Evidence has been given that he came later and received the wages due to him. Exhibit E(1) shows payment made to him. As he has not appeared before the Tribunal to contradict the evidence given touching his case, the Company's version must be accepted that he had left service and is not making any further claim.

Abdul Majid: Abdul Majid was a Fireman in the De-tinning Section. He was discharged on the closure of the section. Exhibit D(1) is the notice given to him that his services were terminated on account of closure of the De-tinning Section. Exhibit 2 is the receipt granted by Abdul Majid stating that he had been paid all his dues and had no further claim against the Company. He has not appeared before the Tribunal. I must therefore hold that he has no dispute with the Company.

Mohan Mahato: Regarding Mohan Mahato the Company's case is that he went on leave on 27th October 1955 and did not return thereafter. He was therefore treated as having relinquished the job. O.P.W. 2 showed from the Attendance Register that Mohan Mahato was absent from 27th October 1955 and did not return any time thereafter. In his case therefore the Tribunal must hold in the absence of any evidence to the contrary that he had resigned the appointment.

Aditya Paul and four others: Next comes the case of Aditya Paul and four others, viz., Gopal Chandra Bhattacharya, Abdul Majid, Ram Dular Routh and Inwar Mahato. Exhibit D(5) is one of the charge-sheets and Ext. D(6) is another charge-sheet. Insubordination and disorderly conduct were the heads of charge. It appears that these people and some others were dismissed once before by the order, Ext. D(4). This dismissal was however later cancelled. Charge-sheets were again served shortly thereafter. Exhibit G is the explanation submitted refuting the charges. They were all dismissed without any enquiry. On behalf of the company it was submitted that though no enquiry was held the Tribunal can enquire into the facts and consider the propriety of the action taken. That is a perfectly sound proposition. In this case however the evidence regarding the incidents on the basis of which charge-sheets have been drawn up against these people is extremely megre and fails signally to inspire confidence. O.P.W. 2 who claimed to be the Supervisor is the only witness to pledge his oath in regard to the diverse incidents making up the case against the workers. There are men in-charge of the different sections. Shri B. K. Roy was the in-charge of the Rolling Mill Section. His men were involved but no report was made by him as to their lawless conduct. Shri B. K. Roy is himself not available to the Company as his services were terminated but one might reasonably expect that he would report the general exodous of the workers from the department. In the absence of any such report the testimony of the Supervisor who usually takes his seat in the office cannot be given much weight. Besides, he claims to be aware of each and every incident, I cannot believe that he could be a witness to all the happenings. It would be unsafe to come to an affirmative finding regarding the incidents and complexity of particular individuals on the solidary statement of O.P.W. 2. In the circumstances I am unable to take the view that the allegations against the charge-sheeted persons are true. The order of dismissal cannot hence be held to be justified.

Amritalal Sarker and nine others: Another group of ten employees, viz., Amrita Lal Sarker, Shamru Routh, Khaderru Jeswara, Sabraj Jeswara, Biswambhar Jeswara, Shew Nandan Kurmi, Roshan Rabi Dass, Chitta Ranjan Bhattacharjee, Gobordhan Routh and Suddhu Jeswara were dismissed on the 10th of November 1955 by order, Ext. D(9). After the dismissal of Aditya Paul and others some new workers were recruited. The allegation against the 10 employees was that they had refused to work with the men appointed to fill up the vacancies (vide Ext. D 8). Exhibit 3 is the reply. In this reply the persons concerned stated that the new recruits had themselves refused to work as the posts had fallen vacant on dismissal of some old employees. Out of consideration for the dismissed men the newly appointed persons were unwilling to usurp their job. Not satisfied with this reply the Manager wanted a direct reply whether they were willing to work with the new recruits. To this the employees replied by letter, Ext. A(3). There seems to have been some misunderstanding for, the Manager wanted to know whether they were willing to work with the new recruits but the workers had the impression that the management was of the view that their reply had passed through some other agency and was not a direct reply from them. The point raised in the letter of the Manager remained unanswered. Ultimately the order of dismissal was passed without any enquiry. O.P.W. 2 has deposed that the first batch of new recruits had informed him that they were leaving as Amritalal and others declined to work in collaboration with them. In the first place this information if given could have been given to the man in-charge of the section. There is nothing to show that this was done. Secondly, if any particular section of workmen refused to work in a team with newly appointed man, I can scarcely believe that those who had got the job in these days of wide-spread unemployment would throw it up and march out without bringing the matter to the notice of the higher authorities and trying to maintain the appointment. They were likely to strain every nerve to keep the job they had secured. The version of the Union is that these recruits had conscientious scruples to occupy berths fallen vaccant on the dismissal of some employees. In such an event the group of new recruits might in a body go away throwing up the job. Had the management examined some of those recruits the Tribunal might be in possession of the best evidence but this course was not followed and none of them was examined. Balancing probabilities I am inclined to the view that the account given by P.W. 3 is correct. No enquiry was held to find out the truth. The evidence before the Tribunal fails to substantiate the charge made against the employees. I must therefore hold that the dismissal of these men is without justification.

Tarapada Manna: Exhibit D(2) is a charge-sheet served on Tarapada Manna. The allegation is that on 4th November 1955 he had posted himself on the main gate of the factory and was threatening loyal workers who wanted to enter the factory. He himself came inside the factory late. Exhibit D(3) is another charge-sheet. O.P.W. 2 admitted that explanation was submitted to the first charge-sheet. He was however dismissed on 28th November 1955 without any enquiry. For reasons already stated I consider it unsafe to hold the charges proved on the solitary testimony of O.P.W. 2. His dismissal on the basis of the two charge-sheets cannot hence be supported.

Learned lawyer for the management submitted that relations being extremely strained the dismissed employees might be given compensation if dismissal is held unjustified. They should not be thrust upon the management as their return to the factory would usher in a period of further strife and unrest. It goes without saying that feelings have been embittered. The reply (Ext. 3) given by Amritalal and others was couched in objectionable language. An accusation was directly made that the charges had been brought out of grudge. If these workers are admitted into the factory again that would not be my view be conducive to smooth working. In the interest of the industry the alternative relief, viz., compensation would be most appropriate. In this view I award that these dismissed persons, viz., Aditya Paul, Gopal Chandra Bhattacherjee, Ram Dular Routh, Abdul Majid, Inwar Mahato, Amritalal Sarker, Shamru Routh, Khaderru Jeswara, Chabraj Jeswara, Biswambhar Jeswara, Shew Nandan Kurmi, Roshan Rabi Dass, Chittaranjan Bhattacharjee, Gobardhan Routh, Suddhu Jeswara and Tarapada Manna be paid by the Company six months' wages by way of compensation within one month from the date of publication of the Award in the Calcutta Gazette.

Moinuddin must be reinstated within the same period. As I do not believe that he has been out of employment for all the time I consider that three months' wages would be adequate compensation. He will be treated as in service without any break and must be paid the compensation within the aforesaid period.

The Union representative admitted that Shri B. K. Roy was not a workman within the definition of the Act and hence his case could not be dealt with by the Tribunal. B. K. Roy's case was not therefore pressed by him.

Issue No. 2: Exhibit I is a statement of wages paid by this concern to the workers. The Union representative did not press for fixation of wages for skilled workers. The unskilled workers are drawing consolidated wages ranging between Rs. 42-4 and Rs. 55-4. Under the Major Engineering Award basic pay was fixed at Rs. 30 and dearness allowance at Rs. 31, making a total of Rs. 61. On behalf of the workmen Rs. 61 was claimed as the minimum wages including dearness allowance for all the unskilled workers. The spokesman for the workers stated that inequalities in pay even though attributable to length of service might be obliterated and Rs. 61 be fixed as the starting point for each and every worker. On behalf of the Company incapacity to bear further financial obligation was pleaded. There is only the oral statement of O.P.W. 2 that the financial position of the Company was not satisfactory. No documentary evidence or statistics were produced on this point. The fact however remains that the establishment has a very small number of workers. The De-tinning Section has been closed. We must therefore proceed with utmost caution in imposing fresh financial obligation. Though Rs. 61 may be the ideal, it may not be reached all at once. Rupees 30 may be fixed as minimum basic pay and Rs. 28 as dearness allowance making a total of Rs. 58. As the workers' spokesman did not press for maintenance of wage differential and submitted that the workers will be satisfied with uniform pay, it is awarded that the basic pay would be Rs. 30 and dearness allowance Rs. 28. To relieve the employer of the strain of a sudden rise of pay it is awarded that those who are drawing wages below Rs. 52 will receive increment of Rs. 5 with effect from 1st day of the month following publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette and the balance six months thereafter. Those who are receiving wages at Rs. 52 or above will receive increment to reach the sum of Rs. 58 with effect from 1st day of the month following publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

ORDER

No. 2913-I.R./IR/4L-29/57.—5th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4046Dis./D/4L-29/56, dated the 10th September 1956, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Blacker & Co. (Private) Ltd., 18 Strand Road, Calcutta-1, and their Drivers represented by Motor Transport Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Second Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Blacker & Co. (Private) Ltd., 18 Strand Road, Calcutta-1, and their Drivers represented by Motor Transport Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. P. MUKHERJEE, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bose, Counsel.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 4046Dis./D/4L-29/56, dated 10th September 1956, referred the above dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication.

The issues contained in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

(2) Bonus for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955.

AWARD

At the very outset it may be stated that only a few drivers are concerned in the present dispute.

The Union's case is that this Company is highly prosperous and earns huge profit year by year. But in spite of this there is no pay scale for the drivers nor are they given proper overtime allowance. They were getting bonus all along at different times of the years. One such bonus was paid to them for the last 35 years or more as a condition of service but payment of bonus has been stopped altogether since 1953. So the Union has demanded bonus for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955 at the rate of 3 months' pay with dearness allowance for each year. There is also a claim for introduction of pay scale and overtime allowance for the drivers.

The Company resists the said demand and claim. It alleged in the written statement that its business is entirely confined to securing the freight contracts for shipment of goods exported from India and that such contracts are obtained solely by the personal endeavours of the Directors and other senior members of the Executive and the drivers do not contribute anything in the earning of any profit. The Company contends that it employs about half a dozen drivers who drive its cars and they are paid decent wages including dearness and tiffin allowances which compare very favourably with the wages paid by even the mercantile firms to their drivers. Though there has not been any grade and scale of pay for the drivers, their starting pay as well as their existing basic pay are fair and decent. Increments from time to time are granted to them. Regarding bonus, it is the contention of the Company that in the past it paid some moneys in instalments in certain years, but the payments so made were purely ex gratia and never as a condition of service. The Company denied that it paid one bonus to its drivers for the last 35 years or more. The said allegation was false. The drivers have no legal claim for bonus for any of the years under reference. The claim is also belated and should be rejected. The Company has finally submitted that the drivers are normally not required to work in full, the hours per week that is scheduled for them under the law. If any car is driven outside the normal office hours the same is done according to private arrangements between the drivers and the officers using the car for which the driver is paid remuneration by that officer.

Issue No. 1: Annexure A to the written statement of the Union gives all the particulars regarding pay and allowance of the drivers employed by this Company. At present five drivers are in the employ of the Company. It appears that besides pay they also get dearness allowance of Rs. 58 and tiffin allowance of Rs. 12 per month, i.e., Rs. 70 as allowances per month. It further appears that out of five drivers four are getting Rs. 73 per month as pay and the remaining one gets Rs. 63 per month. The starting pay of a driver in this concern has been Rs. 60 since 1949. Though there is no fixed scale of pay or increment, it is crystal clear that four of the drivers who joined this Company in 1949 have got increment of Rs. 13 within a period of 6 years or so. If the pay and allowances as stated above are added together, it is evident that the total emoluments of each of those four drivers come up to Rs. 143 per month and those of another driver to Rs. 133 per month. It is the total emolument or pay packet that counts. Besides the total emoluments as stated above the drivers have also extra income. It has come out from the evidence that sometimes they are required to driver cars after office hours when the officers so direct and for this they usually get Rs. 3 per evening from the officers concerned who pay such tips from their own pockets. The drivers never refused to do this work because of the extra income. So considering the matter from all aspects the Tribunal is satisfied that the pay and allowances which the drivers of this Company are getting at present are adequate and decent and compare very favourably with the wages paid by even big Mercantile Firms to their respective drivers. So the Tribunal is unable to revise the present basic pay and allowances of the drivers in this concern. Nor has any case been made out for introduction of pay scale for the drivers. The scale of pay as demanded by the Union in Annexure C to its written statement is too high and no Company, however prosperous it may be, can afford to give pay on such lavish and high scale to the drivers. Therefore, the claim for introduction of the pay scale is turned down. This issue is answered accordingly.

Issue No. 3: From the evidence of P.W. 1 Shri Benoy Chatterji, the Vice-President of the Union, it is not clear as to whether the drivers are required to do any overtime work for official business. The drivers were competent persons to depose to this fact. But it is interesting to note that none of the drivers has given edidence in this case. O.P.W. 1 Shri A. C. Mukherjee, one of the Directors of the Company has, on the other hand, stated on oath that the drivers are not to do any overtime work for official business. This statement of O.P.W. 1 stands unchallenged as he was not asked anything regarding it while he was cross-examined. Even no suggestion was made to him. So in the state of evidence as it stands, no question of overtime allowance arises. However, when an issue on this point has been formulated for adjudication, the Tribunal should record its observations. The hours of duty of drivers are fixed from 8-30 a.m. to 5-30 p.m. on week days with half an hour's break at 1 p.m. for tiffin and from 8-30 a.m. to 1-30 p.m. on Saturdays without any break. They will get paid holidays on Sundays. For working extra hours beyond the above fixed hours for official business, they will be allowed overtime at the rate laid down in the Bengal Shops and Establishments Act, 1940. This issue is disposed of thus.

Issue No. 2: This issue relates to bonus. A perusal of the written statement of the Union will go to show that the Union demanded bonus as a condition of service. No claim for profit bonus was paid there. At the time of hearing the Union, however, demanded both customary and profit bonus for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955. This will be apparent from the evidence of P.W. 1, who only deposed in this case on behalf of the Union. The issue as submitted for adjudication speaks of bonus in general terms. So having regard to the terms of the issue as framed the Tribunal is required to decide whether the workers concerned in the present dispute are entitled to get bonus—both customary and profit, for the years under reference. I shall deal with the profit bonus first. The financial year of this Company is from January to December of that year. It is clear from Ext. B, which is a letter addressed by the General Secretary of this Union to the Company, that the Union claimed bonus for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955 for the first time only on 22nd December 1955. Now the point is whether such a claim can be sustained. The learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Company has contended that the claim for bonus in the present case is tainted with delay and that in the circumstances such belated claim cannot be entertained by the Tribunal. I have given my due consideration to this contention and in my estimation, the contention cannot be said to be devoid of merit or substance so far as the claim for bonus for the years 1953 and 1954 is concerned. It has now been well established by a series of decisions of the Labour Appellate Tribunal of India that a claim for bonus for a particular year cannot be entertained after the accounts of that year have been closed and completed. This would mean only the reopening of the accounts which have been finalised. Recently there have been two decisions of two different High Courts also on this point, and they are reported in 1956(1), L.L.J. at pages 272 and 370, respectively. The said decisions clearly support the contention raised on behalf of the Company and certainly it is open to Industrial Tribunal to reject a claim for bonus for a particular year on the ground of belatedness. A demand for bonus must be made within a reasonable time from the date when the year under reference ends, otherwise such claim should be rejected. It cannot be argued that the Tribunal has no power to reject a claim for bonus on the ground of delay inasmuch as the Government, notwithstanding such delay, decided to refer the bonus matter for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955 to the Tribunal for adjudication. There is nothing in sections 10(1) and 12(5) of the Industrial Disputes Act which empowers the Government to make a decision, affecting the merits of an industrial dispute. Government is only concerned with deciding whether an industrial dispute exists and whether in the circumstances of the particular case it should be referred to an Industrial Tribunal. Once the reference is made, it is for the Tribunal to consider the matter on merits. Therefore, the claim for profit bonus for the years 1953 and 1954 is rejected on the ground on belatedness.

Regarding claim for such profit bonus for the year 1955, there is no material before the Tribunal to come to a finding whether there remained any available surplus out of the profit of 1955 for payment of any bonus to the workers. The Company has not produced the balance-sheet of that year. The Company cannot be entirely blamed for this because the Union in its written statement demanded bonus only as a condition of service. Nowhere within the four corners of that written statement any claim was laid for profit bonus. It was for the first time at the time of hearing that such claim for profit bonus was made by the Union. The Vice-President of the Union who gave evidence on behalf of the Union deposed while the case was taken up, that besides the customary bonus, profit bonus was also claimed. The Union did not ask also the Company to produce the balance-sheet. The workers were the persons to say whether the Company earned such profit as to give them profit bonus of 1955. But as stated already, none of them appeared before the Tribunal to depose. The Vice-President of the Union is the only witness who has deposed in this case on behalf of the Union. But his evidence in this respect is not at all helpful and leads us nowhere. He has not said a word in his evidence regarding profit of the Company for the year 1955, or for any other year. He is not even a worker of this Company. His evidence indicates that he has absolutely no knowledge regarding the financial position of the Company. P.W. 1, one of the Directors of the Company who deposed on behalf of the Company, was of course cross-examined on behalf of the Union regarding the financial position of the Company, but nothing tangible or material could be elicited from him regarding Company's position and the profit earned in 1955. In this state of things and in absence of any material regarding the financial position and the profits earned by the Company, the Tribunal is unable to say that the workers, particularly the drivers of this Company, are entitled to get any profit bonus for the year 1955 out of available surplus.

It is, therefore, decided that the drivers are not entitled to get any profit bonus for the years under reference. In this connection I may observe that regard being had to the nature of this Company's business which is entirely confined to securing freight contracts for shipment of commodities exported from India and in view of the fact that such contract are obtained solely by the personal endeavours of the Directors and other senior Executive Officers of the Company, the drivers cannot legitimately demand any profit bonus from the Company because they did not contribute anything whatsoever in the earning of the profit of this Company. A workman can claim bonus only when as result of his effort any profit has been earned. Here in the present case there is no evidence in this respect on behalf of the Union. On the other hand, there is positive testimony of O.P.W. 1, one of the Directors, that the drivers do not contribute anything in the earning of profit. Then again, it has transpired from the evidence that this Company was formerly a partnership business and was incorporated in 1953 as a private limited Company. This limited Company owes still a sum of Rs. 4½ lakhs to the ex-partners for which no interest could be paid even. The Company has no reserve set apart to repay the outstanding loan due to the ex-partners. If the facts as stated above be considered dispassionately, no Tribunal can possibly direct such a Company to pay any profit bonus to its workers.

Now I shall take the question of customary bonus. The Union pressed such bonus on the basis that payment of this bonus was a condition of service founded on implied agreement and acquired the status of a customary bonus. According to the Union such bonus has been paid on the eve of Puja every year for more than 35 years and as such the Company was under an obligation to pay bonus by virtue of an implied agreement. So it has been urged on behalf of the Union on the authority of the Mahaluxmi Cotton Mill's case (1952 L.A.C. at page 374) that this leads to an inference of an implied agreement as a term of employment and definitely excludes the hypothesis that payment had been made out of bounty. The case of the Company, as I understood it, is that some payments were made from time to time to the workers since 1944 at variable rates and that those were made ex gratia. It was urged on behalf of the Company that those payments had not attained the status of an obligation or a condition of service nor were they made out of implied agreement—even they did not acquire the status of a customary bonus. The Company has emphatically denied that one such payment was made for 35 years or so. This allegation has been stigmatised to be false by the Company. The Union could not furnish any evidence or material whatsoever to show that one bonus was paid to the workers on the even of Puja for the last 35 years or more. P.W. 1 who has deposed on behalf of the Union has no personal knowledge about this. He frankly confessed that he was not in a position to say when and for how many years one such bonus was paid to the workers. He heard only from the workers that bonus was paid by the Company to the workers for good many years. But curiously enough, none of the workers has deposed in this case. The Union has not produced any paper showing previous payment of such bonus. So the Tribunal is to depend on the evidence as adduced on behalf of the Company because that evidence stands unchallenged and uncontradicted. The evidence as adduced on behalf of the Company consists only of the testimony of O.P.W. 1, Shri A. C. Mukherjee, one of the Directors of the Company. His evidence is that since 1944 this Company used to make some payments to its workers at varying rates, but these payments were always ex gratia. He has further said that in 1953 the Company paid some bonus to its workers including the drivers. In the instant case, barring the fact that bonus by way of ex gratia payment was given for 9 years (i.e., 1944-1953), but not at uniform rates, there is no other factor to suggest that payments were made in terms of an agreement, express or implied. In similar circumstances, their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal held that bonus was not a condition of service nor was it customary bonus [vide 1952 (II) L.L.J., 324]. In the present case there is no evidence to show that the Company made any payment by way of bonus to its workers before 1944. So there is no figure available before 1944. Beginning from the year 1944, it appears that some ex gratia payments were made to the workers up to 1953 at varying rates. It is impossible on such material alone to hold that bonus was a condition of service in this Company or had acquired the status of customary bonus. Even if it be assumed that a practice had grown up in terms of which one bonus was being paid year after year on the eve of the Puja, there is nothing to prevent the Company from setting a period to it and withdrawing that concession. A practice of this nature cannot be treated as binding for ever or of perpetual effect. Even if the case be considered to be one of customary right, the law enjoins that in order to crystalise into a right a custom must be immemorial, reasonable and certain, and further the enjoyment must have been as of right. In the present case, there is the positive evidence that payments were made ex-gratia. So it is not possible to affirm that the workers had received one bonus each year at the time of Puja during these 9 years as of right. No legal right therefore accrued to the workers to claim such bonus. Furthermore, a period of 9 years cannot be considered to be long enough for pronouncing an opinion that the practice to pay bonus has been immemorial or for reasonably long time. Therefore, the claim of the Union based on custom cannot be sustained. Considering the matter I am of the view that the claim of the Union to get bonus for the years under reference either as a condition of service or as one based on custom must fail.

The result, therefore, is that the drivers concerned in the present reference are not entitled to any bonus either profit or customary or as condition of service for the years 1953, 1954 and 1955. This issue is answered accordingly.

This is my award in the present case.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., 18 Convent Road, Calcutta-14, and their workmen represented by Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union, 35B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13. (Case No. VIII-321 of 1956.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, instructed by Shri M. M. Saha, Advocate, Shri H. L. Roy, Pleader, and Shri Swadesh Gupta.

For the Company: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD

1. By order No. 4492Dis./D/11L-342/56, dated the 9th October 1956, as amended by order No. 59-I.R./D/11L-342/56, dated the 5th January 1957, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., 18 Convent Road, Calcutta-14, and their workmen represented by Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union, 35B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual summons the parties put in appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 4th January 1957. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents. Then after adjournments the dispute was heard and award was reserved.

3. The matter of dispute after amendment as stated in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:

Whether the termination of services of Shri Kalachand Dutt and Shri Shib Chandra Das was justified. What relief are they entitled to?

DECISION

The dispute arose out of termination of employment of Shri Kalachand Dutt and Shri Shib Chandra Das on 29th July 1955 offering them discharge benefits. The Union examined the said two employees—Shri Kalachand Dutt (P.W. 1) and Shri Shib Chandra Das (P.W. 2), an employee in the Accounts Department of the factory P.W. 3 Shri Protap Chandra Chatterji and Joint Secretary of the Union P.W. 4 Shri Santosh Kumar Shome, besides proving documents Exts. 1 to 15. The employer, on the other hand, examined its Assistant Works Manager Shri K. L. Das (D.W. 1), Officer-in-charge of the Packing Department Shri Ramesh Chandra Dutt (D.W. 2), in charge of Chemical Department Shri Prova Ranjan Chatterji and Branch Manager of Dalhousie Square Branch Shri Sailendra Nath Basu (P.W. 4), besides proving documents (Exts. A to P).

Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd. (hereafter called the Company), is one of the leading Chemical and Pharmaceutical concerns in India. The Company manufactures drugs and chemicals for itself and for its principals like Messrs. Imperial Chemical Industries Ltd., Muller & Phipps (India), Ltd., Phillips Electrical Co., Ltd., and Grimaults. It has branches in all important places of India.

The factory and the Head Office in Calcutta are situated in different buildings in the same premises separated by a passage having separate gates respectively for the men of the office and the factory to enter and go out. The sales for trade are generally conducted from the branch office at Dalhousie Square.

The workmen of the Company in Calcutta had originally a Trade Union of their own in the name of Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union which functioned from 1945 to 1950. The present Union under the same name was formed in March 1956 and was registered in May 1956 (vide written statement of P.W. 4). According to the Union the former Union was crushed as a result of wanton acts of victimisation by the Management, while according to the Company said Union became defunct in natural course after 1950. In latter part of 1949, some workmen were retrenched over which there was a strike by the workmen. Those of them who did not resume duty in spite of notice were discharged by the Company. The dispute arising thereof was referred to the Tribunal of Shri S. N. Modak. He found both the parties responsible in the matter. He gave his award on 19th December 1950 which was published in Calcutta Gazette on 11th January 1951.

The two workmen concerned Shri Kalachand Dutt and Shri Shib Chandra Das had served the factory of the Company in Calcutta for about 15 years before their employment was terminated on 29th July 1955. Shri Kalachand Dutt was a store-keeper in charge of labels, cartons and packing materials, while Shri Shib Chandra Das was employed in the Tablet Department as a packer of tablets. Shri Proboth Chandra Ghosh Hazra was a Supervisor employed in the Galenical Department of the factory wherein liquid medicines are manufactured.

The principals of the Company—Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd. and Muller & Phipps (India), Ltd., made complaints to the Secretary of the Company at the Head Office confidentially—the former on 25th February 1954 stating that the products of the Company were being sold in the market at under-price (vide Ext. H) and the latter on 25th February 1955 about leakages of the products under cover of "Shortage, Rejects, Wastage, etc." (vide Ext. H1). D.W. 4 Shri Sailendra Nath Basu received an anonymous letter making allegations against the aforesaid 3 employees of the factory and some outsiders about dishonest dealings in Company's products (Exts. I, I1) which he forwarded to the Secretary at the Head Office. Mr. C. A. Buxton was, at all material times, the Secretary of the Company.

The Company then engaged a private firm of detective organisation—Investigation and Prevention of Crime (India), Ltd., for investigation into the allegations. The detective firm reported on 2nd June 1955 that the allegations were substantially correct and that the matter should be placed to the Deputy Commisisoner, Enforcement Branch, Hungerford Street, for immediate action (vide Ext. J). Accordingly on 3rd June 1955 the Secretary wrote to the Deputy Commisisoner, Enforcement Branch, forwarding the anonymous letter and report of the detective firm and making its own comments for investigation into the matter and necessary action (vide Ext. K).

On 4th June 1955 the aforesaid three employees Shri Kalachand Dutt in charge of labels and cartons, Shri Shib Chandra Das, packer of tablets and Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra of Galenical Department were taken into custody by the Police from the factory and their houses were searched in their presence. Nothing was recovered from the house of Kalachand Dutt and he was consequently set free. From the house of Shib Chandra Das the following articles were seized: (i) two Attache bags containing white sulphaguanidine tablets bearing no mark or make, (ii) a tin containing white sulphaguanidine about five thousand one hunderd in number from behind the trunk and suit cases (vide Ext. L). While on search from the house of Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra the following articles were seized: (i) Medicine labels, cartons, batch printings stamp with lead type of the Company, (ii) seven phials of Meladinine solution, (iii) 125 bottles' body labels, (iv) 125 packing seal labels of Grimault syrup, (v) labels written half dozen, (vi) six cartons of Hemopatals "B" Complex, (vii) 65 cartons of Grimault syrup, (viii) one rubber stamp written half dozen, (ix) one batch type of impression of batch No., etc., and lead type from inside of two tin suit cases in two rooms (vide Ext. N1). Shri Shib Chandra Das and Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra were accordingly detained in custody and eventually produced before the Presidency Magistrate. Shri Shib Chandra Das obtained release on bail on 8th June 1955.

Then on the statement of Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra to the Police that he received the labels, cartons, etc., from Kalachand Dutt, the Police re-arrested Shri Kalachand Dutt on 8th June 1955.

On 13th June 1955 the Police searched the department in which P.W. 1 worked. The labels and cartons were alleged to have been found in excess from those recorded by him in bin cards. P.W. 1's distant brother-in-law Bholanath who is an employee in the concern was present at the time (vide Ext. C). P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt was released on bail on 14th June 1955. On 18th June 1955 he was given charge-sheet under section 15(o) of the Standing Orders and was suspended from that date (Ext. 5). On 24th June 1955 P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt replied to the charge (Ext. 6). On 11th July 1955 P.W. 1 made additional statement (Ext. 7).

In the meanwhile on 30th June 1955 there was stock verification by P.W. 3 Shri Protap Chatterji with respect to physical stock. As a result of verification the discrepancies as in Schedule II of Ext. A were said to have been detected. Following such discovery, the Company gave additional charge-sheet to P.W. 1 on 14th July 1955 (Ext. A).

P.W. 2 Shri Shib Chandra Das who was released on bail on 8th June 1955 was, on the other hand, given charge-sheet under section 15(o) of the Standing Orders on 9th June 1955 (Ext. 1). Failing to get explanation the Company sent him reminder for explanation on 21st June 1955 (Ext. F4). On 24th June 1955 P.W. 2 Shri Shib Chandra Das submitted explanation (Exts. 2 and F3).

On 23rd July 1955 the accused persons including P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 were discharged by the Magistrate except Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra and two others against whom Police submitted chalan (Ext. 10). The other employee Shri Probodh Chandra Ghosh Hazra was convicted and fined on his plea of guilty on 8th September 1955 (Ext. N1) and was eventually dismissed from service.

After discharge both P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt and P.W. 2 Shri Shib Chandra Das wrote to the Company on 29th July 1955 seeking permission to allow them to resume duty (Exts. 3 and F1). The Company, on the other hand, on that date (29th July 1955) issued letters discharging P.W. 1 (Ext. 9) and P.W. 2 (Exts. 4 and F2) offering them discharge benefits. Subsequently on 17th November 1955 the Company through their Solicitor wrote to P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 specifying the amounts the Company proposed to pay them (Exts. 13 and 14 and F).

On 7th November 1955 P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 made separate complaints under section 500, I.P.C., against Company's Secretary C. A. Buxton in the Police Court at Sealdah which was dismissed for want of jurisdiction (Exts. E, E1 and E3). Then P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 made separate complaints under section 500, I.P.C., against the Secretary C. A. Buxton in the Court of the Chief Presidency Magistrate (Ext. D). After trial the cases were dismissed on merits (vide Exts. D, N and N2). P.W. 2 moved the High Court previously against the order of dismissal (Ext. N3).

On 19th April 1956, the Union moved the Labour Directorate about them (Ext. 11), whereupon conciliation followed. As no settlement was possible the dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication on 5th January 1957.

Against this background the Union alleged, among others, in written statement that the termination of employment of the two workmen was arbitrary, preverse, unjust, mala fide and in violation of the principles of natural justice; that the Company could not accept formation of Union in good grace, and had all along borne hostile attitude in this respect and that the discharge of the workmen was by way of victimisation and unfair labour practice as these workmen had espoused cause of Shri Pannalal Das and Shri Bhujo in the Labour Directorate and succeeded in securing for them benefit of continuity of service in connection with their strike in the year 1949 and as the workmen were trying hard to form Trade Union of the workmen of the Company at the relevant time. The Union accordingly prayed that the workmen should be reinstated and paid full wages for the period of unemployment.

In reply the Company denied that there was victimisation or unfair labour practice and pleaded that it acted bona fide throughout. It was said that in view of the circumstances the employees were asked to explain their conducts but they did not submit explanation on various flimsy pretexts. In these circumstances, the Management carefully considered the whole position in respect of these two employees arising out of various complaints received and also the disclosures during the Police search, conviction of Shri Probodh Ghosh Hazra and his confession implicating Shri Kalachand Dutt and Shri Shib Chandra Das and also taking into consideration the various irregularities in the stock as found by the Police and the Management, there were ample grounds and circumstances for reasonable conclusion of the Management to suspect their connection in the matter of spurious and unauthorised trading in Company's drugs and in any case, no confidence could be placed on them and they were considered undesirable persons to be retained in the Company's service any further for the interest of the Company. Accordingly their services were terminated by letter, dated 29th July 1955. They were also offered discharge benefit and arrear wages due. Subsequently in the separate criminal cases under section 500, I.P.C., against officers of the Company, the Trying Magistrates inter alia observed that because of the complaints received, the Company acted rightly in engaging a private detective and thereafter in handing over the matter to the Police and the Company would have failed in its duty had it not so proceeded. As regards Shri Shib Chandra Das, the Chief Presidency Magistrate observed that as about 5,000 tablets of Sulphaguanidine were recovered on search by the Police from the house, it would go to support that the allegations made in the anonymous letter against him was not without substance. Regarding Shri Kalachand Dutt, another Trying Magistrate found that Shri Kalachand Dutt who was the custodian of the labels of different medicines manufactured by the Company was found to be in close contact with the accused (Shib Chandra Das and Probodh Ghosh Hazra) and by virtue of his position as a store-keeper, he might have supplied lebels of medicines, and cartons, etc., to some of the accused. This would confirm Company's conclusion.

The Company was so justified in terminating their services in law and equity and also according to the provisions of the Company's Standing Orders. There was no victimisation and unfair labour practice as alleged. At the time of their discharge there was no existence of the Union and the question of discharge for their Union activities does not arise at all and the said allegation is absolutely false and baseless.

The two workmen concerned, P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt and P.W. 2 Shri Shib Chandra Das, were not dismissed but discharged on 29th July 1955 with offer of discharge benefits. The amount of discharge benefits was subsequently intimated to the workmen (vide Exts. 13 and 14). Discharge is nothing more than termination of service where the employee gets full benefit of Provident Fund, gratuity and other benefits. In the present case they were offered all those benefits.

In the case of Buckingham and Carnatic Co. vs. their workmen reported in 1952 L.A.C. 490, a Special Bench of the Appellate Tribunal laid down guiding principles about interference in different cases of termination of service by the Tribunals. It has been held therein: "There are 3 other accepted fundamental principles; namely,—

(i) that the industrial worker must be placed in such a position that the security of his service may not depend upon the caprice or arbitrary will of the employer;

(ii) that industrial peace should be maintained; and

(iii) that industry should be efficiently managed.

These principles underlie the Industrial Employment (Standing Order) Act, 1940, Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, and other Local Statutes of like nature. The former Act makes it obligatory on employers of large establishments employing 100 workers or more to have Standing Orders following the model pattern certified by the appropriate authority. They are to be regarded as conditions of service by which both employers and employees are to be governed. When the services of an industrial worker are terminated an industrial dispute can be raised under the Industrial Disputes Act, for it would be a question of "employment and non-employment" and it would be competent for the Industrial Tribunal to determine whether the termination of service is justified. To determine whether termination of employment is unjustified, it is necessary to see whether it is in accordance with the Standing Orders.

The Standing Orders of a concern provide for 3 types of cases in which the services of an employee can be terminated, namely,—

(i) automatic termination for absence without leave;

(ii) discharge without assigning any reason, on notice or payment in lieu of notice; and

(iii) dismissal for misconduct.

In cases where the ground alleged by the employer is misconduct, rules of procedure to be followed before the order of dismissal is passed, are also laid down in the Standing Order. In all these types the requirement of bona fides is essential. The termination of service in colourable exercise of the power or as a result of victimisation or unfair labour practice or of caprice, should be prevented as otherwise some of the fundamental rights and principles which have been noticed would be violated. Arbitrary conduct or unnecessary harshness on the part of the employer judged by the normal standard of a reasonable man may be cogent evidence of victimisation or unfair labour practice.

In the first type of cases the Tribunal would be at liberty to examine the explanation offered by the employee for his absence and other circumstances also for the purposes of seeing whether the employer acted with honest purpose. In the second type of cases even when the Standing Order authorises discharge on notice without assignment of reason the scope of the enquiry would be similar. If the termination of service in these two types of cases be held to be justified, no further question would arise though in exceptional cases of the second type there may be scope for giving compensation. On examining the cases with this approach, if the Tribunal finds the termination to be unjustified, the question of relief— reinstatement and/or payment of compensation will arise and dealing with that question the considerations arising in case of wrongful dismissal would be applicable. In the third type, namely, dismissal for misconduct, if there is evidence to support the action of the Management the Tribunal will not substitute its own judgment for the judgment of the Management but the decision of the Management with regard to the charge of misconduct against an employee will not prevail if—

(i) there is want of bona fides; or

(ii) it is a case of victimisation or unfair labour practice or violation of the principles of natural justice; or

(iii) there is a basic error of facts; or

(iv) there has been a perverse finding on the materials."

Let us now consider the case of two workmen separately in the light of the principles enunciated as aforesaid. Before so doing it is better that the case of victimisation as pleaded by the Union being common to the workmen is gone into first. I may note at the very outset that on giving careful consideration to the evidence and circumstances, I am unable to accept that there was want of bona fides or victimisation or unfair labour practice in the termination of employment of any of the two workmen P.W. 1 and P.W. 2. According to the written statement and the evidence the present Union was formed in March 1956 and registered on 21st May 1956, while the two workmen were discharged long before on 29th July 1955 on the basis of the allegations followed by search on 4th March 1955. There is nothing satisfactory to show any Union activities on the part either of P.W. 1 or P.W. 2 prior to 4th March 1955. They might have been ordinary members of the old Union which became defunct in 1950 but it does not appear that after it became so defunct any of these workmen continued to have any Union activities. The evidence of P.W. 1 that he had taken the causes of Panna Lal Das and Bhoja in the Labour Directorate and secured continuity of service for them notwithstanding their joining in the strike, even if true, is of no use as according to him the incident took place long ago in 1953-54. None of P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 has been important office bearer of the present Union but was merely member of the Executive Committee. The evidence of the Joint Secretary of the Union P.W. 4 Santosh Kumar Shome discloses that out of 18 members of the Executive Committee of the Union, 4 are outsiders and the remaining 14 were employees including P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 and that all of those employees except P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 have still been in employment. The fact that all the employees notwithstanding of their being members of the Executive Committee have been retained in service would show that P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 were not proceeded against for their Union activities. The former Union, it does not appear, was crushed by the Company. P.W. 1 admitted in his deposition that the Union died a natural death as after discharge following strike the workmen became terror-striken and ceased connection with the Union. In any case I am unable to find that there was any Union activity on the part of the P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 roundabout March 1955, or before since dissolution of the former Union. Claim of P.W. 1 that he started activities in the formation of the present Union in the beginning of 1955 is not convincing when the Union did not in fact come into existence before March 1956. The suggestion that the anonymous letter and letters of the principals were concocted by the Company as a means to victimise the two workmen (P.W. 1 and P.W. 2) is hard to swallow. The contents of the letters with the action taken thereon would belie any such suggestion. The facts and circumstances as disclosed rather point that the Company proceeded against these workmen in normal and natural course and there was no want of bona fides on the part of Management or victimisation by it. The fact that the workmen were offered full discharge benefits would also point that the Company was not actuated from a motive of victimisation.

As an employer of more than 100 workmen the Company has certified Standing Orders (Ext. P) under Industrial Employment Standing Order Act, 1940. These would, therefore, be conditions of service by which both the Company and their workmen would be governed. Paragraph 15 of the Standing Orders lays down what are major misdemeanours and the procedure for dismissal for such major misdemeanour; while paragraph 16 provides for termination of employment by notice or on payment in lieu of notice on grounds other than those mentioned in paragraph 15.

With these remarks let us now consider the cases of the workmen separately.

Regarding P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt.—He was also known as Kali Babu or Kalidas (vide Ext. B). Following his arrest on 8th June 1955 and release on bail on 14th June 1955 he was given a charge-sheet by the Company on 18th June 1955 under paragraph 15(o) of the Standing Orders (Ext. 5). The charge was as follows: "We understand that you were arrested by the Police on 8th June 1955. We consider this to represent an offence under section 15(o) of the Company's Standing Orders. You are, therefore, suspended pending a satisfactory explanation of this matter. Failing a satisfactory explanation, you will be dismissed." Under paragraph 15(o) of the Standing Orders, conduct in private life prejudicial to the reputation of the Company would constitute a major misdemeanour. On 24th June 1956 the workman concerned submitted explanation to Company expressing surprise how an arrest by the Police would by itself be considered as an offence more so, when nothing incriminating was found on search. He also complained that the charge laid against him was vague and could not so be met. He also prayed that the suspension order should be revoked (Ext. 6). On 11th July 1955 the workman submitted an additional explanation (Ext. 7) and requested for revoking of the order of suspension. The Company apparently found that there was no basis for the charge under paragraph 15(o) of the Standing Orders. So in its letter, dated 14th July 1955 (Ext. A) the workman in reply to his letter was informed that as charge against the workman was still sub judice they were unable to withdraw the order of suspension. But at the same time on the basis of stock verification on 13th June 1955 and from 30th June 1955 the Company laid another charge against the workman in the said letter, dated 14th July 1955 (Ext. A). The workman was asked to explain the discrepancies in the stock as said to have been found by the Police on 13th June 1955 and in course of annual stock-taking at the end of June 1955. No time or date was, however, fixed for submitting the explanation in Ext. A. The charge as aforesaid, it may also be noted, would come only under paragraph 14(c) or (d) for which there could only be punishment other than termination of employment. Be that as it may the workman replied to the said charge on 29th July 1955 under registered post [Exts. 8 and 8(a)] saying how it was not possible for him to meet the charge in this respect unless he was allowed to resume duty and to inspect the documents. It was also claimed that so long he was in active employment, no discrepancy was found in the stock either on surprise checks or in course of annual verification. Apparently before receipt of this letter the Company on that very date (29th July 1955) issued letter terminating his employment on offering one month's pay in lieu of notice and other dues (Ext. 9). This the Company claimed to have done under paragraph 16 of the Standing Orders. This was clearly misconceived. Resort to paragraph 16 is not in terms permissible if the charges would come under paragraph 15 or 14. Apart from this after a charge for misconduct had been given, it was highly improper on the part of the Company to terminate employment by following a procedure which had the effect of depriving the workman of his explanation which he could have offered if a charge had been framed and by avoiding an enquiry into the charges which is obligatory on the part of the Management in respect of charge for misconduct (vide 1953 L.A.C. 249; 1954 L.A.C. 705).

Be that as it may when the Company purported to have terminated the employment under paragraph 16 it is apparent that it abandoned the charges as had previously been laid against the workman as untenable. As a matter of fact according to the Company it terminated the employment of the workman under paragraph 16 as in its opinion there were good grounds to suspect complicity of the workman in dishonest dealing of the Company's products by supplying genuine labels and cartons of which he was in charge. The basis for the suspicion is the anonymous letter (Ext. 1) and subsequent discovery from the house of Probodh Ghosh Hazra of labels and cartons. The case as made out by the Company in its letter to the Deputy Commissioner, Enforcement Branch (Exts. 12 and K), on the basis of the anonymous letter (Ext. I) is that Shri Probodh Ghosh Hazra was manufacturing spurious medicines in his house, P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt was supplying labels and cartons of the Company for those medicines and that Shri Probodh Ghosh Hazra and P.W. 2 Shib Chandra Das were selling those spurious medicines by pasting genuine labels and cartons of the Company. The charge against P.W. 1 Kalachand Dutt was thus one of supplying labels and cartons of which he was in charge. D.W. 1 in his deposition said that the employment of P.W. 1 was terminated on two grounds namely, for loss of their reputation in the market and secondly on account of dissatisfaction by the principals due to P.W. 1's conduct. From the materials on record I however find that there was not even scope for suspicion about P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt's complicity in the matter. P.W. 1's name was not mentioned in any of the letters of the principals (Exts. H, H1). In the anonymous letter (Ext. I) his name has, of course, been mentioned but there too no details were stated against him although such details were given against P.W. 2 Shib Chandra Das, Probodh Ghosh Hazra and others. Likewise when search was made in his house on 4th June 1955 nothing incriminating was recovered. Search in the house of Probodh Ghosh Hazra on that date (4th June 1955), of course, resulted in recovery of certain labels and cartons as mentioned in Ext. N1 but this has no connection to the charge against him. None of the labels or cartons as recovered related to any of the medicines as mentioned in the anonymous letter (Ext. I) or to any of the 8 medicines as stated in Company's letter (Exts. 12 and K) which were said to have been stealthily and spuriously manufactured in the house of Probodh Ghosh Hazra. The labels and cartons recovered were thus none relating to the medicines of schedule II of Ext. A. So, said recovery could be of no avail against the workman. As to the labels and cartons recovered relating to Grimault Syrup and Hamopatal, no complaint was made about those medicines in the anonymous letter or Company's letter or to the Police. Besides, the evidence reveals that the labels and cartons relating to Grimault Syrup used to be supplied by the Grimault Company. So these would have been as well procured from possession of the said Company. Then in the Company's own letter to the Police (Exts. 12 and K) it was recognised that the labels could have as well been printed somewhere else. So from the said discovery there was no scope for suspicion against P.W. 1.

From the alleged discrepancies in the stock, there was likewise no scope for suspicion against P.W. 1 Had P.W. 1 been supplying the labels and cartons there would have been shortage in the stock but according to the Company there had been excess. The excess, if any, it appears from the evidence of D.W. 1, might have occurred due to defective system in vogue then as the excess out of labels and cartons obtained on requisition from P.W. 1, according to the evidence of D.W. 1, was under the then practice usually returned from the Packing Department to the godown after meeting day's requirements. Regarding stock verification by the Police as to items in Schedule I of Ext. A, it is said in evidence of D.W. 1 that two men did the said counting during working hours on 13th June 1955. But having regard to the quantities involved it is doubtful whether it was physically possible to count within the working hours so many quantities by two men as alleged to have been done. That the counting was haphazard is apparent from the fact that the quantity said to have been found in excess was not even mentioned against any of those items (vide Ext. A). In the Company's letter the counting was however said to have been made not by the two Police men but by a distant brother-in-law of P.W. 1. In the half-yearly stock taking from 30th June 1955 it is said that the items of Schedule II of Ext. A were found to vary as mentioned therein. The counting in this case too appears from the Company's letter, was done not by any responsible officer but by his said brother-in-law Bholanath who served there only as a cooly. Then from D.W. 1 it appears that excess from Packing Department was usually returned to godown after meeting day's requirements. This explained for the excess if any. Had P.W. 1 given labels and cartons to others, there would have been shortage and not excess. If there were excess, this would rule out the charge against P.W. 1 of supplying labels and cartons from the stock which would mean depletion and not inflation of the stock. In any case the offence, if any, on this score would fall under paragraph 14(c) and (d) of the Standing Orders for which there could have been no termination of employment. So long Kalachand Dutt had been in active service, the evidence shows, no discrepancy was found either on flying checks or in course of half-yearly varifications. There used to be surprise checks by D.W. 3 and half-yearly verification of stock by P.W. 3. These employees admitted that on such verifications no discrepancy was discovered in respect of the stock of labels and cartons maintained by P.W. 1 Shri Kalachand Dutt before he was arrested on 8th June 1955. So, there was no scope for suspicion against P.W. 1 on this account. Although there was no lack of bona fides on the part of the Company or its action was not from a motive to victimise, there could however be no doubt on the materials on record that there was no justification whatever for termination of the employment of P.W. 1 and that in the manner as has been done.

If Shri Probodh Ghosh Hazra had made a statement implicating P.W. 1 in the matter, such a statement apart from being inadmissible against a co-accused under the Evidence Act, should not have been accepted by the Company as a basis for action against the workman without affording him opportunity to meet the same. The Company had no justification to take the said statement into consideration in ignoring the fact that the workman in the course of 15 years' service had unblemished record of service. Likewise from the fact of conviction of Shri Probodh Ghosh Hazra there was no scope for any adverse action against P.W. 1. In any case this could not have been taken into consideration at the time the Company decided to terminate the employment of P.W. 1 as the conviction took place long after. The subsequent finding of the Magistrate in the defamation case brought by P.W. 1 against the Company cannot be invoked as a justification in support of Company's action. It merely shows that there was no lack of bona fides in the matter of complaint by the Company to Deputy Commissioner and nothing else. I am, therefore, of opinion on a consideration of the facts and circumstances that termination of employment of P.W. 1 was unjustified and contrary to the provisions in the Standing Orders. That being so, the workman is entitled to be reinstated with back wages and D.A. for the period he had not been in the service of the Company. It is contended on behalf of the Company that as the workman brought defamation case against the Company's Secretary C. A. Buxton and as the Company lost confidence in him there should not be any order for reinstatement. I am unable to sustain it. It was held in the case of J. K. Cotton Spinning & Weaving Company reported in 1951 (I) L.L.J. 457 that it was a new theory that an employee could be dismissed because the employer lost confidence in him. I do not think the fact that the workman brought defamation case should stand on the way of his reinstatement. C. A. Buxton against whom only he brought the case was not his immediate boss but held very high position in the Company being its Secretary with whom he had virtually no dealing. C. A. Buxton had no personal animosity either. So, there is no scope for friction if the workman be reinstated. It has been found in case of Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd., that the normal relief in case of wrongful termination of employment is reinstatement. If looking at the matter from the objective standard for peace and harmony in the industry, it is found not to be expedient to do so, compensation may be allowed in lieu of reinstatement. In the present case I find no ground for the apprehension that harmony in the industry will be disturbed by reinstatement of the workman Shri Kalachand Dutt. The Company is accordingly directed to reinstate the workman Shri Kalachand Dutt with back salary and D.A. on his reporting for duty within 15 days from the date of publication of the award. The back salary and D.A. are to be paid within a month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

Regarding P.W. 2 Shri Shib Chandra Das.—It appears that his case stands on different footing. It has already been seen that there was no lack of bona fide on the part of the Company or the action of the Company was not motiviated from vicitimisation. In his deposition, P.W. 2 did not even claim to have had any Union activities prior to termination of his employment on 29th July 1955 or before formation of the present Union in March 1956. Only after formation of the Union in March 1956 it appears that he became a member of the Executive Committee. Even then it does not appear that he has any activity in this respect. The Company, it is so obvious, did not proceed against him mala fide but in normal and natural course. The Company received complaints from its principals that some of the products of the Company were being stolen under the cover of "shortage, rejects, wastage, etc.", and sold in the market below standard price (Exts. H and H1). Then came the anonymous letter. There allegations were made both of dishonest selling of Company's products as also of spurious manufacture of some medicines and passing them as genuine by pasting genuine labels of the Company (vide Exts. I and I1). P.W. 2 Shib Chandra Das was named therein as the principal culprit in the matter, who was selling among others Sulphaguanidine tablets surreptitiously and dishonestly. After preliminary investigation by private detective firm, the Company referred the matter to Deputy Commissioner for investigation. On the basis of the Company's letter to the Deputy Commissioner the Police arrested the three employees and searched their houses on 4th June 1955. As a result of search of the two rooms of P.W. 2 Shib Chandra Das, the Police seized two attache bags containing Sulphaguanidine tablets bearing no mark or make as also a tin with white Sulphaguanidine tablets numbering about 5,100 both kept inside a tin placed behind trunk and suit cases in the western side of the room (vide Ext. 15). The fact of find of such huge quantity of tablets in the two bags and the tin, the manner in which the tablets were kept and the place of find does not at all point to the tablets being in P.W. 2's possession normally. P.W. 2 was arrested on 4th June 1955 and he got bail on 8th June 1955 (vide Ext. 10). On 9th June 1955 he was given charge-sheet under paragraph 15(o) of the Standing Orders and was suspended (Ext. 1). P.W. 2 did not forthwith submit explanation as would have been the case had he been innocent. Only after reminder for explanation (Ext. F4) on 21st June 1955, P.W. 2 submitted explanation (Exts. 2 and F5) on 24th June 1955. Although in the charge-sheet (Ext. 1) details were not given it appears from the explanation (Ext. 2) that the workman P.W. 2 knew about the charge against him. In his said explanation he claimed that Sulphaguanidine tablets recovered belonged to his brother and that as the matter was sub judice no adverse inference should be drawn against him. In his subsequent letter, dated 29th June 1955 [Exts. 3, 3(a)], P.W. 2 stated that the Sulphaguanidine tablets seized from his room were received by him from his brother and were claimed by the said brother by a written statement to the Police. So as per his admission in Ext. 3 the Sulphaguanidine tablets were in his custody having been received from his brother. He did not explain why these were kept with him instead of keeping them by the brother in his dispensary situated at a different place. It is in the evidence of D.W. 1 that Sulphaguanidine tablets as were seized on search from the rooms of P.W. 2 were Company's products having the same appearance and finish. The learned Advocate on behalf of the workman contended that as the Sulphaguanidine recovered were genuine, the allegations in the anonymous letter would stand contradicted. I am unable to find so. I have carefully gone through the allegations in the anonymous letter. The medicines which were mentioned therein including Sulphaguanidine were not stated as those which were all being manufactured spuriously. In the anonymous letter allegations were made both of selling Company's products meaning genuine products as also of some of them being made spuriously. In any case P.W. 2 according to his own showing in Ext. 3 having received the Sulphaguanidine, it was incumbent upon him to explain the circumstances in which he received them and why it was so received. His explanation cannot be accepted as satisfactory. He has not even brought his brother or the cash memos., under which they are said to have been purchased by the brother. No explanation was given why they were kept in such a manner in bags and tin and concealed in another tin and in such suspicious manner. Before receipt of his letter, dated 29th June 1955 (Ext. 3), the Company on that very date terminated his employment offering him one month's pay in lieu of notice and other dues apparently under paragraph 16 of the Standing Orders. The procedure adopted by the Company is no doubt not warranted under the Standing Orders but nonetheless when such termination has been to the benefit of the workman in place of dismissal for misconduct which would have been justified on the materials, I do not think there is scope for interference, more so when there was no lack of bona fide on the part of the Company. After termination of his employment, P.W. 2 brought criminal case under section 500, I.P.C., not only against the Secretary C. A. Buxton but also against his immediate boss R. C. Dutt as also Sailendra Nath Ghosh who received the anonymous letter, firstly in Sealdah Court and thereafter in Presidency Court (vide Ext. N2). After the first decision against him he moved the Hon'ble High Court (Ext. N3) and after the case was remanded, the learned Magistrate on a consideration of the evidence found that there was no lack of bona fides on the part of the Secretary. As regards his immediate boss R. C. Dutt, it was conceded that he had no case. P.W. 2's evidence that there was no scope for him to take out the tablets from the workshop as search used to be made both at the gate of the department as also at the outer gate for exit is anything but convincing. For an unscrupulous man, it is not difficult to find out ways and means to achieve his end. So, on a consideration of all the evidence and circumstances I am unable to say that termination of his employment was unjustified though the procedure might not have been in conformity with the Standing Orders. The workman is so entitled to no reliefs other than those offered by the Company through their Solicitor by the letter (Ext. 14). The Company is directed to pay the amount as in Ext. 14 to the workman within a month from the date of publication of the award.

It is awarded accordingly.

Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd., 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, and one of their workmen, Shri Arun Kanti Mukherji, represented by the Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd. Employees' Union, 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the First Labour Court;

And whereas the said First Labour Court has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as showin in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd., 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, and one of their workmen, Shri Arun Kanti Mukherji, represented by the Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd. Employees' Union, 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, referred under G. O. No. 1460-I.R./IR/11L-286/57, dated 9th May 1957. (Case No. VIII-C40/57.)

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge, First Labour Court

For the Union: Shri D. K. Sen, Bar.-at-Law, Shri P. P. Pathak and Shri P. K. Ghose.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1460-I.R./IR/11L-286/57, dated 9th May 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd., 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, and one of their workmen, Shri Arun Kanti Mukherji, represented by the Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd. Employees' Union, 4 Fairlie Place, Calcutta-1, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

Is the termination of service of Shri Arun Kanti Mukherji by the Company justified? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD

This is a case of dismissal with a prayer for reinstatement and other incidental reliefs.

In short the case of the Union is that Shri Arun Kanti Mukherji (hereinafter referred to as Mukherji for the sake of brevity) had been an employee under Messrs. Gladstone Lyall & Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), a top-ranking mercantile firm in Calcutta, since March 1947. Due to the Company's apathy towards the just demands of the employees the latter formed a Union to represent their grievances to the Company collectively and Mukherji was the Secretary to the Union for 6 years from 1950-55. Feelings were quite cordial between the Union and the Company at the inception, but trouble started over the demand of bonus for the year 1954. The matter came up to the Tribunal which passed an award and the trouble was smoothed over for the present. The Company did not take the Union's activities of Mukherji in good grace and was awaiting an opportunity to sack him. On the complaint of a customer the Company called for an explanation from Mukherji on 6th April 1957, which was submitted on 11th April 1957, but the Company dismissed Mukherji on 22nd April 1957, summarily without holding an enquiry at all. The Union took up the matter and the Company agreed to reconsider it only if Mukherji tendered an unqualified apology, which was not offered though the Union agreed to withdraw the offending letter of 6th April 1957. No happy solution was reached and the Company persisted in their wrong arbitrary course. The Union therefore challenges this mala fide and unjustified action of the Company and seeks reinstatement, etc.

The Company repudiates the allegations of the Union and contends that Messrs. Surendra (Overseas), Private Ltd., a client of Lloyd's, complained against the conduct of Mukherji, a clerk in the Lloyd's Insurance Department of the Company. Mukherji's comments were called for on this complaint on 6th April 1957 and in his letter, dated 11th April 1957, Mukherji challenged the genuineness of the complaint and attacked the integrity of the Company. The Company took serious exception to the tone and language of this letter and the insubordinate attitude of Mukherji and terminated his services by their letter, dated 22nd April 1957. The Union intervened and demanded withdrawal of this letter which the Company did not accede to, but the Union agreed to withdraw Mukherji's letter, dated 11th April 1957. The Company, however, demanded that mere withdrawal of the letter would not suffice, but Mukherji should offer an apology. Mukherji did not agree to offer the apology and the Company treated negotiations for the amicable settlement as closed, which was communicated to the Union by their letter, dated 26th April 1957. The Union did not approach the Labour Commissioner, but on 6th May 1957, Mukherji resorted to the coercive tactics of a hunger-strike on the Company's own premises which did much humiliate the Company. Then the Company informed Labour Commissioner of this critical impasse and the Police intervened and arrested Mukherji on 7th May 1957 at midnight. The Company therefore urges that the termination of Mukherji's service is justified and Mukherji is not entitled to reinstatement.

DECISION

There is no dispute that the Company is one of the top-ranking concerns in Calcutta and that the relation between the Company and the Union was quite cordial in the beginning. Then the tie of goodwill slackened and recognition of the Union was withdrawn in March 1955. The first trouble started with the question of bonus for 1954. No amicable settlement was arrived at over this issue and the matter came up to the Tribunal which gave its award which is reported. The awards made by the Tribunals for the quarter ending June 1949, laid down

Company's service conditions, the procedure to be adopted before imposing punishment, etc. The procedure is explicit and lays down that a charge need be framed, its copy should be given to the delinquent clerk who will submit his explanation and an enquiry will be held and if the clerk is found guilty, a copy of the findings together with the punishment proposed to be imposed should be furnished to the clerk and the clerk will show cause against the punishment only at this stage and will be heard too in his defence, etc., and there is also a provision for an apeal. In this case, it is admitted by the learned Advocate for the Company that no enquiry at all, nothing of the kind, was held. The Company therefore did not comply with the procedure laid down by the Tribunal in awarding the instant punishment on Mukherji.

What the Company did? The Company took serious exception to the tone of Mukherji's letter, dated 6th April 1957 (Ext. A). In this letter Mukherji complained of the shortness of time granted to him for a reply and he also described the procedure as irregular and opposed to rules and practices and said that at least a reasonable time up to 11th April 1957, should be allowed to him. Then came his reply (Ext. A, Annexure B), dated 11th April 1957. In this letter, Mukherji stated that the charges are not specific and also complained that the present charge is one like the fictitious charges previously levelled against him unsuccessfully and this is a mala fide and reprisal measure of victimisation and that the complaint is a piece of pure imagination having no truth in it. He further asserts that, in fact, he refused to do overtime work as insisted by the Management, so this is a colourable device to enter an adverse remark in his service report to blight his prospects for further promotion. The Company took serious exception to this letter from their subordinate and issued the letter (Ext. B) on 22nd April 1957, giving notice of termination of his service as he attacked the character of the Company and as his conduct undermines the discipline of the office. The Company in their letter also offered him notice-pay, his entire Provident Fund money and 15 days' wages for each completed year of service. Then there were certain correspondences between the Company and the Union which need not be referred to in details. The Union produced two drafts of letter of apology (Exts. 2 and 2A). Exhibit 2 is drafted by Maharaja of Mayurbhanj, one of the Directors, and Ext. 2A by Mr. Whithouse, an ex-Director. Exhibit 2 reads as follows: "I sincerely regret my letter, dated 11th April 1957, to which the Directors, I realise, have every reason to take exception. I ask to be forgiven" and Ext. 2A is almost in the same vein in which there is the additional admission that the allegations made therein are completely unfounded and there is a prayer for reinstatement. Mukherji did not, however, offer apology which, if tendered, would have poured oil on troubled waters. In not offering an apology, Mukherji, I must observe, was clearly very much ill-advised. If he could not accept Company's draft, a suitable draft offering an apology would have been acceptable to the Company. So the negotiation between the Company and the Union for a peaceful settlement failed and the letters, therefore, do not call for any specific mention. What followed next—Mukherji served a letter (Ext. G) on the Company on 6th May 1957 intimating that he would launch a hunger-strike, "fast unto death" in the Company's premises. This hunger-strike was actually resorted to at about 10 on 6th May 1957, in the Union's own office, which, however, is situated in a corner of the first floor of the Company's office at 4 Fairlie Place. This was a most unenviable sight creating a sensation in the locality and the Company naturally felt very uncomfortable. Labour Commissioner was intimated about it and Police informed and at about the midnight of 7th

May 1957, the Police arrested Mukherji, who was subsequently released on bail and this, I must observe, was a totally wrong step taken by the Union.

In the above circumstances, my finding on the Company's terminating the services of Mukherji is that the Company not having followed its own procedure for enquiry transgressed the rules laid down by the Tribunal, no opportunity was given to Mukherji and there can be no two opinions that the principles of natural justice were altogether violated. Fundamental pinciple of law is that no man should be condemned unheard. Of couse, Mukherji stigmatised the allegation of Messrs. Surendra (Overseas) & Co., as a piece of imagination. Nonetheless Mukherji should have been given an opportunity to explain why he did so. Of course, having regard to the evidence of Mr. Cooper (O.P.W. 1) which I have no reason to disbelieve that Mukherji did not pay the attention which he (Cooper) deserved and rather he (Mukherji) left the office for a considerable length of time. This, of course, does not speak well of Mukherji as an assistant. I must observe that the Union made a very futile attempt to show that the complaint of Messrs. Surendra & Co. was unfounded as the Company did not issue any previous intimation to them that the survey report was ready and so on and so forth. May be in this case the usual formalities were not complied with, but the truth of the incident could not be shaken in the least. The fact remains that there was the complaint of unethical conduct and temporary absence from his seat from Messrs. Surendra & Co. and non-compliance with usual formalities of stereotyped nature is not material in this case.

There might be other unhappy incidents between the Union and the Company in which Mukherji took a leading part, as for example, over the scarcity of drinking water in the office premises. Over the dismissal of a mad driver, etc. For the determination of the present issue these are not material and whatever might have been the bad past record of Mukherji, the Company for that reason cannot dispense with the enquiry in which he should have been given a reasonable opportunity to explain his conduct. This is a right guaranteed to the workman by the Tribunal's award like those to the civil servants by the Constitution of India and rightly laid down in the Tribunal's award and I must find that the present punishment imposed by the Company stands vitiated, as no opportunity was given to Mukherji to explain his conduct, nor was any opportunity given to him to show cause against the punishment proposed to be inflicted. The action of the Company in not affording the opportunities to Mukherji was arbitrary as the Company took the law into their own hands. The Management obviously got enraged and did not adopt a reasonable attitude in this behalf. In this connexion it must be pointed out that the Union's plea that for Mukherji's refusal to do overtime work, and for his Union activities, the Company mala fide victimised him, does not stand scrutiny. This plea was taken just to give a colour of mala fides to the entire proceeding leading up to the dismissal of Mukherji. So the termination of services in the absence of an enquiry and in transgression of the principles of natural and social justice cannot be held to be justified, however, insolent, unbecoming the tone of his letter might be. There are numerous reported cases to support such a finding. At the same time, I must observe that the conduct of Mukherji in stigmatising the Company which he serves in the manner he did, is not praiseworthy. The Court in this case held an independent enquiry which, to put in short, does not also justify the drastic action taken summarily by the Company.

Next, I come to the question of relief. The Union seeks reinstatement but the Court is not bound to reinstate an employee simply because there was a breach of the Standing Orders of the Company. The relief is a matter of Court's discretion. The Labour Courts in the interests of industrial peace and for eliminating sources of industrial strife have been vested with wider powers than merely giving effect to the contractual relation between the employer and the employees. The main ground which deters me from granting the relief of reinstatement is Mukherji's resort to hunger-strike. He resorted to hunger-strike to coerce the Management to take him back in service. What an awful time the Company had for about 38 hours, when Mukherji was on hunger-strike. There was a sensation in the busiest office quarters, how small the Company looked before the people: This was an attitude wholly unbecoming of Mukherji. He is a graduate of the Calcutta University and he was intelligent enough to know that law has made ample provisions for redress against unjustified and wrongful dismissal. Instead of adopting lawful methods Mukherji resorted to hunger-strike which he calls "Gandhian method of Satyagraha". Mahatma Gandhi if alive this day would have been shocked to see his sacred policy being thus profaned for selfish motives. So Mukherji does not deserve reinstatement. He forfeits reinstatement by his own conduct. I am also reluctant to grant reinstatement in the view that neither Mukherji would be happy to work in the Company, nor would the Company be happy to have anything to do with him. So in the interest of the peace and harmony of the Company, apart from Mukherji's conduct which is subversive of all discipline in the Company, I find myself unable to grant reinstatement. If any authority be needed reference may be made to the ruling reported in 1956, L.L.J., Vol. I, page 132 (Vithal Shetty & Chokshy Silk Mills). In this case also a grave view was taken of the hunger-strike resorted to by the employee and reinstatement was refused. In that view, I consider adequate damages would be proper remedy. The Company offered Mukherji notice-pay, his wages equivalent to 15 days' pay for each completed year of service and his entire Provident Fund money. I think in the fitness of things, Mukherji, who is still below 30, should be awarded a month's wages for each completed year of service and one month's notice-pay and his entire Provident Fund money which I grant to him as compensation for his loss of service.

The Company will pay the above sum to Mukherji within a month of the publication of the award. The prayer of reinstatement is refused.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. Mukherjee and Co., P-74 Bentinck Street, Calcutta-1, and their workmen named Shri Chittaranjan Das and Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee represented by the West Bengal Motor Dealers Employees' Union, 52/7 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-1, referred under G. O. No. 1475-IR/IR/11L-248/57, dated 10th May 1957. (Case No. VIII-C45/57.)

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT

PRESENT:

SHRI N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge, First Labour Court

For the Union: Shri Saroj Ghosal, Vice-President of the Union, and Shri Amar Prasad Chakraborty, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri P. R. Mukherjee, LL.B.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1475-I.R./IR/11L-248/57, dated 10th May 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. Mukherjee & Co., P-74 Bentinck Street, Calcutta-1, and their workmen named Shri Chittaranjan Das and Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee, represented by the West Bengal Motor Dealers Employees' Union, 52/7 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-1, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

(1) Is the Management justified in discharging Shri Chittaranjan Das? What relief is he entitled to?

(2) Is the Management justified in dismissing Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD

The case of the Union is as follows:

The Company is a firm of importers and distributors of automotive parts of international repute and commands an extensive business extending over different States of India. The terms and conditions of employees under the Company were far from satisfactory, so the workmen formed a Union with a view to ameliorating their lot. Since the formation of the Union the Company started victimising their employees on some pretext or other. One Chittaranjan Das, a member of the Union who was due for permanency, was retrenched on 3rd November 1956 without any reason whatsoever. Then again on 8th November 1956 another workman named Amarendra Nath Banerjee was kept under duress for the whole day and he was dismissed by a letter, dated 17th December 1956, after a sham enquiry. These two workmen were dismissed for their Trade Union activities without any justification whatsoever. So the Union prays for their reinstatement with back wages.

The Company in their written statement denies the material allegations in the plain and contends, inter alia, that Shri Chittaranjan Das was appointed temporarily to pull up some arrear works and he was employed for 6 months only and his services were terminated as he proved a surplus. So far as Amarendra Nath Banerjee is concerned, the case of the Company is that he was originally employed as a booking clerk in charge of forwarding and booking of goods but as there was a fall in the business the goods of the Company used to be despatched through a forwarding and clearing agency and the Management transferred Shri Amar Banerjee as a helping hand to other clerks if and when necessary. This workman, however, wasted his time in loitering about in the office and gossiping with other clerks who made a complaint to the Management. The Management therefore segregated him from other clerks and allotted him to a seat far off from other assistants. This enraged this workman and he vilified the Company. The Management therefore charge-sheeted him, held an enquiry giving him full opportunities for his defence and ultimately found him guilty of misconduct and dismissed him from services. The dismissal is therefore fully justified and not mala fide, nor is it a result of any victimisation. His praper for reinstatement should therefore be refused.

DECISION

The issues originally referred to the Court were whether the discharge of Shri Chittaranjan Das and Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee, two workmen under the Company, was justified or not, and what relief, if any, they are entitled to. Before the trial commenced the case on behalf of Shri Chittaranjan Das was adandoned by the Union. So there remained only the case of Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee (hereinafter called Amarendra for the sake of brevity).

Admittedly this Amarendra had put in 6 years' service under the Company in the Forwarding and Packing Department when there was no complaint against him. The trouble, however, started when Amarendra was transferred from the Forwarding and Packing Department to the Department of Clearing Agency which the Company newly started. Amarendra did not apparently like this transfer and he had very little work to do and according to the Company he used to loiter here and there inside the office and wasted time in idle gossips with other assistants and thus interfered with their work. So the Company on receipt of complaints against Amarendra segregated him to a different place in a secluded corner at a distance, so that he might not disturb others. Amarendra did not obviously like this change of his seat which is described as a dark, dingy corner near to a urinal where rejected goods are dumped. This seems to be the origin of the entire trouble between the Company and this workman. For the Company it is said that Amarendra did not carry out this order regarding the arrangement for his seat and this is described as a very reasonable order in the letter (Ext. A, dated 10th November 1956) treated by the Company as the first charge-sheet against Amarendra. The Union has rightly challenged this as not fulfilling the requirements of a charge-sheet. A charge-sheet must specifically mention the charges which the workman is called upon to meet, but this so-called charge-sheet does not mention what the very reasonable order means, when it was given or when and how it was intended to be carried out, etc. O. P. W. 2 Shri Karun Kumar Mukherjee, a Director, during his deposition says that this very reasonable order meant the order asking Amarendra to occupy the segregated seat. But this verbal statement of this Director in Court cannot retrospectively go to supplement or validate the charge drawn up on 10th November 1956. During trial the Company's learned Advocate realised the futility of this charge and abandoned it and argued that the Company relies upon the second charge (Ext. B, dated 13th November 1956). Let us see what the second charge is. This letter reads as follows:—

November 13th, 1956.

Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee,
Member of the Staff.

Dear Sir,

In continuation of our letter of the 10th instant, we are further explaining you the entire matter of which you are well aware but in your explanation seem to plead ignorance. We are rather surprised to find that you have complained of "punishment" being given to you.

You know that we have abolished our "Forwarding Department" to which you have been attached, in view of our having found that it is more economical to hand over all bookings on Passenger, Goods train to a Forwarding and Clearing Agent as in the case with Steamer bookings, the bookings of Air cargo being handled by the Packing Department. In consequence whereof we have no work for you. Instead of retrenching you, we had asked you to come to Office daily, sit idly, and continue to draw your usual salary.

As you were always an idler and a disturbing element and often were found loitering, gossiping and disturbing others, the management apprehended that being now out of work, you will naturally prove to be greater detriment and a handicap to other sincere workers.

Accordingly the Management has allocated you a seat in a particular portion of the office for you. It is however being found that since then you are not found in your seat and loitering, gossiping and disturbing others. This hampers office discipline. We have warned your verbally but it seems you are determined to flout the authorities by persistently remaining absent in seat, loitering and gossiping. Will you explain why disciplinary action will not be taken against you. Your explanation must reach the Management by 15th November 1956. The order of enquiry as passed in letter to you, dated 10th November 1956, in the meantime is kept in abeyance.

Yours faithfully,
For A. R. Mukherji & Co.
Sd. Illegible,
Director.

As the concluding lines show the Company kept the order of enquiry as per letter, dated 10th November 1956, in abeyance and the workman was called upon to explain by 15th November 1956 the charge as per letter Ext. B, dated 13th November 1956. Amarendra's reply Ext. 1, dated November 15, 1956, may be referred to at this stage. His explanation in short is a denial of the allegation that he is an idler and disturbing element, etc., and an affirmation that the new seat allotted to him is in a filthy, ill-ventilated place, etc., and that the real fact is that he protested against the assaulting attitude and bad behavior of, and abusive language used by, Shri Arun Mukherjee, one of the Directors, who came to the office in a drunken condition and that this was reported to the Directors and a complaint was lodged in the Bowbazar police-station. This is followed by a letter Ext. C, dated 16th November 1956, addressed to Amarendra. Exhibit C reads as follows:—

November 16th, 1956.

Shri Amarendra Nath Banerjee,
Member of the Staff.

"Regarding the charge framed against you, your explanation is a denial of allegations.

It is also found in your explanation that you have hurled some abusive language on one of the Directors for which a separate charge is being drawn up.

Please note that an enquiry will be held into the charge framed against you on the 24th of this month at 2 p.m. in the Directors' room.

You ae directed to be present at the said enquiry failing which the Management will proceed ex parte. Please note further that no intruder or lawyer will be allowed in the said enquiry."

For A. R. MUKHERJI & Co.,
Sd. Illegible,
Director.

This letter fixed 2 p.m. on 24th November 1956 for the enquiry. The enquiry was held by Shri A. K. Mukherjee the Director of the Company who is stated to have been vilified by the workman (vide proceedings of the enquiry Ext. G). In Ext. G it appears that Amarendra did not attend this enquiry obviously because his request for assistance from members of the staff was refused by the Company (vide letter Ext. H, dated 24th November 1956). So Amarendra did not participate in this enquiry. It appears that one of the Directors Shri K. K. Mukherjee, elder brother of Arun Mukherjee, Director, was examined who also deposed before the Court, keeping Arun Mukherjee in the background. Shri K. K. Mukherjee stated the case of the Company. None else was examined and the order is "the Management is satisfied from the evidence that the charge of defiant attitude, etc., has been proved to Company's satisfaction and that there is already a charge of misconduct pending and the order will be passed after the enquiry into the later charge and the employee is to remain suspended in the meantime". This shows the manner in which the enquiry was conducted. Subsequent to this, it appears that the depositions of Shri Jitendra Chandra Chakraborty (P. W. 3), Lalit Mohon Biswas (P. W. 2), Palan Chandra Sarkar (P. W. 4) and Abhimanyu Bhattacharya were recorded on 11th December 1956. Exhibit F states that Amarendra said that he had nothing further to say beyond what he explained in his letter (Ext. 1 of 15th November 1956). As regards the other witnesses aforesaid, the majority of them complain that Shri A. K. Mukherjee comes to the office in a drunken condition and occassionally used abusive language to assistants. Every workman, of course, owes it to be loyal to the Company and the proprietors and the Company should also show common courtesy to the workmen and if anyone connected with the Management is unduly harsh and incivil, the workmen have every right to complain of it. No workmen should pry into the private character of a Director or criticise or vilify his private conduct because that is his own personal affair and does not affect them in the least, but the workmen may have a reasonable cause for complaint if anything abnormal in a Director or anybody connected with the Management manifests itself in his external dealings towards them while acting in office so as to humiliate them before their co-workers or cause annoyance to them. By this, of course, I should not be interpreted to mean that the Company has no right to punish workmen for their misconduct or negligence in the discharge of their duties. That is Company's own affair. The Company is within its right to punish workmen for their faults and to recognize their good work with rewards.

This enquiry was concluded by an order Ext. D, dated 17th December 1956. Exhibit D reads as follows:—

Shri Amarendra Nath Banerji,
12/10, Uttam Ghosh Lane,
Salkia, Howrah.

"The Management has concluded enquiry into the charge of wanton vilification of a Director by you. On enquiry none of witnesses on your behalf had any word to say here that 'you were a victim' at the hand of the vilified Director.

The Management takes strong exception to your conduct in which you persisted and delighted in maligning a Director. You had brought some witnesses to repeat the abusive language against the Director and none of them deposed as to how the said Director was responsible or had offended you except by bringing a charge-sheet for loitering and disturbing others and refusal to carry out an order.

The first charge against you, dated 10th November 1956 and further clarification on 13th November 1956 after enquiry had been proved and the Management is satisfied about the truth of the allegations made against you.

Regarding the second charge, it is clear that you not only vilified unnecessarily one of the Directors but purposely did this as this statement had nothing to do with your explanation.

Your wanton and deliberate insult to a Director followed by repetition of same later on with some malicious persistency cannot be lightly passed over. The Management has accordingly decided to dismiss you from service for the above misconducts with effect from the date of suspension."

For A. R. Mukherji & Co.
Sd. Illegible,
For the Management.

The Management accordingly dismissed him from service for the above misconduct with effect from the date of suspension. No reasonable Enquiring Officer could reach such a perverse decision as the assistants examined testified to the discourteous behaviour of Shri Arun Mukherjee and this finding of guilty is perverse against the weight of evidence on record and must be interfered with. Then again, this enquiy is severely criticized before me on behalf of the Union and I think rightly so. In the first place the Director vilified (Shri A. K. Mukherjee) was a Judge amongst two other Directors who formed the Board of Enquiry. Thus it is clear that the prosecutor was himself a Judge and that apparently excluded the possibility of a fair and reasonable trial and made the chance of the workman's obtaining justice at the hands of the Board of Enquiry all the more remote. In the circumstances in which the present enquiry was held I cannot find that the enquiry was properly and fairly conducted. Obviously the workman was much prejudiced in his defence as he found the prosecutor in the position of an Enquiring Officer. The present circumstances were enough to create in the mind of a reasonable man a suspicion of the Enquiring Officer's (A. K. Mukherjee) impartiality and there was violation of another well-known principle of natural justice that justice should not only be done but should manifestly and undoubtedly seem to be done. These principles appear to be clearly enunciated in the ruling reported in 1956 L.L.J., Vol. II, page 433 (Amalgamated Tea Estates Company Ltd., and Kerala Union Plantation Workers' Union). Having regard to the above principles regulating an enquiry, I must find that the present enquiry was vitiated and the workman was much prejudiced in his defence.

That being so, the punishment of dismissal inflicted upon the workman based on the vitiated enquiry cannot stand. In this connection the learned Advocate for the Company contends that it was quite open to the Management to summarily dismiss the workman as he vilified a Director which is a misconduct clearly subversive of all discipline in the Company and that the punishment is the sole discretion of the Company with which this Court as a supervisory body and not as an Appellate Court should interfere. In support of this contention the Court has been referred to the well-known cases of Buckingham Carnatic Co., Ltd. (reported in 1952-L.A.C. at page 497 and the case of Caltex Ltd., reported in 11 F.J.R., page 287 and Laxmi Debi Mills case at page 273 of the same volume).

In the case of Buckingham Carnatic Co., Ltd., it was observed that the Tribunal should refrain from substituting its own judgment for the judgment of the Management, as in such matters the Tribunal does not act like a Court of Appeal but rather as a supervisory body, exercising what would ordinarily be regarded as powers of revision for correction of basic errors which go to the root of the matter and of perverse findings. This, of course, does not preclude the Court from examining the findings of the Management on the charge of misconduct to assure itself that there is evidence to support the finding and that the decision of the Management is a possible view on the evidence before it.

In the case of Caltex Ltd., reported in 11 F.J.R., page 287, the enquiry held by the Management was found to be fair and no principles of natural justice were violated and the Company bona fide dismissed the workman and it was laid down that the Tribunal has no power to substitute another punishment for the one sought to be meted out by the employer. In the case of Laxmi Debi Sugar Mills case (reported in 11 F.J.R., page 273) it was held that the enquiry cannot be said to be unfair if the workmen in spite of opportunities given to them for defending themselves, did not avail themselves of them.

But the facts in this case are quite distinguishable and these rulings have got no application here. If there were a due charge-sheet, a proper enquiry held allowing reasonable opportunity to the workman and if the misconduct were proved, this Court would not have interfered with the punishment on the ground of its severity or hardness. The rules of natural justice have been violated in this case, so the Court has the right to go into the merits of the dismissal order and see whether the action of the Management is justified or not (vide Bathgate Employees Unions' case in 1953 L.L.J., Vol. I, page 493).

Furthermore, it may be pointed out, though this point was not taken at the bar, that the first charge as per Ext. A was dropped during the trial and the second charge based on the penultimate paragraph of the workman's explanation, Ext. 1, dated 15th November 1956, where in it was stated that "Shri Arun Mukherjee, one of the Directors, comes to the office in a drunken condition", was proceeded with in the manner already shown culminating in the order of his dismissal. The second charge may thus be termed an offspring of the first parent charge which was abandoned. As the first charge was dropped this second offspring charge fell along with the parent charge. If a different view be taken a charge may lead to multiplicity of charges. As for example, during this very enquiry by the Company, several other assistants also stated that Shri Arun Mukherjee comes to the office in drunken condition. Will the Company be justified in drawing up charges against these witnesses, namely, Shri Jitendra Chakravorty (P. W. 3), Shri Palan Chandra Sarkar (P. W. 4) who, as per Exts. F.—F.(2), testified to the drunken state in which Shri Arun Mukherjee attended office on some dates? The answer must be clearly "no". The witnesses stated the facts known to them and cannot be proceeded against for deposing to facts, however unsavoury their deposition may seem to the Company. So the Company was not justified in drawing up the second charge against the workman, based as it was on a statement in his explanation which is said to have vilified the Director Arun Mukherjee. No second charge may be sustained on something stated in an explanation for the first charge. In this view of the matter also the enquiry leading to the dismissal of the workman cannot be upheld.

Then again, the Union in this case has amply proved that the Company since the formation of the Workers' Union started victimising some of the workmen, namely, Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee, Shri Debnarayan Banerjee and Shri Santosh Chandra Ghosh which gave rise to conciliation proceedings leading to the settlement of the disputes (vide Ext. 5) and that even now one of the assistants is still under suspension and that the relation between the Company and the workmen has further deteriorated after the dismissal of Amar (vide Ext. 4, series of letters addressed to the Company). The evidence of P. W. 2, Lalit Mohon Biswas, a nephew of one of the Directors of the Company, J. N. Biswas and P. W. 3 Jitendra Chakravorty goes clearly to establish that the relationship between the Company and workmen is very strained and far from satisfactory. Besides that, the Company subsequently started a parallel Union of the employers as against that of the workmen and launched as it were a campaign against the workmen who protested against anything relating to the Company. It may also be pointed out that the Director Arun Babu brought a criminal case against this workman for the latter vilifying him. That case was, however, compromised (vide Ext. 6, order sheet of the Criminal Court), but still the hatchet was not buried.

In the circumstances, I must find that the termination of the services of the workman was not justified, rather he was vindictively victimised and this is a case of an unfair labour practice.

The normal relief is reinstatement, but in view of the fact that the reinstatement, if granted, would seriously tell upon the industrial peace of the Company and be detrimental to the discipline in the rank and file of the Management, I do not grant reinstatement. In lieu of reinstatement he may be granted adequate compensation. I think adequate compensation would be equivalent to his six months' salary as he put in 6 years' service. So the Company must pay the aforesaid compensation to the workman within a month of the publication of the award.

This is my award.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order Nos 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between 101 specified Jute Mills and their workmen regarding some matters specified in a schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication. The award of this Tribunal in respect of this proceeding was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 6th October 1955.

On 16th January 1956 Jadunandan, T. No. W. 548, a workman of Messrs. Sree Ambica Jute Mills Ltd., applied under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, complaining against the termination of his employment on various grounds. It is prayed that he may be reinstated to his former post and be paid all his wages and allowances for the period of his non-employment. The Company opposed the claims on various grounds.

The case was fixed for hearing on 12th July 1957, on which date, the petitioner did not appear. Sm. P. Mitra, Labour Officer of the I.J.M.A., appeared for the Company and filed documents, Exts. A and B, which are certified copies of the Company's application under section 33 and the Tribunal's order thereon striking off the application on the ground that it had lost jurisdiction to adjudicate on it. The present case is dismissed for default of the petitioner. It is also not maintainable (vide 1955 L.A.C., 221), and it is awarded accordingly.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order Nos. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between 101 specified Jute Mills and their workmen regarding some matters specified in a schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication. The award of this Tribunal in respect of this proceeding was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 6th October 1955.

On 5th November 1955 Shri Ebrahim Sk., T. No. 71, a workman of Premchand Jute Mills, applied under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, stating that he was a permanent workman of the Company with seven years' service to his credit, that the Opposite Party filed an application under section 33 seeking permission to retrench him in case No. 2416, dated 6th July 1954, that there is no reason for the Company to bring up an application under section 33, that he feels that keeping him out of work without wages is in contravention of section 33 of the Act. It is prayed that an award may be given directing the Opposite Party to reinstate him with full compensation for the period of forced unemployment. The Company, in its written statement, opposed the claims on various grounds.

This case was fixed for hearing on 12th July 1957, on which date, the workman did not appear. Sm. P. Mitra, Labour Officer of the I.J.M.A. was present for the Company and filed documents, Exts. A and B, which are certified copies of the Company's application under section 33 praying permission to dismiss the workman and the Tribunal's order thereon striking off the application on the ground that it had lost jurisdiction to adjudicate on it. On going through the record of this case, I find that the workman did not turn up before the Tribunal on any date fixed between 6th August 1956 and 12th July 1957. The case is, therefore, dismissed for default of the petitioner. Besides, this case is not also maintainable in law (vide 1955 L.A.C., 221), and it is awarded accordingly.

And whereas the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said questions;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award on the said questions as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

(Ref: Labour Department No. 679-IR/D/10L-69/56, dated 4th March 1957.)

This relates to certain points in the award relating to an industrial dispute between Messrs. F. & C. Osler (India), Ltd., and their employees referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal under Government order No. 633Dis./D/11L-70/53, dated 26th February 1953. The award was signed and sent on 12th January 1954 to the Government. The present matter of clarification has been sent by the Labour Department, Government of West Bengal, under its order No. 679-I.R./D/10L-69/56, dated the 4th March 1957, under rule 20A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. After the amendment of 1956 this power of reference for clarification is specifically given to Government under section 36A of the Act. Under this section 36A, if there is any difficulty or doubt in the opinion of Government regarding the interpretation of any provision of any award or settlement, it may refer the question to the Tribunal, and the said Tribunal shall, after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, decide such question, and its decision shall be finally binding on all such parties. In pursuance of that, the parties were given notices, and they were heard on 20th July 1957.

DECISION

The Government have referred two questions for decision, viz.—

(1) Whether Messrs. F. & C. Osler (India) Limited, 12 Old Court House Street, Calcutta, would be justified in deducting from the compensation payable under the award of the 5th Industrial Tribunal to its retrenched employees, the amount earned from other sources in the period from the 1st January 1953 to the date on which reinstatement was actually made or offered and if so, whether the declaration already submitted by the employees concerned should be accepted? If any other form of declaration is required, in what form should it be made?

(2) Whether the retrenched employees who declined reinstatement offered by the Company are entitled to the retrenchment compensation payable under the award.

It appears that the award of this Tribunal was taken up in appeal and it was confirmed with slight modification regarding two employees, viz., Shri Bhutnath Bhattacharjee and Shri Mohan Chura Das. Regarding relief to these retrenched men, the observation of the Tribunal in the original award runs thus:

"I must award that they would get the salary including dearness allowance for the period of this forced unemployment, i.e., from the 1st January 1953 up to the date of their reinstatement, less any amount drawn meanwhile either by way of re-employment, or by way of notice period pay. The reinstatement and compensation must be given effect to within one month of the award coming into operation."

Their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal observed in their decision "The learned lawyer for the Company contended that there should not have been any order for reinstatement of Bhutnath Bhattacharjee and Mohan Chandra Das, as they have been re-employed by the Company. We are not aware if they have been reinstated to their old salary and if they have got back wages for the period of unemployment. If they have been reinstated on their former wages with continuity of service, the question of reinstatement is not necessary for them, but they are entitled to wages for the period they have been out of employment. They are entitled to be reinstated in terms of the award but in calculating what they should get as unemployment benefit, the amounts they have got by the Company since re-employment shall be deducted".

Now, keeping those two awards before me, let me see how I should answer the points referred to me for clarification by the order of the Government. It should be borne in mind that in so doing I cannot read into the award what it does not contain, or take away from it what there is in it.

So, my roll is not to arrive at a fresh decision, but to interpret what I have already awarded.

In this limited scope I find that both this Tribunal and the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal gave retrenchment relief during the period these men had been kept out of employment, i.e., from the 1st January 1953 up to the date they were reinstated. But if they have already been reinstated, at least some of them, then the wages drawn during this period of re-employment should be deducted from the wages computed for this period. The idea is that the men should not get as compensation their wages plus compensation. They should not get it twice over. But if they had served during this period of unemployment elsewhere, the award did not make any provision that the said earning should also be deducted. Possibly, there was no allegation or evidence to this effect before the Tribunal. So that question did not arise before the Tribunal, and it is needless to say that the Tribunal had not decided it. So I am unable to answer whether the said earning from any source other than the present Company should be deducted in the present case, if not for any other reason, at least for the reason that the award is silent about it. Re-employment is not the same thing as employment. It stands here for re-employment under this Company. Similarly, the question of having any declaration from the employees concerned cannot arise in the present case. For the self-same reason the question of the form of declaration is uncalled for. So, I say by way of clarification that the Tribunal had in view while deducting wages, only re-employment under the present Company. So the point for clarification is misdirected and cannot be answered as it is, except as above.

On the second point the Company contends that those who had declined reinstatement have forfeited their claim for compensation because the award provided that those two conjoins relief. This interpretation of the Company is really fanciful, if not amusing. If two reliefs are given, unless one is made dependent upon the other, the foregoing of one cannot result in the forfeiture of the other.

That would be an absurd position. The Tribunal by its award found that those men were kept out of employment unfairly, and they were given compensation for this period of forced unemployment. So that compensation they must have under the award. Over and above compensation, they were given reinstatement. If they declined reinstatement, they cannot have it. But for that reason, they cannot lose both. So my interpretation is that those employees who declined reinstatement must, at all events, get compensation payable under the award.

G. PALIT,

Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

The 24th July 1957.

By order of the Governor,

S. K. BANNERJI, Jt. Secy.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. F. N. Coopta and Co., 12 Beliaghata Road, Calcutta-15 and their workmen represented by F. N. Coopta Workers' Union, 11, Beliaghata Road, Calcutta-15. (Case No. VIII—242 of 1956.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri H. L. Roy, Pleader.

AWARD

By order No. 4033Dis./D/11L-176/56, dated the 8th September 1956, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. F. N. Goopta & Co., 12 Beliaghata Road, Calcutta-15 and their workmen represented by F. N. Goopta Workers' Union, 11 Beliaghata Road, Calcutta-15, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After usual summons the parties put in appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 26th December 1956. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents. Then after adjournments the case was fixed for hearing on 26th July 1957.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

(i) Whether the workmen are entitled to year-ending bonus and also the Puja bonus for the year 1955? If so, at what rate?

(ii) Whether Shri Bipin Behari Das is entitled to compensation for the lay-off period? Whether he is entitled to be reinstated to his previous post in the Press Department? What further relief, if any, is he entitled to?

DECISION.

Issues 1 and 2: The parties filed a joint petition of compromise and prayed for an award in terms thereof. The terms are fair. I, therefore, make my award accordingly. The petition of compromise is made part of the award.

Dictated and corrected by me.

J. MAITRA,
Judge.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, WEST BENGAL

General instructions to candidates applying in response to advertisements issued by the Commission for recruitment to posts by "Selection".

(1) Instructions regarding submission of application.—Applications are to be made on the prescribed form which will be available from the office of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal, Anderson House (ground floor), Alipore, Calcutta-27, personally or on sending a large self-addressed envelope with stamps sufficient to cover the postage affixed to it. Candidates who are unable to obtain copies of the prescribed form may apply on any similar typed (not handwritten) form showing exactly the wording and spacing of the sample form published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of the 1st September 1955, provided the blanks are filled up in the candidates' own handwriting.

(2) Particulars and certificates required.—Candidates should furnish evidence of their age, qualifications and previous experience together with certificates written not more than one year prior to the date of their applications, from responsible persons, testifying to their private character.

(3) Fee.—Candidates must enclose with their applications a fee of Rs. 5 (for each category of posts) in the form of a receipted chalan from a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the head "XXXVI—Miscellaneous—Receipts of the Public Service Commission, West Bengal". Money orders, cheques, etc., in lieu of treasury chalans are not accepted. Postal orders, however, may be accepted from candidates. They should be crossed and made payable to "The Secretary, Public Service Commission, West Bengal". No application will be considered unless accompanied with the requisite application fee.

Candidates in Government service should make sure before depositing fee that their applications will be forwarded by their superior officers. In no case will the fee paid with the application be refunded.

The Commission may remit fee in case of genuinely indigent and bona fide displaced persons from Pakistan

Note.—"(i) A displaced person claiming age concession must furnish with his application satisfactory evidence that he is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan. e.g., refugee registration card or a certificate from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature, in original.

(ii) A member of the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe claiming age concession must furnish with his application a certificate in original from a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe, specifying the particular caste or tribe to which he claims to belong.

(iii) A displaced person seeking remission of the application fee must furnish besides the evidence required under Note (i) above, a certificate (in original) from a District Officer or a gazetted officer or a Member of Parliament or State Legislature to show that he is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee."

(4) Address.—Candidates should give their present address and should communicate at once any subsequent change of address.

(5) Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support of their applications through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify them for appointment. Spontaneous recommendation from persons interested in the candidates or otherwise known to them will be disregarded.

(6) Applications from candidates who are in permanent or temporary employment under any Government, a local or Statutory Body (e.g., Damodar Valley Corporation), in India will be rejected unless they are submitted through the appointing authority of their posts or service.

Candidates serving under Government or a local or statutory body should submit an advance copy in the prescribed form. The application fees should in such cases be attached to the advance copy and not to the original. The candidature of such applicants may not however be considered if the original applications do not reach the Commission's office within a fortnight from the closing date. Unless applications in original or advance copies with application fees are received within the closing date, late applications may be rejected.

S. C. CHOWDHURI, Secretary,
Public Service Commission, West Bengal.

Alipore the 29th November 1956.

OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, WEST BENGAL, WORKS AUDIT DEPARTMENT

A COMPETITIVE examination will be held about the end of October 1957 to recruit about 40 Senior Accounts Clerks for employment in the various offices of the Executive Engineers under the Government of West Bengal. The precise dates of the examination will be intimated individually, to those persons whose candidature is accepted.

The subjects in which the candidates will be examined are (i) Essay or Precis and Draft, (ii) Elementary Book-keeping, and (iii) Arithmetic and Mensuration.

The scale of pay is Rs. 80—4—160—5—180 (Efficiency Bar after the 12th stage), plus the usual dearness and other allowances as admissible from time to time under the rules of the Government of West Bengal. Appointments will be temporary for the present, but some may become permanent in due course. Successful candidates have also the prospect of becoming Divisional Accountants on passing the prescribed departmental examination. All appointments carry liability to serve anywhere under the Government of West Bengal.

Candidates should be graduates of a recognised University. Age should not exceed 24 years on the 1st October 1957. Relaxation may be permitted up to 30 years ordinarily and up to 33 years in very special cases in the case of clerks with experience of two years in the Accounts Branch of a P.W. Division or in the Works Audit Department of the Accountant-General's Office. Bona fide displaced persons may be allowed relaxation in age limit up to three years. Scheduled Castes/Tribes will be allowed relaxation in this respect up to five years. Any candidate who is already in service, should apply through the head of his office.

Application forms and further particulars may be obtained from the Superintendent, WMI Section, at 4 Brabourne Road (5th floor), Calcutta-1, between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. on any working day except Saturdays, or by sending a self-addressed large-sized stamped envelope.

Application forms, duly filled in, should be either handed in personally in return for an acknowledgement or sent by registered post. In either case, they should be accompanied by-

(i) a Treasury Chalan (in original) for Rs. 7.50 nP. (Re. 1.87 nP in the case of Scheduled Castes/Tribes candidates) creditable to the head "XXXVI—Miscellaneous Departments—Central -Miscellaneous—Examination Fees";

(ii) Original Matriculation or School Final Certificate; and

(iii) Original University Degree, or a provisional certificate issued by the Principal of a College in anticipation of the award of a Degree at a Convocation.

The applications should reach this office on or before the 10th September 1957.

The Accountant-General reserves the right to reject any application without assigning any reasons.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Ministry of Law

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 8th June, 1957, and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT NO. XX OF 1957

THE COAL BEARING AREAS (ACQUISITION AND DEVELOPMENT) ACT, 1957

[8th June, 1957.]

An Act to establish in the economic interest of India greater public control over the coal mining industry and its development by providing for the acquisition by the State of unworked land containing or likely to contain coal deposits or of rights in or over such land, for the extinguishment or modification of such rights accruing by virtue of any agreement, lease, licence or otherwise, and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Coal Bearing Areas (Acquisition and Development) Act, 1957. Short title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of India, except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Definitions.

(a) "competent authority" means any person appointed to be a competent authority under section 3;

(b) "Government company" means a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956, in which any land or rights in or over land shall have vested under section 11; I of 1956.

(c) "Mineral Concession Rules" means the rules for the time being in force made under the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1948; 53 of 1948.

(d) the expression "person interested" includes all persons claiming an interest in compensation to be made on account of the acquisition of land, or of the acquisition, extinguishment or modification of any rights in or over land, under this Act;

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

Appointment of competent authority.

3. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint any person to be the competent authority for the purposes of this Act; and different persons may be appointed as competent authorities for different provisions of this Act and for different areas.

Preliminary notification respecting intention to prospect for coal in any area and powers of competent authorities thereupon.

4. (1) Whenever it appears to the Central Government that coal is likely to be obtained from land in any locality, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, give notice of its intention to prospect for coal therein.

(2) Every notification under sub-section (1) shall give a brief description of the land and state its approximate area.

(3) On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the competent authority and for his servants and workmen—

(a) to enter upon and survey any land in such locality;

(b) to dig or bore into the sub-soil;

(c) to do all other acts necessary to prospect for coal in the land;

(d) to set out the boundaries of the land in which prospecting is proposed to be done and the intended line of the work, if any, proposed to be made thereon;

(e) to mark such boundaries and line by placing marks; and

(f) where otherwise the survey cannot be completed and the boundaries and line marked, to cut down and clear away any part of any standing crop, fence or jungle:

Provided that no person shall enter into any building or upon any enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling house (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving such occupier at least seven days' notice in writing of his intention to do so.

(4) In issuing a notification under this section the Central Government shall exclude therefrom that portion of any land in which coal mining operations are actually being carried on in conformity with the provisions of any enactment, rule or order for the time being in force or any permises on which any process ancillary to the getting, dressing or preparation for sale of coal obtained as a result of such operations is being carried on are situate.

Effect of notification on prospecting licences and mining leases.

5. On the issue of a notification under sub-section (1) of section 4 in respect of any land—

(a) any prospecting licence granted to any person under the Mineral Concession Rules which authorises him to prospect for coal or any other mineral in the land shall cease to have effect; and

(b) any mining lease granted to any person under the Mineral Concession Rules shall, in so far as it authorises the lessee or any person claiming through him to undertake any operation in the land, cease to have effect for so long as the notification under that sub-section is in force.

Compensation for any necessary damage done under section 4.

6. (1) Whenever any action of the nature described in sub-section (3) of section 4 is to be taken, the competent authority shall, before or at the time such action is taken, pay or tender payment for all necessary damage which is likely to be caused, and in case of dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount so paid or tendered or as to the person to whom it should be paid or tendered, he shall at once refer the dispute to the decision of the Central Government, and the decision of the Central Government shall be final.

(2) The fact that there exists any such dispute as is referred to in this section shall not be a bar to action under sub-section (3) of section 4.

Power to acquire land or rights in or over land notified under section 4.

7. (1) If the Central Government is satisfied that coal is obtainable in the whole or any part of the land notified under sub-section (1) of section 4, it may, within a period of two years from the date of the said notification or within such further period not exceeding one year in the aggregate as the Central Government may specify in this behalf, by notification in the Official Gazette, give notice of its intention to acquire the whole or any part of the land or of any rights in or over such land, as the case may be.

(2) If no notice to acquire the land or any rights in or over such land is given under sub-section (1) within the period allowed thereunder, the notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 4 shall cease to have effect on the expiration of three years from the date thereof.

Objections to acquisition.

8. (1) Any person interested in any land in respect of which a notification under section 7 has been issued may, within thirty days of the issue of the notification, object to the acquisition of the whole or any part of the land or of any rights in or over such land.

Explanation.—It shall not be an objection within the meaning of this section for any person to say that he himself desires to undertake mining operations in the land for the production of coal and that such operations should not be undertaken by the Central Government or by any other person.

(2) Every objection under sub-section (1) shall be made to the competent authority in writing, and the competent authority shall give the objector an opportunity of being heard either in person or by a legal practitioner and shall, after hearing all such objections and after making such further inquiry, if any, as the thinks necessary, submit the case for the decision of the Central Government together with the record of the proceedings held by him and a report containing his recommendations on the objections.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be interested in land who would be entitled to claim an interest in compensation if the land or any rights in or over such land were acquired under this Act.

Declaration of acquisition.

9. (1) When the Central Government is satisfied, after considering the report, if any, made under section 8 that any land or any rights in or over such land should be acquired, a declaration shall be made by it to that effect:

Provided that, where the declaration relates to any land or to any rights in or over land belonging to a State Government which has or have not been leased out, no such declaration shall be made except after previous consultation with the State Government.

(2) The declaration shall be published in the Official Gazette, and—

(a) in any case where land is to be acquired, shall state the district or other territorial division in which the land is situate and its approximate area; and, where a plan shall have been made of the land, the place where such plan may be inspected;

(b) in any case where rights in or over such land are to be acquired, shall state the nature and extent of the rights in addition to the matters relating to the land specified in clause (a); and a copy of every such declaration shall be sent to the State Government concerned.

Vesting of land or rights in Central Government.

10. (1) On the publication in the Official Gazette of the declaration under section 9, the land or the rights in or over the land, as the case may be, shall vest absolutely in the Central Government.

(2) Where the rights under any mining lease granted by a State Government to any person are acquired under this Act, the Central Government shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the lessee of the State Government as if a mining lease under the Mineral Concession Rules had been granted by the State Government to the Central Government, the period thereof being the entire period for which such a lease could have been granted by the State Government under those rules.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10, the Central Government may, if it is satisfied that a Government company is willing to comply, or has complied, with such terms and conditions as the Central Government may think fit to impose, direct, by order in writing, that the land or the rights in or over the land, as the case may be, shall, instead of vesting in the Central Government under section 10 or continuing to so vest, vest in the Government company either on the date of publication of the declaration or on such other date as may be specified in the direction.

Power of Central Government to direct vesting of land or rights in a Government company.

(2) Where the rights under any mining lease acquired under this Act vest in a Government company under sub-section (1), the Government company shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the lessee of the State Government as if a mining lease under the Mineral Concession Rules had been granted by the State Government to the Government company, the period thereof being the entire period for which such a lease could have been granted by the State Government under those rules; and all the rights and liabilities of the Central Government in relation to the lease or the land covered by it shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the rights and liabilities of the Government company.

12. The competent authority may, by notice in writing, require any person in possession of any land acquired under this Act to surrender or deliver possession of the land within such period as may be specified in the notice, and if a person refuses or fails to comply with any such notice, the competent authority may enter upon and take possession of the land, and for that purpose may use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.

Power to take possession of land acquired.

13. (1) Where a prospecting licence ceases to have effect under section 5, there shall be paid to the person interested compensation, the amount of which shall be a sum made up of all items of reasonable and bona fide expenditure actually incurred in respect of the land, that is to say,—

Compensation for prospecting licences ceasing to have effect rights under mining leases being acquired, etc.

(i) the expenditure incurred in obtaining the licence;

(ii) the expenditure, if any, incurred in respect of the preparation of maps, charts and other documents relating to the land, the collection from the land of cores or other mineral samples and the due analysis thereof and the preparation of any other relevant records or material;

(iii) the expenditure, if any, incurred in respect of the construction of roads or other essential works on the land, if such roads or works are in existence and in a usable condition;

(iv) the expenditure, if any, incurred in respect of any other operation necessary for prospecting carried out in the land.

(2) Where the rights under a mining lease are acquired under this Act, there shall be paid to the person interested compensation, the amount of which shall be a sum made up of the following items, namely,—

(i) if the lease was granted after prospecting operations had been carried out in respect of the land under a prospecting licence, the sum of all items of reasonable and bona fide expenditure actually incurred with respect to the matters specified in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of sub-section (1) before the date of the lease:

Provided that where two or more leases had been granted in relation to any land covered previously by one prospecting licence, only so much of the expenditure aforesaid as bears to the total expenditure the same proportion as the area under the mining lease in respect of which the rights have been acquired bears to the total area covered by the mining leases shall be payable under this clause;

(ii) any reasonable and bona fide expenditure of the nature referred to in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of sub-section (1) actually incurred in relation to the lease, together with the salami, if any, paid for obtaining the lease;

(iii) the expenditure, if any, incurred by way of payment of dead-rent or minimum royalty during any year or years when there was no production of coal;

(iv) interest on any such expenditure referred to in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) as has actually been incurred during the period commencing from the date of the lease and ending with the year in which the rights under the lease are acquired, interest being calculated in the following manner, that is to say,— interest at the rate of five per centum per annum in respect of the expenditure incurred during each calendar year for the first five years commencing from the year in which such expenditure was incurred plus interest at the rate of four per centum per annum in respect of each subsequent year after the expiration of the first five years and ending with the year in which the rights under the lease are acquired:

Provided that the total sum payable under this clause shall not exceed one-half of the total amount referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii).

(3) Where the rights under a mining lease acquired under section 9 relate only to a part of the land covered by the mining lease, the amount of compensation payable shall be such as bears to the total compensation which would have been payable if the rights of the mining lessee in respect of the entire land has been acquired, the same proportion which the area of the land in respect of which the rights are acquired bears to the total area of the land covered by the mining lease.

(4) Where a mining lease ceases to have effect for any period under clause (b) of section 5, there shall be paid by way of compensation for the period during which the lease so ceased to have effect, a sum equivalent to five per centum of any such expenditure as is referred to in clauses (i) and (iii) of sub-section (2) for each year during which the lease remains suspended.

(5) Where any land is acquired under section 9, there shall be paid compensation to the person interested, the amount of which shall be determined after taking into consideration—

(a) the market value of the land at the date of the publication of the notification under sub-section (1) of section 4;

Explanation.—The value of any minerals lying in the land shall not be taken into consideration in determining the market value of any land;

(b) the damage sustained by the person interested, by reason of the taking of any standing crops or trees which may be on the land at the time of the taking possession thereof;

(c) the damage, if any, sustained by the person interested, at the time of taking possession of the land, by reason of severing such land from other land;

(d) the damage, if any, sustainted by the person interested, at the time of taking possession of the land, by reason of the acquisition injuriously affecting his other immovable property in any other manner, or his earnings;

(e) if, in consequence of the acquisition of the land, the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses, if any, incidental to such change; and

(f) the damage, if any, bona fide resulting from diminution of the profits of the land between the time of the publication of the notification under sub-section (1) of section 4 and the time of the publication of the declaration under sub-section (2) of section 9.

(6) Where any operation carried on by or on behalf of the Central Government in the exercise of any powers conferred by this Act causes or is likely to cause damage to the surface of any land or any works thereon and in respect thereof no provision for compensation is made elsewhere in this Act, the competent authority shall pay or tender payment for all such damage, and, in case of dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount so paid or tendered or as to the person to whom it is to be paid or tendered, he shall refer the dispute to the decision of the Tribunal.

(7) No compensation under this section in relation to maps, charts and other documents shall be paid unless the person to whom it is payable has delivered to hte prescribed authority all the maps, charts and other documents.

Method of determining compensation.

14. (1) Where the amount of any compensation payable under this Act can be fixed by agreement, it shall be paid in accordance with such agreement.

(2) Where no such agreement can be reached, the Central Government shall constitute a Tribunal consisting of a person who is or has been or is qualified to be a judge of a High Court for the purpose of determining the amount.

(3) The Central Government may in any particular case nominate a person having expert knowledge in mining to assist the Tribunal, and where such nomination is made, the person or persons interested may also nominate any other person for the same purpose.

(4) At the commencement of the proceedings before the Tribunal the Central Government and the person interested shall state what in their respective opinion is a fair amount of compensation.

(5) The Tribunal shall, after hearing the dispute, make an award determining the amount of compensation which appears to it to be just, and specify the person or persons to whom the compensation shall be paid; and in making the award the Tribunal shall have regard to the circumstances of each case and to the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to the manner in which the amount of compensation shall be determined in so far as the said provisions or any of them may be applicable.

(6) Where there is a dispute as to the person or persons entitled to compensation and the Tribunal finds that more persons than one are entitled to compensation, it shall apportion the amount thereof among such persons and in such manner as it thinks fit.

(7) Nothing in the Arbitration Act, 1940, shall apply to any proceedings under this section 10 of 1940.

Costs.

15. Every award made by the Tribunal shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the proceedings before it and by what persons and in what proportions they are to be paid.

Interest on awards.

16. If the sum which in the opinion of the Tribunal ought to have been awarded as compensation is in excess of the sum which the Central Government has stated to be a fair amount of compensation, the award of the Tribunal may direct that the Central Government shall pay interest on such excess at the rate of five per centum per annum from the date on which it became payable to the date of payment of such excess.

17. (1) Any compensation payable under this Act may be tendered or paid to the persons interested entitled thereto, and the Central Government shall pay it to them unless prevented by some one or more of the contingencies mentioned in sub-section (2). Payment of compensation.

(2) If the persons interested entitled thereto shall not consent to receive it or if there be any dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount of compensation or the title to receive it or the apportionment thereof, the Central Government shall deposit the amount of compensation with the Tribunal:

Provided that any person admitted to be interested may receive such payment under protest as to the sufficiency of the amount:

Provided further that no person who has received the amount otherwise than under protest shall be entitled to take any matter under this Act before the Tribunal.

(3) When the amount of compensation is not paid or deposited as required by this section, the Central Government shall be liable to pay interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum from the time the compensation became due until it shall have been so paid or deposited.

18. Where prospecting is done under this Act by or on behalf of the Central Government in any land situate within the jurisdiction of a State Government or where the Central Government or a Government company has become the lessee of a State Government in respect of any land under this Act, the terms and conditions under which the prospecting can be done or rights under the lease exercised shall, as far as may be, be the same as the terms and conditions applicable to prospecting licences and mining leases under the Mineral Concession Rules; and in case of doubt or dispute, shall be settled by arbitration or in such other manner as the Central Government and the State Government may decide. Prospecting and mining to be done by Central Government in conformity with the Mineral Concession Rules.

19. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that all or any of the powers or duties which may be exercised or discharged by it under this Act shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification, be exercised or discharged also by any person specified in this behalf in the notification; and any such person may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, by order in writing, direct that any power or duty which has been directed to be exercised or discharged by him shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged by any such person subordinate to him as may be specified therein. Power to delegate.

20. (1) Any person aggrieved by any award of the Tribunal under section 14 may, within thirty days from the date of such award, prefer an appeal to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the land or some portion of the Appeals.

land which has been acquired or the land or some portion of the land covered by a prospecting licence or by a mining lease in respect of which mining rights have been acquired is situate.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order made by a competent authority or by any other person in virtue of any powers exercisable by him under this Act may, within twenty-one days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the Central Government.

(3) On receipt of an appeal under sub-section (2), the Central Government may, after calling for a report from the competent authority or person concerned, and giving an opportunity to the parties to be heard, and after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such orders as it think fit, and the order of the Central Government shall be final.

(4) Where an appeal is preferred under sub-section (2), the Central Government may stay the enforcement of the order of the competent authority or person concerned for such period and on such conditions as it thinks fit.

Power to obtain information.

21. The Central Government or any person authorised in writing by it in this behalf may, by order in writing, require any person to furnish to such authority as may be specified in the order such information in his possession as may be required relating to any property in respect of which action is proposed to be taken under this Act.

Power to enter and inspect.

22. The competent authority or any person authorised in writing by it in this behalf, by general or special order. may enter and inspect any property for the purpose of determining whether and, if so, in what manner an order under this Act should be made in relation to any property or with a view to securing compliance with any order made under this Act.

Penalties.

23. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in doing any of the acts authorised by sub-section (3) of section 4 or wilfully fills up, destroys, damages or displaces any mark made under section 4, or wilfully obstructs the lawful exercise of any other power conferred by or under this Act, or fails to comply with any order made or direction given under this Act, shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Service of notices and orders.

24. Subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, every notice or order issued or made under this Act shall—

(a) in the case of a notice or order of a general nature or affecting a number of persons, be notified in the Official Gazette and also published in the locality in such manner as may be prescribed; and

(b) in the case of a notice or order directed to an individual,—

(i) wherever it is practicable to do so by delivering or tendering it to that individual; or

(ii) if it cannot be so delivered or tendered, by affixing it on the door or some other conspicuous part of the residence in which that individual lives, and a written report thereof shall be prepared and witnessed by two persons living in the neighbourhood; or

(iii) failing service by these means, by post.

25. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder. Protection of action taken in good faith.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the competent authority or any other person for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

26. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no civil court shall have jurisdiction in respect of any matter which the Central Government or the competent authority or any other person is empowered by or under this Act to determine. Jurisdiction of civil courts.

27. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the procedure to be followed in making any inquiry under this Act;

(b) the procedure to be followed by the Tribunal in proceedings under section 14;

(c) the form and manner in which appeals to the Central Government may be made under this Act; and (d) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

Notifications under Act I of 1894 in which proceedings are pending to be treated as notifications under this Act.

28. (1) Every notification issued before the commencement of this Act, whether by the Central Government or by a State Government, under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), in which lands were stated to be needed for the prospecting of coal seams for the development of collieries to be worked by the Union of India shall be deemed to have been issued by the Central Government under section 4 of this Act as if this Act had been in force on the date of the notification. I of 1894.

(2) Every notification issued before the commencement of this Act, whether by the Central Government or by a State Government, under section 6 of the said Act in which lands were stated to be needed for the development of coal shall be deemed to have been issued under section 9 of this Act as if this Act had been in force on the date of the notification.

(3) Any objection preferred under section 5A of the said Act in respect of any land covered by any notification issued under section 4 of the said Act shall be deemed to be an objection preferred under section 8 of this Act to the relevant competent authority and may be disposed of by him accordingly; and the Central Government may at any time make a declaration under section 9 of this Act in respect of the land or any part thereof.

(4) Subject to the other provisions contained in this section, the provisions of this Act (including provisions relating to compensation) shall apply in relation to any such notification as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) as they apply in relation to any notification issued under section 4 or section 9, as the case may be, of this Act.

CHAPTER II

COPYRIGHT OFFICE AND COPYRIGHT BOARD

9. (1) There shall be established for the purposes of this Act an office to be called the Copyright Office. Copyright Office.

(2) The Copyright Office shall be under the immediate control of the Registrar of Copyrights who shall act under the superintendence and direction of the Central Government.

(3) There shall be a seal for the Copyright Office.

10. (1) The Central Government shall appoint a Registrar of Copyrights and may appoint one or more Deputy Registrars of Copyrights. Registrar and Deputy Registrars of Copyrights.

(2) A Deputy Registrar of Copyrights shall discharge under the superintendence and direction of the Registrar of Copyrights such functions of the Registrar under this Act as the Registrar may, from time to time, assign to him; and any reference in this Act to the Registrar of Copyrights shall include a reference to a Deputy Registrar of Copyrights when so discharging any such functions.

11. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Central Government shall constitute a Board to be called the Copyright Board which shall consist of a Chairman and not less than two nor more than eight other members. Copyright Board.

(2) The Chairman and other members of the Copyright Board shall hold office for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The Chairman of the Copyright Board shall be a person who is, or has been, a Judge of the Supreme Court or a High Court or is qualified for appointment as a Judge of a High Court.

(4) The Registrar of Copyrights shall be the Secretary of the Copyright Board and shall perform such functions as may be prescribed.

Powers and procedure of Copyright Board.

12. (1) The Copyright Board shall, subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, have power to regulate its own procedure, including the fixing of places and times of its sittings:

Provided that the Copyright Board shall ordinarily hear any proceeding instituted before it under this Act within the zone in which, at the time of the institution of the proceeding, the person instituting the proceeding actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

Explanation.—In this sub-section "zone" means a zone specified in section 15 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956. 37 of 1956.

(2) The Copyright Board may exercise and discharge its powers and functions through Benches constituted by the Chairman of the Copyright Board from amongst its members, each Bench consisting of not less than three members.

(3) If there is a difference of opinion among the members of the Copyright Board or any Bench thereof in respect of any matter coming before it for decision under this Act, the opinion of the majority shall prevail:

Provided that where there is no such majority—

(i) if the Chairman was one of the members who heard the matter, the opinion of the Chairman shall prevail;

(ii) if the Chairman was not one of the members who heard the matter, the matter shall be referred to him for his opinion and that opinion shall prevail.

(4) The Copyright Board may authorise any of its members to exercise any of the powers conferred on it by section 74 and any order made or act done in exercise of those powers by the member so authorised shall be deemed to be the order or act, as the case may be, of the Board.

(5) No member of the Copyright Board shall take part in any proceedings before the Board in respect of any matter in which he has a personal interest.

(6) No act done or proceeding taken by the Copyright Board under this Act shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Board.

(7) The Copyright Board shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and all proceedings before the Board shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

5 of 1898.
45 of 1860.

CHAPTER III

COPYRIGHT

Works in which copyright subsists.

13. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and the other provisions of this Act, copyright shall subsist throughout India in the following classes of works, that is to say,—

(a) original literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works;

(b) cinematograph films; and

(c) records.

(2) Copyright shall not subsist in any work specified in sub-section (1), other than a work to which the provisions of section 40 or section 41 apply, unless,—

(i) in the case of a published work, the work is first published in India, or where the work is first published outside India, the author is at the date of such publication, or in a case where the author was dead at that date, was at the time of his death, a citizen of India;

(ii) in the case of an unpublished work other than an architectural work of art, the author is at the date of the making of the work a citizen of India or domiciled in India; and

(iii) in the case of an architectural work of art, the work is located in India.

Explanation.—In the case of a work of joint authorship, the conditions conferring copyright specified in this sub-section shall be satisfied by all the authors of the work.

(3) Copyright shall not subsist—

(a) in any cinematograph film if a substantial part of the film is an infringement of the copyright in any other work;

(b) in any record made in respect of a literary, dramatic or musical work, if in making the record, copyright in such work has been infringed.

(4) The copyright in a cinematograph film or a record shall not affect the separate copyright in any work in respect of which or a substantial part of which, the film, or as the case may be, the record is made.

(5) In the case of an architectural work of art, copyright shall subsist only in the artistic character and design and shall not extend to processes or methods of construction.

Meaning of copyright.

14. (1) For the purposes of this Act, "copyright" means the exclusive right, by virtue of, and subject to the provisions of, this Act,—

(a) in the case of a literary, dramatic or musical work, to do and authorise the doing of any of the following acts, namely:—

(i) to reproduce the work in any material form;

(ii) to publish the work;

(iii) to perform the work in public;

(iv) to produce, reproduce, perform or publish any translation of the work;

(v) to make any cinematograph film or a record in respect of the work;

(vi) to communicate the work by radio-diffusion or to communicate to the public by a loud-speaker or any other similar instrument the radio-diffusion of the work;

(vii) to make any adaptation of the work;

(viii) to do in relation to a translation or an adaptation of the work any of the acts specified in relation to the work in clauses (i) to (vi);

(b) in the case of an artistic work, to do or authorise the doing of any of the following acts, namely:—

(i) to reproduce the work in any material form;

(ii) to publish the work;

(iii) to include the work in any cinematograph film;

(iv) to make any adaptation of the work;

(v) to do in relation to an adaptation of the work any of the acts specified in relation to the work in clauses (i) to (iii).

(c) in the case of a cinematograph film, to do or authorise the doing of any of the following acts, namely:—

(i) to make a copy of the film;

(ii) to cause the film, in so far as it consists of visual images, to be seen in public and, in so far as it consists of sounds, to be heard in public;

(iii) to make any record embodying the recording in any part of the sound track associated with the film by utilising such sound track;

(iv) to communicate the film by radio-diffusion;

(d) in the case of a record, to do or authorise the doing of any of the following acts by utilising the record, namely:—

(i) to make any other record embodying the same recording;

(ii) to cause the recording embodied in the record to be heard in public;

(iii) to communicate the recording embodied in the record by radio-diffusion.

(2) Any reference in sub-section (1) to the doing of any act in relation to a work or a translation or an adaptation thereof shall include a reference to the doing of that act in relation to a substantial part thereof.

Special provision regarding copyright in designs registered or capable of being registered under the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911.

15. (1) Copyright shall not subsist under this Act in any design which is registered under the Indian Patents and 2 of 1911. Designs Act, 1911.

(2) Copyright in any design, which is capable of being
2 of 1911. registered under the Indian Patents and Designs Act, 1911, but which has not been so registered, shall cease as soon as any article to which the design has been applied has been reproduced more than fifty times by an industrial process by the owner of the copyright or, with his licence, by any other person.

No copyright except as provided in this Act.

16. No person shall be entitled to copyright or any similar right in any work, whether published or unpublished, otherwise than under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act or of any other law for the time being in force, but nothing in this section shall be construed as abrogating any right or jurisdiction to restrain a breach of trust or confidence.

CHAPTER IV

OWNERSHIP OF COPYRIGHT AND THE RIGHTS OF THE OWNER

First owner of copyright.

17. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the author of a work shall be the first owner of the copyright therein:

Provided that—

(a) in the case of a literary, dramatic or artistic work made by the author in the course of his employment by the proprietor of a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical under a contract of service or apprenticeship, for the purpose of publication in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical, the said proprietor shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be the first owner of the copyright in the work in so far as the copyright relates to the publication of the work in any newspaper, magazine or similar periodical, or to the reproduction of the work for the purpose of its being so published, but in all other respects the author shall be the first owner of the copyright in the work;

(b) subject to the provisions of clause (a), in the case of a photograph taken, or a painting or portrait drawn, or an engraving or a cinematograph film made, for valuable consideration at the instance of any person, such person shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be the first owner of the copyright therein;

(c) in the case of a work made in the course of the author's employment under a contract of service or apprenticeship, to which clause (a) or clause (b) does not apply, the employer shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be the first owner of the copyright therein;

(d) in the case of a Government work, Government shall, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, be the first owner of the copyright therein;

(e) in the case of a work to which the provisions of section 41 apply, the international organisation concerned shall be the first owner of the copyright therein.

Assignment of copyright.

18. (1) The owner of the copyright in an existing work or the prospective owner of the copyright in a future work may assign to any person the copyright either wholly or partially and either generally or subject to limitations and either for the whole term of the copyright or any part thereof:

Provided that in the case of the assignment of copyright in any future work, the assignment shall take effect only when the work comes into existence.

(2) Where the assignee of a copyright becomes entitled to any right comprised in the copyright, the assignee as respects the rights so assigned, and the assignor as respects the rights not assigned, shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as the owner of copyright and the provisions of this Act shall have effect accordingly.

(3) In this section, the expression "assignee" as respects the assignment of the copyright in any future work includes the legal representatives of the assignee, if the assignee dies before the work comes into existence.

Mode of assignment.

19. No assignment of the copyright in any work shall be valid unless it is in writing signed by the assignor or by his duly authorised agent.

Transmission of copyright in manuscript by testamentary disposition.

20. Where under a bequest a person is entitled to the manuscript of a literary, dramatic or musical work, or to an artistic work, and the work was not published before the death of the testator, the bequest shall, unless the contrary intention is indicated in the testator's will or any codicil thereto, be construed as including the copyright in the work in so far as the testator was the owner of the copyright immediately before his death.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "manuscript" means the original document embodying the work, whether written by hand or not.

21. (1) The author of a work may relinquish all or any of the rights comprised in the copyright in the work by giving notice in the prescribed form to the Registrar of Copyrights and thereupon such rights shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), cease to exist from the date of the notice. Right of author to relinquish copyright.

(2) On receipt of a notice under sub-section (1), the Registrar of Copyrights shall cause it to be published in the Official Gazette and in such other manner as he may deem fit.

(3) The relinquishment of all or any of the rights comprised in the copyright in a work shall not affect any rights subsisting in favour of any person on the date of the notice referred to in sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V

TERM OF COPYRIGHT

22. Except as otherwise hereinafter provided, copyright shall subsist in any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (other than a photograph) published within the life-time of the author until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the author dies. Term of copyright in published literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works.

Explanation.—In this section the reference to the author shall, in the case of a work of joint authorship, be construed as a reference to the author who dies last.

23. (1) In the case of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work (other than a photograph), which is published anonymously or pseudonymously, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the work is first published: Term of copyright in anonymous and pseudonymous works.

Provided that where the identity of the author is disclosed before the expiry of the said period, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the author dies.

(2) In sub-section (1), references to the author shall, in the case of an anonymous work of joint authorship, be construed,—

(a) where the identity of one of the authors is disclosed, as references to that author;

(b) where the identity of more authors than one is disclosed, as references to the author who dies last from amongst such authors.

(3) In sub-section (1), references to the author shall, in the case of a pseudonymous work of joint authorship, be construed,—

(a) where the names of one or more (but not all) of the authors are pseudonyms and his or their identity is not disclosed, as references to the author whose name is not a pseudonym, or, if the names of two or more of the authors are not pseudonymous, as references to such of these authors who dies last;

(b) where the names of one or more (but not all) of the authors are pseudonyms and the identity of one or more of them is disclosed, as references to the author who dies last from amongst the authors whose names are not pseudonyms and the authors whose names are pseudonyms and are disclosed; and

(c) where the names of all the authors are pseudonyms and the identity of one of them is disclosed, as references to the author whose identity is disclosed or if the identity of two or more of such authors is disclosed, as references to such of those authors who dies last.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the identity of an author shall be deemed to have been disclosed, if either the identity of the author is disclosed publicly by both the author and the publisher or is otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Copyright Board by that author.

Term of copyright in posthumous work.

24. (1) In the case of a literary, dramatic or musical work or an engraving, in which copyright subsists at the date of the death of the author or, in the case of any such work of joint authorship, at or immediately before the date of the death of the author who dies last, but which, or any adaptation of which, has not been published before that date, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the work is first published or, where an adaptation of the work is published in any earlier year, from the beginning of the calendar year next following that year.

(2) For the purposes of this section a literary, dramatic or musical work or an adaptation of any such work shall be deemed to have been published, if it has been performed in public or if any records made in respect of the work have been sold to the public or have been offered for sale to the public.

Term of copyright in photographs.

25. In the case of a photograph, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the photograph is published.

Term of copyright in cinematograph films.

26. In the case of a cinematograph film, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the film is published.

27. In the case of a record, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the record is published. Term of copyright in records.

28. In the case of a Government work, where Government is the first owner of the copyright therein, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the work is first published. Term of copyright in Government works.

29. In the case of a work of an international organisation to which the provisions of section 41 apply, copyright shall subsist until fifty years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the work is first published. Term of copyright in works of international organisations.

CHAPTER VI

LICENCES

30. The owner of the copyright in any existing work or the prospective owner of the copyright in any future work may grant any interest in the right by licence in writing signed by him or by his duly authorised agent: Licences by owners of copyright.

Provided that in the case of a licence relating to copyright in any future work, the licence shall take effect only when the work comes into existence.

Explanation.—Where a person to whom a licence relating to copyright in any future work is granted under this section dies before the work comes into existence, his legal representatives shall, in the absence of any provision to the contrary in the licence, be entitled to the benefit of the licence.

31. (1) If at any time during the term of copyright in any Indian work which has been published or performed in public, a complaint is made to the Copyright Board that the owner of copyright in the work— Compulsory licence in works withheld from public.

(a) has refused to republish or allow the republication of the work or has refused to allow the performance in public of the work, and by reason of such refusal the work is withheld from the public; or

(b) has refused to allow communication to the public by radio-diffusion of such work or in the case of a record the work recorded in such record, on terms which the complainant considers reasonable;

the Copyright Board, after giving to the owner of the copyright in the work a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding such inquiry as it may deem necessary, may, if it is satisfied that the grounds for such refusal are not reasonable, direct the Registrar of Copyrights to grant to the complainant a licence to republish the work, perform the work in public or communicate the work to the public by radio-diffusion, as the case may be, subject to payment to the owner of the copyright of such compensation and subject to such other terms and conditions as the Copyright Board may determine; and thereupon the Registrar of Copyrights shall grant the licence to the complainant in accordance with the directions of the Copyright Board, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, the expression "Indian work" includes—

(i) an artistic work, the author of which is a citizen of India; and

(2) Where two or more persons have made a complaint under sub-section (1), the licence shall be granted to the complainant who in the opinion of the Copyright Board would best serve the interests of the general public.

Licence to produce and publish translations.

32. (1) Any person may apply to the Copyright Board for a licence to produce and publish a translation of a literary or dramatic work in any language.

(2) Every such application shall be made in such form as may be prescribed and shall state the proposed retail price of a copy of the translation of the work.

(3) Every applicant for a licence under this section shall, along with his application, deposit with the Registrar of Copyrights such fee as may be prescribed.

(4) Where an application is made to the Copyright Board under this section, it may, after holding such inquiry as may be prescribed, grant to the applicant a licence, not being an exclusive licence, to produce and publish a translation of the work in the language mentioned in the application, on condition that the applicant shall pay to the owner of the copyright in the work royalties in respect of copies of the translation of the work sold to the public, calculated at such rate as the Copyright Board may, in the circumstances of each case, determine in the prescribed manner:

Provided that no such licence shall be granted, unless—

(a) a translation of the work in the language mentioned in the application has not been published by the owner of the copyright in the work or any person authorised by him, within seven years of the first publication of the work, or if a translation has been so published, it has been out of print;

(b) the applicant has proved to the satisfaction of the Copryight Board that he had requested and had been denied authorisation by the owner of the copyright to produce and publish such translation, or that he was unable to find the owner of the copyright;

(c) where the applicant was unable to find the owner of the copyright, he had sent a copy of his request for such authorisation to the publisher whose name appears from the work, not less than two months before the application for the licence;

(d) the Copyright Board is satisfied that the applicant is competent to produce and publish a correct translation of the work and possesses the means to pay to the owner of the copyright the royalties payable to him under this section;

(e) the author has not withdrawn from circulation copies of the work; and

(f) an opportunity of being heard is given, wherever practicable, to the owner of the copyright in the work.

CHAPTER VII

PERFORMING RIGHTS SOCIETIES

Performing rights society to file statements of fees, charges and royalties.

33. (1) Every performing rights society shall, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, prepare, publish and file with the Rigistrar of Copyrights, statements of all fees, charges or royalties which it proposes to collect for the grant of licences for performance in public of works in respect of which it has authority to grant such licences.

(2) If any such society fails to prepare, publish or file with the Registrar of Copyrights the statements referred to in sub-section (1) in relation to any work in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section, no action or other proceeding to enforce any remedy, civil or criminal, for infringement of the performing rights in that work shall be commenced except with the consent of the Registrar of Copyrights.

Objections relating to published statements.

34. Any person having any objections to any fees, charges or royalties or other particulars included in any statement referred to in section 33 may at any time lodge such objections in writing at the Copyright Office.

Determination of objections.

35. (1) Every objection lodged at the Copyright Office under section 34 shall, as soon as may be, be referred to the Copyright Board and the Copyright Board shall decide such objection in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The Copyright Board shall, in respect of every such objecion, give notice thereof to the performing rights society concerned.

(3) The Copyright Board shall, after giving such society and the person who lodged the objection a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after making such further inquiry as may be prescribed, make such alterations in the statements as it may think fit, and shall transmit the alterations made by it to the Registrar of Copyrights, who shall thereupon, as soon as practicable after the receipt of such alterations, publish them in the Official Gazette and furnish the performing rights society concerned and the person who lodged the objection with a copy thereof.

(4) The fees, charges or royalties as altered by the Copyright Board shall be the fees, charges or royalties which the performing rights society concerned may respectively lawfully sue for or collect in respect of the grant by it of licences for the performance in public of works to which such fees, charges or royalties relate.

(5) No performing rights society shall have any right of action or any right to enforce any civil or other remedy for infringement of the performing rights in any work against any person who has tendered or paid to such society the fees, charges or royalties specified in respect of that work in a statement published by that society under sub-section (1) of section 33 or where such statement has been altered by the Copyright Board under this section in the statement so altered.

(6) Where any person has lodged an objection at the Copyright Office regarding the fees, charges or royalties in respect of any work included in a statement published under section 33, that person or any other person, on depositing such fees, charges or royalties at the Copyright Office, may, pending the final decision of such objection by the Copyright Board or the High Court, as the case may be, perform that work without infringing the copyright therein.

(7) The fees, charges or royalties deposited at the Copyright Office under sub-section (6) shall be paid to the performing rights society concerned or to the person who made the deposit, or partly to such society and partly to such person, in accordance with the final decision on the objection as aforesaid.

Existing rights not affected.

36. Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to affect—

(a) any rights or liabilities in relation to the performing rights in any work accrued or incurred before the commencement of this Act;

CHAPTER VIII

RIGHTS OF BROADCASTING AUTHORITIES

Broadcast reproduction right.

37. (1) Where any programme is broadcast by radio-diffusion by the Government or any other broadcasting authority, a special right to be known as "broadcast reproduction right" shall subsist in such programme.

(2) The Government or other broadcasting authority, as the case may be, shall be the owner of the broadcast reproduction right and such right shall subsist until twenty-five years from the beginning of the calendar year next following the year in which the programme is first broadcast.

(3) During the continuance of a broadcast reproduction right in relation to any programme, any person who,—

(a) without the licence of the owner of the right—

(i) rebroadcasts the programme in question or any substantial part thereof; or

(ii) causes the programme in question or any substantial part thereof to be heard in public; or

(b) without the licence of the owner of the right to utilise the broadcast for the purpose of making a record recording the programme in question or any substantial part thereof, makes any such record, shall be deemed to infringe that broadcast reproduction right.

38. Sections 18, 19, 30, 53, 55, 58, 64, 65 and 66 shall, with any necessary adaptation and modifications, apply in relation to the broadcast reproduction right in any programme as they apply in relation to the copyright in a work: Other provisions of this Act to apply to broadcast reproduction rights.

Provided that a licence to utilise a broadcast for the purpose of making a record recording a programme in which broadcast reproduction right subsists or any substantial part of such programme, shall not take effect unless the person to whom such licence is granted has also obtained a licence to make records recording the work embodied in such programme from the owner of the copyright in such work.

39. For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the broadcast reproduction right conferred upon a broadcasting authority under this Chapter shall not affect the copyright— Other rights not affected.

(a) in any literary, dramatic or musical work which is broadcast by that authority; or

(b) in any record recording any such work.

CHAPTER IX

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT

40. The Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, direct that all or any provisions of this Act shall apply— Power to extend copyright to foreign works.

(a) to works first published in any territory outside India to which the order relates in like manner as if they were first published within India;

(b) to unpublished works, or any class thereof, the authors whereof were at the time of the making of the work, subjects or citizens of a foreign country to which the order relates, in like manner as if the authors were citizens of India;

(c) in respect of domicile in any territory outside India to which the order relates in like manner as if such domicile were in India;

(d) to any work of which the author was at the date of the first publication thereof, or, in a case where the author was dead at that date, was at the time of his death, a subject or citizen of a foreign country to which the order relates in like manner as if the author was a citizen of India at that date or time;

and thereupon, subject to the provisions of this Chapter and of the order, this Act shall apply accordingly:

Provided that—

(i) before making an order under this section in respect of any foreign country (other than a country with which India has entered into a treaty or which is a party to a convention relating to copyright to which India is also a party), the Central Government shall be satisfied that that foreign country has made, or has undertaken to make, such provisions, if any, as it appears to the Central Government expedient to require for the protection in that country of works entitled to copyright under the provisions of this Act;

(ii) the order may provide that the provisions of this Act shall apply either generally or in relation to such classes of works or such classes of cases as may be specified in the order;

(iii) the order may provide that the term of copyright in India shall not exceed that conferred by the law of the country to which the order relates;

(iv) the order may provide that the enjoyment of the rights conferred by this Act shall be subject to the accomplishment of such conditions and formalities, if any, as may be prescribed by the order;

(v) in applying the provisions of this Act as to ownership of copyright, the order may make such exceptions and modifications as appear necessary, having regard to the law of the foreign country;

(vi) the order may provide that this Act or any part thereof shall not apply to works made before the commencement of the order or that this Act or any part thereof shall not apply to works first published before the commencement of the order.

Provisions as to works of certain international organisations.

41. (1) Where—

(b) there would, apart from this section, be no copyright in the work in India at the time of the making or, as the case may be, of the first publication thereof, and

(c) either—

(i) the work is published as aforesaid in pursuance of an agreement in that behalf with the author, being an agreement which does not reserve to the author the copyright, if any, in the work, or

(ii) under section 17 any copyright in the work would belong to the organisation;

there shall, by virtue of this section, be copyright in the work throughout India.

(2) Any organisation to which this section applies which at the material time had not the legal capacity of a body corporate shall have and be deemed at all material times to have had the legal capacity of a body corporate for the purpose of holding, dealing with, and enforcing copyright and in connection with all legal proceedings relating to copyright.

(3) The organisations to which this section applies are such organisations as the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, declare to be organisations of which one or more sovereign powers or the Government or Governments thereof are members to which it is expedient that this section shall apply.

42. If it appears to the Central Government that a foreign country does not give or has not undertaken to give adequate protection to the works of Indian authors, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, direct that such of the provisions of this Act as confer copyright on works first published in India shall not apply to works, published after the date specified in the order, the authors whereof are subjects or citizens of such foreign country and are not domiciled in India, and thereupon those provisions shall not apply to such works. Power to restrict rights in works of foreign authors first published in India.

43. Every order made by the Central Government under this Chapter shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before both Houses of Parliament and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following. Orders under this Chapter to be laid before Parliament.

CHAPTER X

REGISTRATION OF COPYRIGHT

44. There shall be kept at the Copyright Office a register in the prescribed form to be called the Register of Copyrights in which may be enteded the names or titles of works and the names and addresses of authors, publishers and owners of copyright and such other particulars as may be prescribed. Register of Copyrights.

Entries in Register of copyrights.

45. (1) The author or publisher of, or the owner of or other person interested in the copyright in, any work may make an application in the prescribed form accompanied by the prescribed fee to the Registrar of Copyrights for entering particulars of the work in the Register of Copyrights.

(2) On receipt of an application in respect of any work under sub-section (1), the Registrar of Copyrights may, after holding such inquiry as he may deem fit, enter the particulars of the work in the Register of Copyrights.

Indexes.

46. There shall be also kept at the Copyright Office such indexes of the Register of Copyrights as may be prescribed.

Form and inspection of register.

47. The Register of Copyrights and indexes thereof kept under this Act shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection, and any person shall be entitled to take copies of, or make extracts from, such register or indexes on payment of such fee and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

Register of Copyrights to be prima facie evidence of particulars entered therein.

48. The Register of Copyrights shall be prima facie evidence of the particulars entered therein and documents purporting to be copies of any entries therein, or extracts therefrom certified by the Registrar of Copyrights and sealed with the seal of the Copyright Office shall be admissible in evidence in all courts without further proof or production of the original.

Correction of entries in the Register of Copyrights.

49. The Registrar of Copyrights may, in the prescribed cases and subject to the prescribed conditions, amend or alter the Register of Copyrights by—

(a) correcting any error in any name, address or particulars; or

Rectification of Register by Copyright Board.

50 The Copyright Board, on application of the Registrar of Copyrights or of any person aggrieved, shall order the rectification of the Register of Copyrights by—

(a) the making of any entry wrongly omitted to be made in the register, or

(b) the expunging of any entry wrongly made in, or remaining on, the register, or

(c) the correction of any error or defect in the register.

CHAPTER XI

INFRINGEMENT OF COPYRIGHT

When copyright infringed.

51. Copyright in a work shall be deemed to be infringed—

(a) when any person, without a licence granted by the owner of the Copyright or the Registrar of Copyrights under this Act or in contravention of the conditions of a licence so granted or of any condition imposed by a competent authority under this Act—

(i) does anything, the exclusive right to do which is by this Act conferred upon the owner of the copyright, or

(ii) permits for profit any place to be used for the performance of the work in public where such performance constitutes an infringement of the copyright in the work unless he was not aware and had no reasonable ground for believing that such performance would be an infringement of copyright, or

(b) when any person—

(i) makes for sale or hire, or sells or lets for hire, or by way of trade displays or offers for sale or hire, or

(ii) distributes either for the purpose of trade or to such an extent as to affect prejudicially the owner of the copyright, or

(iii) by way of trade exhibits in public, or

(iv) imports (except for the private and domestic use of the importer) into India, any infringing copies of the work.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the reproduction of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work in the form of a cinematograph film shall be deemed to be an "infringing copy".

Certain acts not to be infringement of copyright.

52. (1) The following acts shall not constitute an infringement of copyright, namely:—

(a) a fair dealing with a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work for the purposes of—

(i) research or private study;

(ii) criticism or review, whether of that work or of any other work;

(b) a fair dealing with a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work for the purpose of reporting current events—

(i) in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical, or

(ii) by radio-diffusion or in a cinematograph film or by means of photographs;

(c) the reproduction of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work for the purpose of a judicial proceeding or for the purpose of a report of a judicial proceeding;

(d) the reproduction or publication of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work in any work prepared by the Secretariat of a Legislature or, where the Legislature consists of two Houses, by the Secretariat of either House of the Legislature, exclusively for the use of the members of that Legislature;

(e) the reproduction of any literary, dramatic or musical work in a certified copy made or supplied in accordance with any law for the time being in force;

(f) the reading or recitation in public of any reasonable extract from a published literary or dramatic work;

(g) the publication in a collection, mainly composed of non-copyright matter, bona fide intended for the use of educational institutions, and so described in the title and in any advertisement issued by or on behalf of the publisher, of short passages from published literary or dramatic works, not themselves published for the use of educational institutions, in which copyright subsists:

Provided that not more than two such passages from works by the same author are published by the same publisher during any period of five years.

Explanation.—In the case of a work of joint authorship, references in this clause to passages from works shall include references to passages from works by any one or more of the authors of those passages or by any one or more of those authors in collaboration with any other person;

(h) the reproduction of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work—

(i) by a teacher or a pupil in the course of instruction; or

(ii) as part of the questions to be answered in an examination; or

(iii) in answers to such questions;

(i) the performance, in the course of the activities of an educational institution, of a literary, dramatic or musical work by the staff and students of the institution, or of a cinematograph film or a record, if the audience is limited to such staff and students, the parents and guardians of the students and persons directly connected with the activities of the institution;

(j) the making of records in respect of any literary, dramatic or musical work, if—

(i) records recording that work have previously been made by, or with the licence or consent of, the owner of the copyright in the work; and

(ii) the person making the records has given the prescribed notice of his intention to make the records, and has paid in the prescribed manner to the owner of the copyright in the work royalties in respect of all such records to be made by him, at the rate fixed by the Copyright Board in this behalf:

Provided that in making the records such person shall not make any alterations in, or omissions from the work, unless records recording the work subject to similar alterations and omissions have been previously made by, or with the licence or consent of, the owner of the copyright or unless such alterations and omissions are reasonably necessary for the adaptation of the work to the records in question;

(k) the causing of a recording embodied in a record to be heard in public by utilising the record,—

(i) at any premises where persons reside, as part of the amenities provided exclusively or mainly for residents therein, or

(ii) as part of the activities of a club, society or other organisation which is not established or conducted for profit;

(l) the performance of a literary, dramatic or musical work by an amateur club or society, if the performance is given to a non-paying audience, or for the benefit of a religious institution;

(m) the reproduction in a newspaper, magazine or other periodical of an article on current economic, political, social or religious topics, unless the author of such article has expressly reserved to himself the right of such reproduction;

(n) the publication in a newspaper, magazine or other periodical of a report of a lecture delivered in public;

(o) the making of not more than three copies of a book (including a pamphlet, sheet of music, map, chart or plan) by or under the direction of the person in charge of a public library for the use of the library if such book is not available for sale in India;

(p) the reproduction, for the purpose of research or private study or with a view to publication, of an unpublished literary, dramatic or musical work kept in a library, museum or other institution to which the public has access:

Provided that where the identity of the author of any such work or, in the case of a work of joint authorship, of any of the authors is known to the library, museum or other institution, as the case may be, the provisions ot this clause shall apply only if such reproduction is made at a time more than fifty years from the date of the death of the author or, in the case of a work of joint authorship, from the death oi the author whose identity is known or, if the identity of more authors than one is known from the death of such of those authors who dies last;

(q) the reproduction or publication of—

(i) any matter which has been published in any Official Gazette except an Act of a Legislature;

(ii) any Act of a Legislature subject to the condition that such Act is reproduced or published together with any commentary thereon or any other original matter;

(iii) the report of any committee, commission, council, board or other like body appointed by the Government if such report has been laid on the Table of the Legislature, unless the reproduction or publication of such report is prohibited by the Government;

(iv) any judgment or order of a court, tribunal or other judicial authority, unless the reproduction or publication of such judgment or order is prohibited by the court, the tribunal or other judicial authority, as the case may be;

(r) the production or publication of a translation in any Indian language of an Act of a Legislature and of any rules or orders made thereunder—

(i) if no translation of such Act or rules or orders in that language has previously been produced or published by the Government; or

(ii) where a translation of such Act or rules or orders in that language has been produced or published by the Government, if the translation is not available for sale to the public:

Provided that such translation contains a statement at a prominent place to the effect that the translation has not been authorised or accepted as authentic by the Government;

(s) the making or publishing of a painting, drawing, engraving or photograph of an architectural work of art;

(t) the making or publishing of a painting, drawing, engraving or photograph of a sculpture, or other artistic work falling under sub-clause (iii) of clause (c) of section 2, if such work is permanently situate in a public place or any premises to which the public has access;

(u) the inclusion in a cinematograph film of—

(i) any artistic work permanently situate in a public place or any premises to which the public has access; or

(ii) any other artistic work, if such inclusion is only by way of background or is otherwise incidental to the principal matters represented in the film;

(v) the use by the author of an artistic work, where the author of such work is not the owner of the copyright therein, of any mould, cast, sketch, plan, model or study made by him for the purpose of the work:

Provided that he does not thereby repeat or imitate the main design of the work;

(w) the making of an object of any description in three dimensions of an artistic work in two dimensions, if the object would not appear, to persons who are not experts in relation to objects of that description, to be a reproduction of the artistic work;

(x) the reconstruction of a building or structure in accordance with the architectural drawings or plans by reference to which the building or structure was originally constructed:

Provided that the original construction was made with the consent or licence of the owner of the copyright in such drawings and plans;

(y) in relation to a literary, dramatic or musical work recorded or reproduced in any cinematograph film, the exhibition of such film after the expiration of the term of copyright therein:

Provided that the provisions of sub-clause (ii) of clause (a), sub-clause (i) of clause (b) and clauses (d), (f), (g), (m) and (p) shall not apply as respects any act unless that act is accompanied by an acknowledgment—

(i) identifying the work by its title or other description; and

(ii) unless the work is anonymous or the author of the work has previously agreed or required that no acknowledgement of his name should be made, also identifying the author.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply to the doing of any act in relation to the translation of a literary, dramatic or musical work or the adaptation of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work as they apply in relation to the work itself.

Importation of infringing copies.

53. (1) The Registrar of Copyrights, on application by the owner of the copyright in any work or by his duly authorised agent and on payment of the prescribed fee, may, after making such inquiry as he deems fit, order that copies made out of India of the work which if made in India would infringe copyright shall not be imported.

(2) Subject to any rules made under this Act, the Registrar of Copyrights or any person authorised by him in this behalf may enter any ship, dock or premises where any such copies as are referred to in sub-section (1) may be found and may examine such copies.

(3) All copies to which any order made under sub-section (1) applies shall be deemed to be goods of which the import has been prohibited or restricted under section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, and all the provisions of that Act shall have effect accordingly:

8 of 1878.

Provided that all such copies confiscated under the provisions of the said Act shall not vest in the Government but shall be delivered to the owner of the copyright in the work.

CHAPTER XII

CIVIL REMEDIES

Definition.

54. For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "owner of copyright" shall include—

(a) an exclusive licensee;

(b) in the case of an anonymous or pseudonymous literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work, the publisher of the work, until the identity of the author or, in the case of an anonymous work of joint authorship, or a work of joint authorship published under names all of which are pseudonyms, the identity of any of the authors, is disclosed publicly by the author and the publisher or is otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Copyright Board by that author or his legal representatives.

Civil remedies for infringement of copyright.

55. (1) Where copyright in any work has been infringed, the owner of the copyright shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be entitled to all such remedies by way of injunction, damages, accounts and otherwise as are or may be conferred by law for the infringement of a right:

Provided that if the defendant proves that at the date of the infringement he was not aware and had no reasonable ground for believing that copyright subsisted in the work, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to any remedy other than an injunction in respect of the infringement and a decree for the whole or part of the profits made by the defendant by the sale of the infringing copies as the court may in the circumstances deem reasonable.

(2) Where, in the case of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work, a name purporting to be that of the author or the publisher, as the case may be, appears on copies of the work as published, or, in the case of an artistic work, appeared on the work when it was made, the person whose name so appears or appeared shall, in any proceeding in respect of infringement of copyright in such work, be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to be the author or the publisher of the work, as the case may be.

(3) The costs of all parties in any proceedings in respect of the infringement of copyright shall be in the discretion of the court.

Protection of separate rights.

56. Subject to the provisions of this Act, where the several rights comprising the copyright in any work are owned by different persons, the owner of any such right shall, to the extent of that right, be entitled to the remedies provided by this Act and may individually enforce such right by means of any suit, action or other proceeding without making the owner of any other right a party to such suit, action or proceeding.

57. (1) Independently of the author's copyright, and even after the assignment either wholly or partially of the said copyright, the author of a work shall have the right to claim the authorship of the work as well as the right to restrain, or claim damages in respect of,— Author's special rights.

(a) any distortion, mutilation or other modification of the said work; or

(b) any other action in relation to the said work which would be prejudicial to his honour or reputation.

(2) The right conferred upon an author of a work by sub-section (1), other than the right to claim authorship of the work, may be exercised by the legal representatives of the author.

58. All infringing copies of any work in which copyright subsists, and all plates used or intended to be used for the production of such infringing copies, shall be deemed to be the property of the owner of the copyright, who accordingly may take proceedings for the recovery of possession thereof or in respect of the conversion thereof: Rights of owner against persons possessing or dealing with infringing copies.

Provided that the owner of the copyright shall not be entitled to any remedy in respect of the conversion of any infringing copies, if the opponent proves—

(a) that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to believe that copyright subsisted in the work of which such copies are alleged to be infringing copies; or

(b) that he had reasonable grounds for believing that such copies or plates do not involve infringement of the copyright in any work.

59. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Specific Relief Act, 1877, where the construction of a building or other structure which infringes or which, if completed, would infringe the copyright in some other work has been commenced, the owner of the copyright shall not be entitled to obtain an injunction to restrain the construction of such building or structure or to order its demolition. Restriction on remedies in the case of works of architecture. 1 of 1877.

(2) Nothing in section 58 shall apply in respect of the construction of a building or other structure which infringes or which, if completed, would infringe the copyright in some other work.

60. Where any person claiming to be the owner of copyright in any work, by circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens any other person with any legal proceedings or liability in respect of an alleged infringement of the copyright, any person aggrieved thereby may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, institute a declaratory suit that the alleged infringement to which the threats related was not in fact an infringement of any legal rights of the person making such threats and may in any such suit— Remedy in the case of groundless threat of legal proceedings. 1 of 1877.

(a) obtain an injunction against the continuance of such threats; and

(b) recover such damages, if any, as he has sustained by reason of such threats:

Provided that this section shall not apply if the person making such threats, with due diligence, commences and prosecutes an action for infringement of the copyright claimed by him.

Owners of copyright to be party to the proceeding.

61. (1) In every civil suit or other proceeding regarding infringement of copyright instituted by an exclusive licensee, the owner of the copyright shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be made a defendant and where such owner is made a defendant, he shall have the right to dispute the claim of the exclusive licensee.

(2) Where any civil suit or other proceeding regarding infringement of copyright instituted by an exclusive licensee is successful, no fresh suit or other proceeding in respect of the same cause of action shall lie at the instance of the owner of the copyright.

Jurisdiction of court over matters arising under this Chapter.

62. (1) Every suit or other civil proceeding arising under this Chapter in respect of the infringement of copyright in any work or the infringement of any other right conferred by this Act shall be instituted in the district court having jurisdiction.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1), a "district court having jurisdiction" shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or any other law for the time being in force, include a district court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction, at the time of the institution of the suit or other proceeding, the person instituting the suit or other proceeding or, where there are more than one such persons, any of them actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain. 5 of 1908.

Appeals against certain orders of magistrate.

71. Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (2) of section 64 or section 66 may, within thirty days of the date of such order, appeal to the court to which appeals from the court making the order ordinarily lie, and such appellate court may direct that execution of the order be stayed pending disposal of the appeal.

Appeals against orders of Registrar of Copyrights and Copyright Board.

72. (1) Any person aggrieved by any final decision or order of the Registrar of Copyrights may, within three months from the date of the order or decision, appeal to the Copyright Board.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any final decision or order of the Copyright Board, not being a decision or order made in an appeal under sub-section (1), may, within three months from the date of such decision or order, appeal to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the appellant actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain:

Provided that no such appeal shall lie against a decision of the Copyright Board under section 6.

(3) In calculating the period of three months provided for an appeal under this section, the time taken in granting a certified copy of the order or record of the decision appealed against shall be excluded.

73. The High Court may make rules consistent with this Act as to the procedure to be followed in respect of appeals made to it under section 72. Procedure for appeals.

CHAPTER XV

MISCELLANEOUS

74. The Registrar of Copyrights and the Copyright Board shall have the powers of a civil court when trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:— 5 of 1908. Registrar of Copyrights and Copyright Board to possess certain powers of civil courts.

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavits;

(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;

(e) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;

(f) any other matter which may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses, the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Registrar of Copyrights or the Copyright Board, as the case may be, shall be the limits of the territory of India.

75. Every order made by the Registrar of Copyrights or the Copyright Board under this Act for the payment of any money or by the High Court in any appeal against any such order of the Copyright Board shall, on a certificate issued by the Registrar of Copyrights, the Copyright Board or the Registrar of the High Court, as the case may be, be deemed to be a decree of a civil court and shall be executable in the same manner as a decree of such court. Orders for payment of money passed by Registrar of Copyrights and Copyright Board to be executable as a decree.

76. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act. Protection of action taken in good faith.

77. Every officer appointed under this Act and every member of the Copyright Board shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860. Certain persons to be public servants.

78. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Central Government may make rules to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the term of office and conditions of service of the Chairman and other members of the Copyright Board;

(b) the form of complaints and applications to be made, and the licences to be granted, under this Act;

(c) the procedure to be followed in connection with any proceeding before the Registrar of Copyrights;

(d) the manner of determining any royalties payable under this Act, and the security to be taken for the payment of such royalties;

(e) the form of Register of Copyrights to be kept under this Act and the particulars to be entered therein;

(f) the matters in respect of which the Registrar of Copyrights and the Copyright Board shall have powers of a civil court;

(g) the fees which may be payable under this Act;

(h) the regulation of business of the Copyright Office and of all things by this Act placed under the direction or control of the Registrar of Copyrights.

(3) All rules made under this section shall, as soon as may be after they are made, be laid before both Houses of Parliament for not less than thirty days and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

Repeals, savings, and transitional provisions.

79. (1) The Indian Copyright Act, 1914 and the Copyright Act of 1911 passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom as modified in its application to India by the Indian Copyright Act, 1914, are hereby repealed. [3 of 1914.] [3 of 1914.]

(2) Where any person has, before the commencement of this Act, taken any action whereby he has incurred any expenditure or liabilities in connection with the reproduction or performance of any work in a manner which at the time was lawful or for the purpose of or with a view to the reproduction or performance of a work at a time when such reproduction or performance would, but for the coming into force of this Act, have been lawful, nothing in this section shall diminish or prejudice any rights or interests arising from or in connection with such action which are subsisting and valuable at the said date, unless the person who, by virtue of this Act, becomes entitled to restrain such reproduction or performance agrees to pay such compensation as, failing agreement, may be determined by the Copyright Board.

(3) Copyright shall not subsist by virtue of this Act in any work in which copyright did not subsist immediately before the commencement of this Act under any Act repealed by sub-section (1).

(4) Where copyright subsisted in any work immediately before the commencement of this Act, the rights comprising such copyright shall, as from the date of such commencement, be the rights specified in section 14 in relation to the class of works to which such work belongs, and where any new rights are conferred by that section, the owner of such rights shall be—

(a) in any case, where copyright in the work was wholly assigned before the commencement of this Act, the assignee or his successor-in-interest:

(b) in any other case, the person who was the first owner of the copyright in the work under any Act repealed by sub-section (1) or his legal representatives.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, where any person is entitled immediately before the commencement of this Act to copyright in any work or any right in such copyright or to an interest in any such right, he shall continue to be entitled to such right or interest for the period for which he would have been entitled thereto if this Act had not come into force.

(6) Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to render any act done before its commencement an infringement of copyright if that act would not otherwise have constituted such an infringement.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in this section, nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the application of the 10 of 1897. General Clauses Act, 1897, with respect to the effect ot repeals.

CHAPTER II

CHARGE OF EXPENDITURE-TAX AND EXPENDITURE SUBJECT TO SUCH CHARGE

3. Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, there shall be charged for every financial year commencing on and from the first day of April, 1958, a tax (hereinafter referred to as expenditure-tax) at the rate or rates specified in the Schedule in respect of the expenditure incurred by any individual or Hindu undivided family in the previous year: Charge of expenditure-tax.

Provided that no expenditure-tax shall be payable by an assessee in respect of any assessment year if his total income under the Income-tax Act during the previous year does not exceed sixty thousand rupees.

4. In computing the expenditure liable to tax under this Act, the following amounts shall be included, namely, any expenditure incurred, whether directly or indirectly, by a person other than the assessee in respect of any obligation or personal requirement of the assessee or any of his dependants which, but for the expenditure having been incurred by that other person, would have been incurred by the assessee. Amounts to be included in taxable expenditure.

5. (1) No expenditure-tax shall be payable under this Act in respect of any such expenditure as is referred to in the following clauses which has been incurred by the assessee, namely:— Exemptions from expenditure-tax in certain cases.

(a) any expenditure, whether in the nature of current expenditure or capital expenditure, incurred by the assessee wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the business, profession, vocation or occupation carried on by him, but not including any personal expenditure;

(b) any expenditure incurred in the acquisition or construction of any immovable property;

(c) any expenditure incurred by way of investment in current and fixed deposits, loans, shares and securities;

(d) any expenditure incurred by way of contribution as capital to a firm or other association of persons in consideration of a share in the profits of the firm or association;

(e) any expenditure incurred by way of repayment of any loan or other borrowing;

(f) any expenditure incurred in respect of any gift, donation or settlement on trust or otherwise for the benefit of any other person;

(g) any expenditure incurred for paying premiums in respect of any policies of insurance on the life of the assessee or of any of his dependants or in respect of any health, accident or disability policies of insurance;

(h) any expenditure incurred by way of contributions to a provident, thrift or superannuation fund;

(i) any expenditure incurred by an assessee, who is not a citizen of India, outside India from any income or capital, accrued or realised outside India.

(2) Where any expenditure is not wholly and exclusively incurred for any of the purposes specified in sub-section (1), the provisions of that sub-section shall apply in respect of so much of that expenditure as is reasonably attributable to any such purpose.

Exclusion from taxable expenditure.

6. In computing the taxable expenditure, the following deductions and allowances shall be made, namely:—

(a) any taxes including the expenditure-tax payable under this Act, duties, cesses or fees paid to the Government or a local authority, but not including—

(i) taxes or fees in respect of any conveyance or other movable asset intended for the personal use of the assessee or any of his dependants;

(ii) customs duties on articles imported for the personal use of the assessee or any of his dependants;

(iii) any fine or penalty in respect of an offence under any law relating to the levy of taxes, duties, cesses or fees;

(b) any expenditure incurred by the assessee in respect of the marriage of any of his dependants, to the extent of Rs. 5,000 in respect of each such dependant;

(c) four-fifths of any expenditure incurred by way of capital expenditure on the purchase of jewellery, ornaments, works of art, furniture and other household goods, motor cars and other conveyances or any other article for the personal use of the assessee or any of his dependants:

Provided that where a deduction as aforesaid is made, one-fifth of the said capital expenditure shall be deemed to be incurred by the assessee in each of the four years succeeding the previous year in which the expenditure was actually incurred and no deduction shall be made under this clause in the assessment for any succeeding year in respect of expenditure so deemed to have been incurred in any earlier year;

(d) a basic allowance of Rs. 24,000 and a further allowance, if claimed, of Rs. 5,000 in respect of each dependant:

Provided that the allowance under this clause in respect of any dependant shall be reduced by the amount, if any, of the separate income of such dependant, but so as not to exceed Rs. 5,000 in any case:

Provided further that where any expenditure claimed by any individual as having been incurred in respect of any of his dependants has been allowed as a deduction from his taxable expenditure, the allowance permissible under this clause in the case of a Hindu undivided family of which the dependant is a coparcener shall be Rs. 2,000.

CHAPTER III

EXPENDITURE-TAX AUTHORITIES

7. Every Income-tax Officer having jurisdiction or exercising powers as such under the Income-tax Act in respect of any individual or Hindu undivided family shall perform the functions of an Expenditure-tax Officer under this Act in respect of such individual or Hindu undivided family. Expenditure-tax Officers.

8. The Board may empower as many persons as it thinks fit to exercise under this Act the functions of an Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Expenditure-tax, and on being so empowered the Appellate Assistant Commissioners of Expenditure-tax shall perform their functions in respect of such areas or such classes of persons as the Board may direct, and where such directions have assigned to two or more Appellate Assistant Commissioners the same area or the same classes of persons, they shall perform their functions in accordance with such orders as the Board may make for the distribution and allocation of the work to be performed. Appellate Assistant Commissioners of Expenditure-tax.

9. The Board may empower as many persons as it thinks fit to exercise under this Act the functions of a Commissioner of Expenditure-tax, and on being so empowered the Commissioners of Expenditure-tax shall perform their functions in respect of such areas or such classes of persons as the Board may direct, and where such directions have assigned to two or more Commissioners of Expenditure-tax the same area or the same classes of persons, they shall have concurrent jurisdiction subject to such orders, if any, as the Board may make for the distribution and allocation of the work to be performed. Commissioners of Expenditure-tax.

10. The Commissioner of Expenditure-tax may empower as many persons as he thinks fit to exercise under this Act the functions of an Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Expenditure-tax and on being so empowered the Inspecting Assistant Commissioners of Expenditure-tax shall perform their functions in respect of such areas or such classes of persons as the Commissioner of Expenditure-tax may direct, and where such directions have assigned to two or more Inspecting Assistant Commissioners of Expenditure-tax the same area or the same classes of persons they shall perform their functions in accordance with such orders as the Commissioner of Expenditure-tax may make for the distribution and allocation of the work to be performed. Inspecting Assistant Commissioners of Expenditure-tax.

11. The Expenditure-tax Officers shall be subordinate to the Commissioner of Expenditure-tax and the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Expenditure-tax within whose jurisdiction they perform their functions. Expenditure-tax Officers to be subordinate to the Commissioner of Expenditure-tax and the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Expenditure-tax.

Expenditure tax authorities to follow orders, etc. of the Board.

12. All officers and other persons employed in the execution of this Act shall observe and follow the orders, instructions and directions of the Board:

Provided that no orders, instructions, or directions shall be given by the Board so as to interfere with the discretion of the Appellate Assistant Commisioner of Expenditure-tax in the exercise of his appellate functions.

CHAPTER IV

Return of Expenditure.

13. (1) Every person whose expenditure for the previous year was of such an amount as to render him liable to expenditure-tax under this Act shall before the thirtieth day of June of the corresponding assessment year furnish to the Expenditure-tax Officer a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner setting forth his expenditure for the previous year.

(2) If the Expenditure-tax Officer is satisfied that the expenditure of any person for any year is of such an amount as to render him liable to expenditure-tax, then, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), he may serve a notice upon such a person requiring him to furnish within such period, not being less than thirty days, as may be specified in the notice, a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner and setting forth such other particulars as may be required in the notice relating to the expenditure of such person for the previous year mentioned in the notice.

(3) The Expenditure-tax Officer may, if he is satisfied that it is necessary to do so, extend the date for the delivery of the return under this section.

Return after the due date and amendment of return.

14. If any person has not furnished a return within the time allowed under section 13, or having furnished a return under that section discovers any omission or a wrong statement therein, he may furnish a return or a revised return, as the case may be, at any time before the assessment is made.

Assessment

15. (1) If the Expenditure-tax Officer is satisfied without requiring the presence of the assessee or production by him of any evidence that a return made under section 13 or section 14 is correct and complete, he shall assess the taxable expenditure of the assessee and determine the amount payable by him as expenditure-tax.

(2) If the Expenditure-tax Officer is not so satisfied, he shall serve a notice on the assessee, requiring him either to attend in person at his office on a date to be specified in the notice, or to produce or cause to be produced on that date any evidence on which the assessee may rely in support of his return.

(3) The Expenditure-tax Officer, after hearing such evidence as the person may produce and such other evidence as he may require on any specified points, shall, by order in writing, assess the taxable expenditure of the assessee and determine the amount payable by him as expenditure-tax.

(4) For the purpose of making an assessment under this Act, the Expenditure-tax Officer may serve on any person, whether he has made a return or not, a notice requiring him to produce or cause to be produced on a date specified in the notice such accounts, records or other documents as the Expenditure-tax Officer may require.

(5) If any person fails to make a return in response to any notice under sub-section (2) of section 13 or fails to comply with the terms of any notice issued under sub-section (2) or sub-section (4), the Expenditure-tax Officer shall make the assessment to the best of his judgment and determine the amount payable by the person as expenditure-tax on the basis of such assessment.

16. If the Expenditure-tax Officer— Expenditure escaping assessment.

(a) has reason to believe that by reason of the omission or failure on the part of the assessee to make a return of his expenditure under section 13 for any assessment year, or to disclose fully and truly all material facts necessary for his assessment for that year, the expenditure chargeable to tax has escaped assessment for that year, whether by reason of under-assessment or assessment at too low a rate or otherwise; or

(b) has in consequence of any information in his possession reason to believe, notwithstanding that there has been no such omission or failure as is referred to in clause (a), that the expenditure chargeable to tax has escaped assessment for any assessment year, whether by reason of under-assessment or assessment at too low a rate or otherwise; he may, in cases falling under clause (a) at any time, and in cases falling under clause (b) at any time within six years of the end of that assessment year, serve on the assessee a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under sub-section (2) of section 13, and may proceed to assess or reassess such expenditure, and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply as if the notice had issued under that sub-section.

17. (1) If the Expenditure-tax Officer is satisfied that any person— Penalty for concealment.

(a) has without reasonable cause failed to furnish the return of his expenditure which he is required to furnish under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 13 or section 16, or has without reasonable cause failed to furnish it within the time allowed and in the manner required; or

(b) has without reasonable cause failed to comply with a notice under sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) of section 15; or

(c) has concealed the particulars of any expenditure or deliberately furnished inaccurate particulars thereof, he may, by order in writing, direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty—

(i) in the case referred to in clause (a), in addition to the amount of expenditure-tax payable by him a sum not exceeding one-and-a-half times the amount of such tax, and

(ii) in the case referred to in clause (b) or clause (c), in addition to the amount of expenditure-tax payable by him a sum not exceeding one-and-a-half times the amount of the tax, if any, which would have been avoided if the expenditure returned by such person had been accepted as correct.

(2) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) unless the person concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) No prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted in respect of the same facts in relation to which a penalty has been imposed under this section.

(4) The Expenditure-tax Officer shall not impose any penalty under this section without the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Expenditure-tax.

CHAPTER V

LIABILITY TO ASSESSMENT IN SPECIAL CASES

Tax of deceased persons payable by legal representative.

18. (1) Where a person dies, his executor, administrator or other legal representative shall be liable to pay out of the estate of the deceased person to the extent to which the estate is capable of meeting the charge, the expenditure-tax assessed as payable by such person, or any tax which would have been payable by him under this Act if he had not died.

(2) Where a person dies without having furnished a return under the provisions of section 13 or after having furnished a return which the Expenditure-tax Officer has reason to believe to be incorrect or incomplete, the Expenditure-tax Officer may make an assessment of the expenditure of such person and determine the expenditure-tax payable by the person on the basis of such assessment, and for this purpose may, by the issue of the appropriate notice which would have had to be served upon the deceased person if he had survived, require from the executor, administrator or other legal representative of the deceased person any accounts, documents or other evidence which might under the provisions of section 15 have been required from the deceased person.

(3) The provisions of section 14 shall apply to an executor, administrator or other legal representative as they apply to any person referred to in that section.

Assessment after partition of a Hindu undivided family.

19. (1) Where, at the time of making an assessment, it is brought to the notice of the Expenditure-tax Officer that a partition has taken place among the members of a Hindu undivided family, and the Expenditure-tax Officer, after inquiry, is satisfied that such partition has taken place, he shall make assessments on the expenditure of the undivided family as such for the assessment year or years including the year relevant to the previous year in which the partition has taken place, and each member or group of members shall be liable jointly and severally for the tax assessed on the expenditure of the joint family as such.

(2) Where the Expenditure-tax Officer is not so satisfied, he may, by order, declare that such family shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to continue to be a Hindu undivided family liable to be assessed as such.

CHAPTER VI

APPEALS, REVISIONS AND REFERENCES

20. (1) Any person,— Appeal to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner from orders of Expenditure-tax Officers.

(a) objecting to the amount of his taxable expenditure determined under this Act; or

(b) objecting to the amount of expenditure-tax determined as payable by him under this Act; or

(c) denying his liability to be assessed under this Act; or

(d) objecting to any penalty imposed by the Expenditure-tax Officer under section 17; or may appeal to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner against the assessment or order, as the case may be, in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner.

(e) objecting to any order of the Expenditure-tax Officer under sub-section (2) of section 19;

(2) An appeal shall be presented within thirty days of the receipt of the notice of demand relating to the assessment or penalty objected to, or the date on which any order objected to is communicated to him, but the Appellate Assistant Commissioner may admit an appeal after the expiration of the period aforesaid if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within that period.

(3) The Appellate Assistant Commissioner shall fix a day and place for the hearing of the appeal and may from time to time adjourn the hearing.

(4) The Appellate Assistant Commissioner may, before disposing of any appeal, make such further inquiry as he thinks fit or cause further inquiry to be made by the Expenditure-tax Officer.

(5) Any order passed by the Appellate Assistant Commissioner on appeal may include an order enhancing the assessment or penalty:

Provided that no order enhancing an assessment or penalty shall be made unless the person affected thereby has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement.

(6) A copy of every order passed by the Appellate Assistant Commissioner under this section shall be forwarded to the appellant and the Commissioner.

Appeal to the Appellate Tribunal from orders of the Appellate Assistant Commissioners.

21. (1) Any assessee objecting to an order passed by an Appellate Assistant Commissioner under section 20 may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days of the date on which he is served with notice of such order.

(2) The Commissioner may, if he is not satisfied as to the correctness of any order passed by an Appellate Assistant Commissioner under section 20, direct the Expenditure-tax Officer to appeal to the Appellate Tribunal against such order, and such appeal may be made at any time before the expiry of sixty days of the date on which the order is communicated to the Commissioner.

(3) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal shall be in the prescribed form, and shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall, except in the case of an appeal referred to in sub-section (2), be accompanied by a fee of one hundred rupees.

(4) The Appellate Tribunal may, after giving both parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit, and any such orders may include an order enhancing the assessment or penalty:

Provided that no order enhancing an assessment or penalty shall be made unless the person affected thereby has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement.

(5) A copy of every order passed by the Appellate Tribunal under this section shall be forwarded to the assessee and the Commissioner.

(6) Save as provided in section 24 any order passed by the Appellate Tribunal on appeal shall be final.

(7) The provisions of sub-sections (5), (7), and (8), of section 5A of the Income-tax Act shall apply to the Appellate Tribunal in the discharge of its functions under this Act as they apply to it in the discharge of its functions under the Income-tax Act.

Power of Commissioner to revise orders of Expenditure-tax Officers in the interests of revenue.

22. (1) The Commissioner may call for and examine the record of any proceeding under this Act and, if he considers that any order passed therein by an Expenditure-tax Officer is erroneous in so far as it is prejudicial to the interests of revenue, he may, after giving the assessee an opportunity of being heard and after making or causing to be made such inquiry as he deems necessary, pass such orders thereon as the circumstances of the case justify, including an order enhancing or modifying the assessment or cancelling it and directing a fresh assessment.

(2) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) after the expiry of two years from the date of the order sought to be revised.

Appeal to the Appellate Tribunal from orders of enhancement by Commissioner.

23. (1) Any assessee objecting to an order of enhancement made by the Commissioner under section 22 may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days of the date on which the order is communicated to him.

(2) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by a fee of rupees one hundred.

(3) The Tribunal may, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, pass such order thereon as it thinks fit, and shall communicate any such order to the assessee and to the Commissioner.

Reference to High Court.

24. (1) Within ninety days of the date upon which he is served with an order under section 21 or section 23, the assessee or the Commissioner may present an application in the prescribed form accompanied, where application is made by the assessee, by a fee of one hundred rupees to the Appellate Tribunal requiring the Appellate Tribunal to refer to the High Court any question of law arising out of such order, and the Appellate Tribunal shall, if in its opinion a question of law arises out of such order, state the case for the opinion of the High Court.

(2) An application under sub-section (1) may be admitted after the expiry of the period of ninety days aforesaid if the Tribunal is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within the said period.

(3) If on an application made under sub-section (1) the Appellate Tribunal—

(a) refuses to state a case on the ground that no question of law arises: or

(b) rejects it on the ground that it is time barred;

the applicant may, within three months from the date on which he is served with a notice of refusal or rejection, as the case may be, apply to the High Court, and the High Court may, if it is not satisfied with the correctness of the decision of the Appellate Tribunal, require the Appellate Tribunal to state the case to the High Court, and on receipt of such requisition the Appellate Tribunal shall state the case:

Provided that if in any case where the Appellate Tribunal has been required by an assessee to state a case the Appellate Tribunal refuses to do so on the ground that no question of law arises, the assessee may, within thirty days from the date on which he receives notice of refusal to state the case, withdraw his application, and if he does so, the fee paid by him under sub-section (1) shall be refunded to him.

(4) The statement to the High Court shall set forth the facts, the determination of the Appellate Tribunal and the question of law which arises out of the case.

(5) If the High Court is not satisfied that the case as stated is sufficient to enable it to determine the question of law raised thereby, it may require the Appellate Tribunal to make such modifications therein as it may direct.

(6) The High Court, upon hearing any such case, shall decide the question of law raised therein, and in doing so may, if it thinks fit, alter the form of the question of law and shall deliver judgment thereon containing the ground on which such decision is founded and shall send a copy of the judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Appellate Tribunal and the Appellate Tribunal shall pass such orders as are necessary to dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

(7) The costs of any reference to the High Court shall be in the discretion of the Court.

(8) Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, shall apply to an application to the High Court under this section. 9 of 1908.

Hearing by High Court.

25. Where a case has been stated to the High Court under section 24, it shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two Judges of the High Court and shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of such Judges or of the majority of such Judges:

Provided that where there is no such majority, the Judges shall state the point of law upon which they differ and the case shall then be heard upon that point only by one or more of the Judges of the High Court, and such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges who have heard the case, including those who first heard it.

Appeal to the Supreme Court.

26. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from any judgment of the High Court delivered on a case stated under section 24 in any case which the High Court certifies as a fit case for appeal to the Supreme Court.

(2) Where the judgment of the High Court is varied or reversed on appeal under this section, effect shall be given to the order of the Supreme Court in the manner provided in sub-section (6) of section 24.

(3) The High Court may, on application made to it for the execution of any order of the Supreme Court in respect of any costs awarded by it, transmit the order for execution to any court subordinate to the High Court.

CHAPTER VII

PAYMENT AND RECOVERY OF EXPENDITURE-TAX

Notice of demand.

27. When any tax or penalty is due in consequence of any order passed under this Act, the Expenditure-tax Officer shall serve upon the assessee or other person liable to pay such tax or penalty a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum so payable and the time within which it shall be paid.

28. (1) Any amount specified as payable in a notice of demand issued under section 27 shall be paid within the time, at the place, and to the person mentioned in the notice, or if no time is so mentioned, then on or before the first day of the second month following the day of service of the notice and any assessee failing so to pay shall be deemed to be in default. Recovery of tax and penalties.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section where an assessee has presented an appeal under section 20 the Expenditure-tax Officer may in his discretion treat the assessee as not being in default as long as such appeal is undisposed of.

29. The provisions of sub-sections (1), (1A), (2), (3), (4), (5), (5A), (6) and (7) of section 46 of the Income-tax Act shall apply as if the said provisions were provisions of this Act and referred to expenditure-tax instead of to income-tax and to Expenditure-tax Officer and Commissioner of Expenditure-tax instead of to Income-tax Officer and Commissioner of Income-tax. Mode of recovery.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

30. At any time within four years from the date of any order passed by him, or it, the Commissioner, the Expenditure-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or the Appellate Tribunal may, on his, or its, own motion rectify any mistake apparent from the record and shall, within a like period, rectify any such mistake which has been brought to the notice of the Commissioner, the Expenditure-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or the Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be, by an assessee: Rectification of mistakes.

Provided that no such rectification shall be made which has the effect of enhancing an assessment unless the assessee has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.

31. (1) If a person fails without reasonable cause— Prosecutions.

(a) to furnish in due time any return mentioned in section 13,

(b) to produce, or cause to be produced on or before the date mentioned in any notice under sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) of section 15 such accounts, records and documents as are referred to in the notice;

he shall, on conviction before a magistrate be punishable with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the default continues.

(2) If a person makes a statement in a verification mentioned in section 13, section 20, section 21, or section 23, which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false, or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

(3) A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under this section except at the instance of the Commissioner.

(4) The Commissioner may either before or after the institution of proceedings compound any such offence.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section 'magistrate' means a presidency magistrate, a magistrate of the first class, or a magistrate of the second class specially empowered by the Central Government to try offences under this Act.

Power to take evidence on oath, etc.

32. The Commissioner, the Expenditure-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner and the Appellate Tribunal shall, for the purposes of this Act, have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, when trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:— 5 of 1908.

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;

(c) receiving evidence on affidavit;

(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses;

and any proceeding before the Commissioner, the Expenditure-tax Officer, the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or the Appellate Tribunal shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860.

Information returns and statements.

33. Where for the purposes of determining the Expenditure-tax payable by any person, it appears necessary for the Expenditure-tax Officer to obtain any statement or information from any individual, Hindu undivided family, company or any other person, the Expenditure-tax Officer may serve a notice requiring such individual, Hindu undivided family, company or other person on or before a date to be therein specified, to furnish such statement or information on the points specified in the notice, and the individual, the manager of the Hindu undivided family, the principal officer of the company or other person, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything in any law to the contrary, be bound to furnish such statement or information to the Expenditure-tax Officer.

Effect of transfer of authorities on pending proceedings.

34. Whenever in respect of any proceeding under this Act any Expenditure-tax authority ceases to exercise jurisdiction and is succeeded by another who has and exercises such jurisdiction, the authority so succeeding may continue the proceeding from the stage at which the proceeding was left by his predecessor.

Computation of periods of limitation.

35. In computing the period of limitation prescribed for an appeal under this Act or for an application under section 24, the day on which the order complained of was made and the time requisite for obtaining a copy of such order shall be excluded.

36. (1) A notice or a requisition under this Act may be served on the person therein named either by post or as if it were a summons issued by a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Service of notice. 5 of 1908.

(2) Any such notice or requisition may, in the case of a Hindu undivided family be addressed to the manager or any adult male member of the family.

37. (1) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (2), the provisions of section 54 of the Income-tax Act shall apply to all accounts or in relation to statements, documents, evidence or affidavits given, produced, or obtain in connection with or in the course of any proceeding under this Act, as they apply to or in relation to similar particulars under that Act, subject to the modification that the reference to 'any Income-tax authority' in clause (d) of sub-section (2) and to the Commissioner in sub-section (5) of section 54 of that Act shall be construed as a reference to any Expenditure-tax authority and to the Commissioner of Expenditure-tax respectively. Prohibition of disclosure of information.

(2) Nothing contained in section 54 of the Income-tax Act shall apply to the disclosure of any such particulars as are referred to in sub-section (1) to any person acting in the execution of this Act or the Income-tax Act or the Estate Duty Act, 1953, or the Wealth Tax Act, 1957, where it is necessary or desirable to disclose the same to him for the purpose of this Act or any of the other Acts aforesaid. 34 of 1953.

38. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, no suit shall lie in any civil court to set aside or modify any assessment made under this Act, and no prosecution, suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any officer of the Government for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act. Bar of jurisdiction.

39. Any assessee who is entitled to or required to attend before any Expenditure-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal in connection with any proceeding or inquiry under this Act, except where he is required under this Act to attend in person, may attend by a person authorised by him in writing in this behalf, being a relative of, or a person regularly employed by, the assessee, or a legal practitioner or a chartered accountant. Appearance before Expenditure-tax authorities by authorised representatives.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) the expression 'a person regularly employed by the assessee' includes any officer of a Scheduled Bank with which the assessee maintains a curreut account or has other regular dealings;

(b) 'Chartered Accountant' means a Chartered Accountant as defined in the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949. 37 of 1949.

40. (1) The Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for—

(a) the form in which returns under this Act shall be made, and the manner in which they shall be verified;

(b) the form in which appeals and applications under this Act may be made, and the manner in which they shall be verified;

(c) the form of any notice of demand under this Act;

(d) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed for the purposes of this Act.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be laid before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

THE SCHEDULE.

(See section 3)

RATES OF EXPENDITURE-TAX

In the case of every individual and Hindu undivided family, on that portion of the taxable expenditure—

	Per cent.
(i) which does not exceed Rs. 10,000	10
(ii) which exceeds Rs. 10,000, but does not exceed Rs. 20,000	20
(iii) which exceeds Rs. 20,000 but does not exceed Rs. 30,000	40

(v) which exceeds Rs. 40,000 but does not exceed Rs. 50,000	80
(vi) which exceeds Rs. 50,000	100

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to impose an annual tax on personal expenditure, above a prescribed level, of individuals and Hindu undivided families. Such a tax in addition to being a deterrent to excessive personal expenditure and an incentive for savings also forms a significant part of an integrated tax structure.

T. T. KRISHNAMACHARI.

NEW DELHI;
The 15*th May*, 1957.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

This Bill proposes a levy of tax with effect from 1st April, 1958, on expenditure of individuals and Hindu undivided families. Though this is a new tax, the procedure for assessment and collection of this tax is very much allied to that of taxes on income. It is accordingly proposed that for the time being the tax be administered by the Income-tax Department and that no separate administrative machinery need be set up.

The existing pressure of work on the Income-tax Department, is however, already quite heavy. This pressure is likely to increase further on account of the proposed lowering of the minimum taxable limits. It will, therefore, be necessary to expand adequately the staff at various levels of the departmental cadres.

The increase of personnel, along with incidental expenses of administration is estimated to cost Rs. 8 lakhs per annum ultimately. Actual recruitment of staff will, however, be made as and when it is found really necessary.

I. VOLUME OF WORK

Estimated number of assessments :

(a) Individuals	4,500
(b) Hindu undivided families	1,500

II. REQUIREMENTS OF PERSONNEL AND FINANCE

1.	No. of Inspecting Asst. Commissioners and Appellate Asst. Commissioners (1+2) ..	3	3 × 1,200 × 12 = Rs.	43,200
2.	No. of Income-tax Officers taking the average disposal per I. T. O. per annum at 300 ..	20	20 × 500 × 12 = Rs.	1,20,000

Staff.

3.	No. of Inspectors	10	10 × 250 × 12 = Rs.	30,000
4.	No. of Supervisors	4	4 × 350 × 12 = Rs.	16,800
5.	No. of Head Clerks	10	10 × 250 × 12 = Rs.	30,000
6.	No. of Upper Division Clerks	50	50 × 150 × 12 = Rs.	90,000
7.	No. of Lower Division Clerks	30	30 × 120 × 12 = Rs.	43,200
8.	No. of Stenographers	3	3 × 150 × 12 = Rs.	5,400
9.	No of Stenotypists	20	20 × 140 × 12 = Rs.	33,600

			say, Rs.	5 lakhs
	Incidental expenses including Class IV staff and contingencies, etc.		Rs.	3 lakhs
			Total .. Rs.	8 lakhs

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 40 of the Bill authorises the Central Board of Revenue to make rules with respect to matters like the form in which the returns may be made under the Act, the form in which the appeals should be filed or notices of demand issued. The rule making power is thus of a normal character.

LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 15th May, 1957:—

BILL* No. 16 OF 1957

A Bill to provide for the levy of a tax on railway fares.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Railway Passenger Fares Act, 1957. Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Definitions.

(a) 'fare' means the total amount of all charges of whatever nature payable by a passenger or group of passengers, and includes—

(i) haulage charges for supply of carriages of particular types;

(ii) empty haulage charges on tourist cars and saloons;

(iii) charges for pilot engines; and

(iv) charges for dining cars attached to special trains;

but does not include—

(i) the tax payable under this Act;

(ii) terminal taxes, pilgrim taxes and tolls on bridges;

(iii) reservation charges; and

(iv) hire, detention and stabling charges in respect of passenger traffic booked in reserved carriages and special trains;

(b) 'passenger' means any person travelling on a railway in any description or class of train or carriage on payment of his fare, whether at full rates or at concessional rates;

(c) 'railway' and 'railway administration' have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Indian Railways Act, 1890. 9 of 1890.

*The President has, in pursuance of clause (I) of article 117 and clause (I) of article 274 of the Constitution of India, recommended to Lok Sabha, the introduction of the Bill.

Levy of tax on passenger fares.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall be levied and collected on fares paid by passengers carried by any railway in India, whether by itself or in conjunction with any other mode of transport or in conjunction with railways in any adjacent country, a tax at the rate specified in that behalf in the Schedule.

(2) The tax levied under sub-section (1) shall be collected by the railway administration as an addition to the fares, and the railway administration shall have all the powers and remedies for the recovery thereof as though the same were a rate or fare which the railway administration is empowered to levy under the Indian Railways Act, 1890. 9 of 1890.

Rules for computing tax on passenger fares.

4. In computing the tax payable under this Act, the following rules shall apply, namely:—

Rule 1.—The tax leviable shall, wherever necessary, be rounded off to the nearest naya paisa, fractions of half-a-naya paisa and over being counted as one, and less than half being disregarded.

Rule 2.—In the case of return tickets, the rate of tax shall be based on the distance for a single journey.

Rule 3.—In the case of tickets issued from or to out-agencies or city booking offices, the tax shall be leviable only in respect of the fare attributable to the actual journey by railway.

Rule 4.—The amount of the tax for any distance shall, wherever necessary, be so adjusted that the aggregate amount of the fare and tax for such distance is not less than the aggregate amount of the fare and tax for any lesser distance in any case.

Power to exempt.

5. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and for reasons to be specified therein, exempt, either in whole or in part and either absolutely or subject to such conditions as it may specify, any passengers or class of passengers from the tax leviable under this Act.

Power to make rules.

6. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules so made may,—

(a) regulate the collection by or on behalf of the railway administration of the tax levied under this Act, and provide for the authority to which, and the time and manner in which, the tax shall be paid;

(b) prescribe the form of the returns to be submitted by any authority collecting the tax and the particulars to be contained therein and the manner in which it is to be verified.

(3) In making any rules under this section, the Central Government may direct that a breach thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for each such breach.

THE SCHEDULE

(See section 3)

1 Description of traffic	2 Rate of tax.
1. Passengers travelling by railway for distances up to 30 miles inclusive	5% of fare.
2. Passengers travelling by railway for distances from 31 miles to 500 miles (inclusive) ..	15% of fare.
3. Passengers travelling by railway for distances over 500 miles	10% of fare.
4. Passengers travelling on mileage coupons	12% of the cost of the coupons.
5. Passengers travelling on season tickets	Nil.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to impose a tax on fares payable by passengers travelling by railway. Under article 269(1) of the Constitution, the proceeds of the tax less the portion attributable to Union territories shall be assigned to the States concerned. The principles of such distribution will have to be formulated by Parliament by law.

NEW DELHI; T. T. KRISHNAMACHARI.
The 15*th May*, 1957.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

In the case of railways administered by companies, it is necessary to regulate the collection of taxes under this law by means of rules made by the Central Government. The tax may also have to be collected by other authorities on behalf of the Railways. Clause 6, therefore, authorises the Central Government to make rules providing for the regulation of the collection of taxes, the authority to which the taxes so collected may be paid, the form in which returns should be made and the like.

The rule-making power is of a normal character.

LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 17th May, 1957:—

BILL NO. 10 OF 1957

A Bill further to amend the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Act, 1957.

(2) Section 2 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 10th day of March, 1957, and section 3 on the 1st day of December, 1956.

Amendment of section 2.

2. In section 2 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), for clause (r), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:— 14 of 1947.

"(r) 'Tribunal' means an Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7A and includes an Industrial Tribunal constituted before the 10th day of March, 1957, under this Act;".

Substitution of new sections for section 25FF.

3. For section 25FF of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

Compensation to workmen in case of transfer undertakings.

"25FF. Where the ownership or management of an undertaking is transferred, whether by agreement or by operation of law, from the employer in relation to that undertaking to a new employer, every workman who has been in continuous service for not less than one year in that undertaking immediately before such transfer shall be entitled to notice and compensation in accordance with the provisions of section 25F, as if the workman had been retrenched:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a workman in any case where there has been a change of employers by reason of the transfer, if—

(a) the service of the workman has not been interrupted by such transfer;

(b) the terms and conditions of service applicable to the workman after such transfer are not in any way less favourable to the workman than those applicable to him immediately before the transfer; and

(c) the new employer is, under the terms of such transfer or otherwise, legally liable to pay to the workman, in the event of his retrenchment, compensation on the basis that his service has been continuous and has not been interrupted by the transfer.

25FFF. (1) Where an undertaking is closed down for any reason whatsoever, every workman who has been in continuous service for not less than one year in that undertaking immediately before such closure shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), be entitled to notice and compensation in accordance with the provisions of section 25F, as if the workman had been retrenched: Compensation to workmen in case of closing down of undertakings.

Provided that where the undertaking is closed down on account of unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the employer, the compensation to be paid to the workman under clause (b) of section 25F shall not exceed his average pay for three months.

Explanation.—An undertaking which is closed down by reason merely of financial losses or accumulation of undisposed of stocks shall not be deemed to have been closed down on account of unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the employer within the meaning of the proviso to this sub-section.

(2) Where any undertaking set up for the construction of buildings, bridges, roads, canals, dams or other construction works is closed down on account of the completion of the work within two years from the date on which the undertaking had been set up, no workman employed therein shall be entitled to any compensation under clause (b) of section 25F, but if the construction work is not so completed within two years, he shall be entitled to notice and compensation under that section for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months, excluding therefrom the first two years of his service in that undertaking.".

4. The Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Ordinance, 1957 is hereby repealed. Repeal of Ordinance 4 of 1957.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In a judgment delivered on the 27th November, 1956, the Supreme Court held that no retrenchment compensation was payable under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, to workmen whose services were terminated by an employer on a real and bona fide closure of business, or when termination occurred as a result of transfer of ownership from one employer to another. Since then, a number of undertakings have closed down or put up notices of closure for one reason or another. This has led and is likely to lead to a large number of workmen being rendered unemployed without any compensation. In order to meet the situation which was causing hardship to workmen, it was considered necessary to take immediate action and the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Ordinance, 1957 (4 of 1957), was promulgated with retrospective effect from 1st December, 1956.

2. The Ordinance provides that compensation would be payable to workmen whose services are terminated on account of the transfer or closure of undertakings. In the case of transfer of an undertaking, however, if the workman is re-employed on terms and conditions which are not less favourable to him, he will not be entitled to any compensation. This was the position which existed prior to the decision of the Supreme Court. In the case of closure of business on account of circumstances beyond the control of the employer, the maximum compensation payable to workmen has been limited to his average pay for three months. If the undertaking is engaged in any construction work and it is closed down within two years on account of the completion of its work, no compensation would be payable to workmen employed therein.

3. This Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance by an Act of Parliament. Opportunity has been taken to amend the definition of "Tribunal" as inserted by the Industrial Disputes (Amendment and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1956 (36 of 1956). The amendment is merely formal and clarificatory.

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL

DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND LAND REVENUE

Land Acquisition

NOTIFICATION

Hooghly.—No. 15152L.A.—19th August 1957.—The following agreement is published under section 42 of the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894, for general information.

Agreement

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this 19th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven between the HINDUSTAN MOTORS, LTD., a Company registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, having its registered office at 8 Royal Exchange Place, Calcutta, West Bengal (hereinafter called the "Company"), of the one part AND THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF WEST BENGAL (hereinafter called the "Governor") of the other part.

Whereas for the purpose of the extension of workshops and factories for manufacture and fabrication of all types and varieties of sheet metals of all specifications and rolled steel items of all categories and of similar non-ferrous items and other industrial processing operations allied and incidental thereto, in order to meet the growing demand of the Second Five-Year Plan of the Government, and the growing demand of Industries in general, as well as for the construction of extensive quarters for the accommodation of the labour, staff and hospitals and other welfare institutions in furtherance of the scheme of the Second Five-Year Development of the Government, the Company has applied to the Government of West Bengal for the acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, of the piece or parcel of land containing 182.97 acres or thereabout situate in the villages of Barabehara, Khordabehara and Konnagar in the district of Hooghly and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto and delineated in the plan hereunto annexed.

And whereas the said Government of West Bengal being satisfied by an enquiry held under section 40 of the said Act that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purpose and that the said work is likely to prove useful to the public, has consented to acquire on behalf of the Company the piece or parcel of land hereinbefore described.

And whereas the said Government of West Bengal has required the Company under the provisions of section 41 of the abovementioned Act to enter into the Agreement with the Governor hereinafter contained. NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH THAT IT IS HEREBY AGREED AND DECLARED AS FOLLOWS:—

1. On demand the Company shall and will pay to the said Government of West Bengal all and every compensation in respect of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or by Court to which a reference under Part III of the said Act may be made or by the Court or Courts to which an appeal from the award of the said Court may be preferred and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings in the aforesaid Courts, or otherwise incidental to the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the said Act.

2. On demand made by the said Collector the obligation of the Company under the last preceding clause not being thereby limited, the Company shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums of money as in his discretion the said Collector may in anticipation estimate to be necessary for the purposes mentioned in the last preceding clause.

3. On payment by the Company of all demands under the foregoing first clause, or in the discretion of the said Government of West Bengal (on deposit by the Company of all estimated amounts as provided in the second clause), but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the abovementioned Act, the Governor shall make over possession of the said land to the Company and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the Company.

4. The said land shall be held by the Company for the purpose of such works as are hereinbefore mentioned and without the sanction in writing of the said Government of West Bengal first had and obtained for no other purpose whatsoever.

5. The said works shall be completed and fully equipped in all respects ready for use within two years from the date on which possession of the said land shall have been given to the Company.

6. Should the said works not be completed within the period stated in the last preceding clause or within such further period as in its discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government of West Bengal or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of 12 consecutive months, to be held and used or cease to be required for the purpose or purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land together with all buildings thereon, whether such buildings were erected before or after transfer of the land to the Company, and thereupon the interest of the Company in the said land and buildings shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and buildings as it may think proper.

(i) Should the said Government sell the land with the buildings the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the Company.

(ii) Should the said Government decide not to sell the land and buildings, the said Government shall retain the said land and buildings thereon in which case the Governor shall repay to the Company the market value as on the day of re-entry of all the buildings erected by the Company and all sums received from the Company in respect of all and every compensation as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent. and less any amount received on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption) but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

(iii) Should the said Government decide to sell the buildings only upon such sale, the Governor shall, after deducting the expenses of taking possession and selling, pay the balance of the proceeds of sale to the Company, together with the sums received from the Company in respect of the compensation for the land (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent. and less any amount received from the Company on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption) but will not repay any sum paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

8. The public shall be entitled to get the benefit from the hospitals and other welfare institutions as mentioned in the second paragraph of the Agreement.

9. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject-matter of this Agreement or any covenant clause or thing herein contained the same shall be referred to the said Government of West Bengal and the opinion and decision of the said Government upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties hereto.

ELECTION TRIBUNAL AT BURDWAN

Dated Burdwan, the 12th August 1957.

PRESENT:

SHRI SITAL PROSAD CHATTERJI, M.A., LL.B.,

District Judge, Election Tribunal, Burdwan.

NOTIFICATION

Re: Election Petition No. 344 of 1957 (in connection with election of Kotalpur Legislative Assembly Constituency, district Bankura, West Bengal).

Shri Mohini Mohan Roy—Petitioner,

versus

Shri Jagannath Kolay—Respondent.

Whereas upon an application for withdrawal (copy whereof along with a notice fixing 8th August 1957 for hearing of the said application was published in Part I of the Extraordinary issue of the Calcutta Gazette, dated 26th July 1957) being made by the petitioner abovenamed before this Tribunal; and

Whereas on hearing the parties to the Election Petition and their respective lawyers regarding the said petition for withdrawal on 8th August 1957, the date notified for the purpose, the Election Tribunal at Burdwan has been pleased to accord leave to proceed with the application for withdrawal of the Election Petition under section 109, sub-section (1) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and further to grant the said application for withdrawal under section 110 of the Act.

Now, therefore, the Election Tribunal at Burdwan in exercise of powers conferred by clause (b) to sub-section (3) of section 110 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, hereby causes a Notice of the withdrawal along with a copy of the order passed by the Tribunal on 12th August 1957, to be published in the Official Gazette, viz., the Calcutta Gazette, to enable any person who might himself have been a petitioner, to apply, within 14 days of such publication, for being substituted as a petitioner in place of the party withdrawing (in the instant case Shri Mohini Mohan Roy, the petitioner), and upon compliance with conditions of section 117 as to security for costs of such application, the applicant whereof shall be entitled to be substituted and to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the Tribunal may think fit under the provisions of clause (c) to sub-section (3) of section 110 of the Act.

SITAL PROSAD CHATTERJI,
District Judge.

DISTRICT BURDWAN

COURT OF THE DISTRICT JUDGE, ELECTION TRIBUNAL, BURDWAN (WEST BENGAL)

PRESENT:

SHRI SITAL PROSAD CHATTERJI, M.A., LL.B.

Election Petition No. 344 of 1957 (Kotalpur Legislative Assembly Constituency, district Bankura, West Bengal).

Shri Mohini Mohan Roy, Petitioner,

Shri Jagannath Kolay, Respondent.

12th August 1957.—This is an application under section 109 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, dated 16th July 1957; by Shri Mohini Mohan Roy for leave of this Tribunal to withdraw his Election Petition. This application for withdrawal was duly published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 26th July 1957, as required under sub-section (2) of section 109 of the Act giving notice thereof to all concerned fixing 8th August 1957 for hearing. The petition for withdrawal was thereafter put up for hearing in presence of the parties on 8th August 1957. Shri Mohini Mohan Roy deposed on oath that he now prefers to withdraw his Election Petition though he does not withdraw the allegations made in the said Election Petition, viz., that his Nomination Papers were duly signed by his proposers and that the Returning Officer illegally and behind his back rejected his Nomination Papers relying upon the ex parte and untrue statements of the respondent Shri Jagannath Kolay. The petitioner Shri Mohini Mohan Roy does not assign any cogent ground for his prayer for withdrawal of the Election Petition except his verbal submission that he wants to avoid further bitterness of feelings over this election. Shri Mohini Mohan Roy has taken his oath to deny that he has received any consideration for this step for withdrawal of his Election Petition and has also denied of any bargaining with the respondent in respect of this withdrawal.

The respondent Shri Jagannath Kolay was present in Court but did not take his oath to assert that the Nomination Papers of the petitioner Shri Mohini Mohan Roy were not signed by his proposers. Of course, 8th August 1957 was not fixed for hearing the Election Petition on merits and Sj. Kolay appears to have taken his oath before the Returning Officer asserting that the Nomination Papers of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy were not signed by his proposers.

The Nomination Papers of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy have not been produced before this Tribunal and it is now too early to express any opinion about the genuineness of the signatures of the proposers on the same. The best person to prove the genuineness of the said signatures of the proposers on the Nomination Papers are the signatories themselves none of whom, however, has been examined before me or before the Returning Officer. The Returning Officer had no other option but to act upon the ex parte evidence of the respondent Shri Jagannath Kolay who took his oath before him stating that the Nomination Papers of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy were not signed by the proposers named therein. Apparently Shri Kolay's evidence was an opinion about the genuineness of the said signatures unless he had himself satisfied by asking the signatories as to whether they had signed or not. It appears that one of the signatories who figured as a proposer in the Nomination Papers of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy was a son of the petitioner.

Having perused the Election Petition, it does not appear that there is any allegation of corrupt practice or any other allegation of similar nature and no material has yet been brought to the notice of this Tribunal for refusing leave to withdraw this petition at this stage. The respondent does not also oppose the prayer for withdrawal.

The main allegation in the Election Petition is rather against the Returning Officer for acting hastily and on insufficient data, viz., an opinion of the respondent, without calling upon the proposers to deny their signatures on the Nomination Papers of the petitioner or calling upon the petitioner to show cause. In such perspective, in my opinion, the Election Commissioner is a necessary party to vindicate the bona fide and justification of the order of rejection of the Nomination Papers passed by the Returning Officer (a subordinate of the Election Commissioner). The act, however, does not provide for impleading the Election Commissioner. The Act also is silent as to how the Tribunal can proceed if the parties refuse to participate in the proceedings or if the petitioner refuses to proceed any further. The provision of old section 89 for asking the Advocate-General to participate in the proceedings has been repealed by the Act 27 of 1956 amending the Representation of the People Act, 1951.

Sub-section (2) of section 110 provides the grounds for refusal of an application for withdrawal where such application appears to the Tribunal to have been induced by any bargain or consideration which ought not to be allowed. Similar considerations have to be made when refusing leave to withdraw under section 109, sub-section (1). At this preliminary stage when considering whether leave should be granted and whether the application for withdrawal should be granted or refused and in the absence of any material to suggest any bargaining or consideration which ought not to be allowed, and after giving my very careful consideration on the implication of such withdrawal, I see no reason to refuse the leave to proceed with this petition for withdrawal, or to refuse this application for withdrawal of the Election Petition.

Before I leave this matter I must observe that the learned Lawyer for the respondent Shri Jagannath Kolay advanced an argument that the Election Petition of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy itself was defective and ought to have been rejected by the Election Commissioner as provisions of section 82 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, were not complied with. His contention, in short, was that all the candidates who filed their Nomination Papers, or at least those candidates who actually contested the election from the said constituency ought to have been joined as respondents to this petition. He has drawn my attention to section 82 section 85 and to section 90, sub-section (3) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951. Shri Mohini Mohan Roy was cross-examined to admit that there were other contesting candidates besides the respondent Sj. Kolay. The Election Petition did not admittedly implead the other contesting candidates.

I must at once say that there is no substance in this contention of the learned lawyer for the respondent. The Election Petition of Shri Mohini Mohan Roy does not claim any further declaration than the election of the returned candidate Shri Jagannath Kolay is void. It is only where there is an additional prayer for declaration claiming the petitioner (in the instant case Shri Mohini Mohan Roy) as having been duly elected after declaring the election of the returned candidate as void that all the contesting candidates ought to be joined, but "where no such further declaration is claimed" only the returned candidates have to be joined in the election petition. Admittedly in the instant case only Shri Jagannath Kolay is the returned candidate. Hence there can be no question of rejecting the Election Petition in limine, under section 90, sub-section (3) for non-compliance with the provisions of section 82 of the Act. Hence,

ORDERED

Let leave to proceed with the petition for withdrawal of the Election Petition be granted under section 109, sub-section (1). The petitioner Shri Mohini Mohan Roy is further permitted to withdraw his Election Petition, under section 110 subject to the payment of costs to the respondent —10 gold mohurs including pleader's fee. Notice of the withdrawal be forthwith published in the Official Gazette, under section 110(3)(b). Any person who might have been a petitioner may, within 14 days of such publication, apply to be substituted as petitioner in place of the party withdrawing and upon compliance with the conditions of section 117 as to security for costs shall be entitled to be substituted and to continue with the proceedings upon such terms as the Tribunal may think fit under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 110. Put up on 13th September 1957, after publication of the notice under section 110, sub-section (3), clause (b) for fixing a date for final orders.

Let a copy of this order be forwarded to the Chief Election Commissioner, India, New Delhi, for information.

C. Banerji, District Judge (Retired), as Chairman and Shri S. C. Mukherjee, District Judge, as member;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal a complaint in writing was filed by Shri Baidhar Muduli, a workman of Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills, Chengail, P.O. Chakasi, Howrah, before the said Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such disputes;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Baidhar Muduli, a workman of Premchand Jute Mills, in connection with Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order Nos. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/-7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./-D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referring certain industrial disputes between 101 Jute Mills in West Bengal, including Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills and their workmen. (Case No. 367/55, under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Chairman, Jute Textile Industry Tribunal.

For the complainant: None.

For the employers: Miss P. Mitra of the I.J.M.A.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order Nos. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between 101 specified Jute Mills and their workmen regarding some matters specified in a schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication. The award of this Tribunal in respect of this proceeding was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 6th October 1955.

Baidhar Muduli, T. No. 78, a workman of Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills in the Hessian Weaving Department, made an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act on 19th October 1955, complaining against his dismissal on various grounds. He prays that he may be reinstated with full wages and allowances for the period of forced unemployment Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills opposed the claims on various grounds.

This case was heard ex parte on 31st July 1957. The petitioner has been given chance to put in appearance for over a year, from which I arrive at the conclusion that he is not serious over his alleged grievances. The representative of the employers, I may mention here, was present on almost all the dates fixed. The employer's representative also filed Exts. A and B, being certified copies of the application under section 33 filed by the Company and the Tribunal's order thereon striking off the application for want of jurisdiction. The present case is dismissed for default of the applicant. It is also not maintainable in law (vide 1955 L.A.C. 221), and it is awarded accordingly.

M. C. BANERJI,
Chairman, Jute Textile Industry Tribunal.

The 2nd August 1957.

By order of the Governor,
N. R. SIRCAR,
Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

ORDER

No. 3031I.R./IR/7L-13/57 Pt.—10th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3393Dis./-D/3A-10/54, dated the 12th July 1954, read with its addendum No. 3537-Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated the 21st July 1954 and its corrigendum No. 4130-Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated the 26th August 1954, the industrial disputes in the Jute Textile Industry in West Bengal between the Jute Mills mentioned in the list attached with the said order, dated the 12th July 1954, read with the said addendum, dated the 21st July 1954 and corrigendum, dated the 26th August 1954 and their workmen represented by the Unions and Federations mentioned in the said order, dated the 12th July 1954, were referred for adjudication to an Industrial Tribunal with Shri M. C. Banerji, District Judge (Retired), as Chairman and Shri S. C. Mukherjee, District Judge, as member;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal a complaint in writing was filed by Shri Ram Chandra, a workman of Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills, Chengail, P.O. Chakasi, Howrah, before the said Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such disputes;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Ramchandra, a workman of Premchand Jute Mills, in connection with Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order Nos. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/-7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./-D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referring certain industrial disputes between 101 Jute Mills in West Bengal, including Messrs. Premchand Jute Mills and their workmen. (Case No. 309/55, under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Chairman, Jute Textile Industry Tribunal.

For the complainant: None.

For the employers: Miss P. Mitra of the I.J.M.A.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order Nos. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(a)/53, 2329Dis./D/7L-47/54, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54 and 4130Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 7th April 1954, 6th May 1954, 12th July 1954, 21st July 1954 and 26th August 1954, respectively, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between 101 specified Jute Mills and their workmen regarding some matters specified in a schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication. The award of this Tribunal in respect of this proceeding was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 6th October 1955.

Ram Chandra, T. No. 638, a workman in the Weaving Department of the Premchand Jute Mills, applied on 19th October 1955 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, complaining against his dismissal on various grounds. It is prayed that he may be reinstated with other consequential reliefs. The Company opposed the claims on various grounds.

The case was fixed for hearing on 31st July 1957, on which date, none appeared for the applicant. Sm. P. Mitra, Labour Officer of the I.J.M.A., was, however, present for the Premchand Jute Mills. The Labour Officer at the hearing filed two documents, being Exts. A and B, which are employer's application under section 33 for permission to dismiss the employee and the Tribunal's orders thereon striking off the application. The workman did not care to appear before the Tribunal during the period from 21st July 1956 to 31st July 1957. In the circumstances, I have not the least doubt that the applicant does not intend to pursue the matter. The case is, therefore, dismissed for default. It is not maintainable in law either (vide 1955 L.A.C., 221), and it is awarded accordingly.

M. C. BANERJI,
Chairman, Jute Textile Industry Tribunal.

The 2nd August 1957.

By order of the Governor,
N. R. SIRCAR,
Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of West Bengal.

ORDER

No. 3196-I.R./KW.D/6P-60/55.—20th August 1957.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2803Dis./D/6P-60/55, dated the 26th June 1956, the industrial dispute between Messrs. J. & R. Hutchison Limited (Manufacturing Chemists), 10 Clive Row, Calcutta (Factory at 90 Dum Dum Road), and their three workmen, Shri K. P. Bhaduri, Shri Anath Nath Paul and Shri Algoo, represented by J. & R. Hutchison Workers' Union, 26/8 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-2, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Sixth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of as industrial dispute existing between Messrs. J. and R. Hutchison Limited (Manufacturing Chemists), 10 Clive Row, Calcutta, Factory at 90 Dum Dum Road), and their three workmen, Shri K. P. Bhaduri, Shri Anath Nath Paul and Shri Algoo, represented by J. and R. Hutchison Workers' Union, 26/8 Dum Dum Road, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-188 of 1966.)

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI SAILESH SENGUPTA, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

For the Union: Shri Panchanan Bhattacherjee.

During the pendency of a reference made to the Sixth Industrial Tribunal, by Government order No. 2342Dis./D/11L-183/52, dated the 25th August 1952, services of Sarbashree K. P. Bhaduri, Anath Nath Paul and Shri Algoo were terminated by Messrs. J. & R. Hutchison Ltd. The discharged employees moved the Tribunal by an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act. By his award published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 11th June 1953, Shri S. K. Niyogi held that the discharge of the these workers was unjustified. Reinstatement with back pay and dearness allowance up to the date of reinstatement with effect from the date of respective discharges was ordered. An appeal preferred by the Company concerning these three employees was dismissed by the Appellate Tribunal on the 6th of June 1954 (Appeal No. Cal. 92 of 1953). The directions given by the State Tribunal were upheld. The Company did not implement the award. The workers were not reinstated and the wages due were not paid. Thereafter the workers placed the matter before the Government. After some time the present reference was made by Government Order No. 2803Dis./D/6P-60/55, dated the 26th June 1956.

The point submitted for decision by the Tribunal is:—

> "To what monetary benefits are Shri K. P. Bhaduri, Shri Anath Nath Paul and Shri Algoo entilted under the award of the Sixth Industrial Tribunal published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 11th June 1953, under order No. 1951Dis./D/11L-178/53, dated the 26th May 1953, and subsequently confirmed by the Labour Appellate Tribunal?"

On behalf of the Company an objection was taken that a fresh reference is not maintainable in regard to non-implementation of an award made on an earlier reference. This contention is perfectly sound. The matter has come to the Tribunal through a wrong channel as no reference could be made in the circumstances stated above. Though Government thought fit to treat it as a dispute which could be referred under section 10, in its true essence it is a matter for investigation and computation under section 20 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act. Learned Advocate for the Company submitted that the Tribunal could not ignore the form in which matter has come before it and treat it as one covered by secion 20. I cannot subscribe to this view. Since the Tribunal has been called upon to ascertain the amount due to these employees under the award, the form is immaterial inasmuch as the Tribunal has jurisdiction under another provision of the law to fulfil the requirements. In this view I deal with the matter as within the provision of section 20 of he Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act. The learned Advocate for the Company raised another objection that the law as amended confers jurisdiction upon the Labour Court alone to make computation under section 33C. Government order was passed when the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, was still in force. Under the supplemental provision of the new Act if immediately before the commencement of the Act there be pending any proceeding in relation to an industrial dispute before a Tribunal constituted under Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as in force before such commencement the dispute might be adjudicated and the proceeding disposed of by that Tribunal after such commencement as if the new Act has not been passed. The Tribunal is therefore to decide the issue under the law as it was before the amendment. Its jurisdiction cannot be held to have been ousted. Under the award these employees are to get wages from the date of discharge up to the date of reinstatement. As reinstatement has not been effected that terminus is interminate. Their dues up to this day can be calculated and I proceed to do so.

From the evidence given we find that K. P. Bhaduri was drawing Rs. 210 inclusive of all allowances on the date of his discharge on 1st November 1952. The wages due to him up to date amount to Rs. 11,929.35 nP.

Anath Nath Paul used to draw Rs. 70 inclsive of all allowances. His services were also terminated with effect from 1st January 1952. The wages due to him up to this day amount to Rs. 3,976.45nP.

Algoo was drawing Rs. 55 per month. From the Appellate Tribunal Award we find that he was discharged with effect from 1st September 1952. The wages due to him up to date amount to Rs. 3,234.35nP.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

Judge.

RESOLUTION

No. 3403Cot./1I-27/57.—10th August 1957.—Read an application, dated the 13th February 1956, from Shri Dhruba Kumar Dutta, Kamarpara Road, P.O. Chinsurah, district Hooghly, for a loan of Rs. 7,000 (Rupees seven thousand only) under section 19(1)(a) of the Bengal State Aid to Industries Act, 1931 (Bengal Act III of 1931) for development of his industry of manufacturing bread and biscuits.

Read also the resolutions adopted by the Board of Industries, West Bengal, at its meetings held on 29th October 1956 and 20th December 1956, respectively, incorporated in the report submitted with the letter No. 30701/1B(95)55, dated the 8th March 1957, from the Secretary, Board of Industries, West Bengal.

Order

ORDERED that the loan of Rs. 7,000 (Rupees seven thousand only) be sanctioned, provided it does not exceed 75 per cent. of the net value of the assets of the applicant in the industry after deducting all incumbrances thereon existing at the time when the application was made.

The loan is also subject to the following conditions:—

(i) That the entire amount of Rs. 7,000 (Rupees seven thousand only) should be utilised for development of industry of manufacturing bread and biscuits;

(ii) that the entire amount of loan of Rs. 7,000 (Rupees seven thousand only) should be paid in two instalments of Rs. 4,000 and Rs. 3,000, respectively;

(iii) that a mortgage deed should be executed by Shri Dhruba Kumar Dutta, Kamarpara Road, P.O. Chinsurah, district Hooghly, in the prescribed form, to be drawn up by the Government for the purpose;

(iv) that interest should be charged at the rate of 6¼ per cent. per annum payable with each instalment on the balance of unpaid principal;

(v) that if the instalments with interest thereon are paid promptly on the due dates the interest will be accepted at 5 per cent. per annum in place of 6¼ per cent. per annum;

(vi) that the entire loan of Rs. 7,000 (Rupees seven thousand only) with interest accruing therein shall be repaid in 20 half-yearly instalments of Rs. 350 each, the first of such instalments being payable one year after the grant of the loan.

ORDERED that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.
